

International Women's Day celebrated

Kingborough and Huon Business Enterprise Centre (KHBECC) hosted a special International Women's Day dinner on Thursday, March 4 at the Beach House, Blackmans Bay.

The sold-out dinner was sponsored by Wise Move Conveyancing and included special guest speakers Dr Hazel MacTavish-West and Diana Carter. Both guest speakers spoke about the challenges of 2020, how to overcome them in 2021 and ways to embrace change.

Dr Hazel MacTavish-West is the founder and Project Manager for Seedlab Tasmania.

Hazel, also known as 'The Veg Doctor', is an experienced consultant food scientist and entrepreneur with global experience.

Hazel works with Australian producers, entrepreneurs, and agri-businesses to develop food and drink products for national and export markets.

Diana Carter is the Principal Consultant at Dynamic Initiatives, working across the community specialising in aged care and disability.

Diana joined the board of KHBECC in 2019 and her expertise in governance reflects her long-standing experience on NFP boards in the community sector, previously as Chair of the Bereavement Care Network Tasmania, President of COTA Tasmania and of the Australian Association of Gerontology Tasmania and Vice President of Playgroups Australia.

Diana was also appointed to the Tasmanian Women's Consultative Council by the Minister for the Status of Women.

Other voluntary board roles at present for Diana include Vice-President of Dementia Friendly Tasmania, Secretary of Disability Voices Tasmania and member of the Kingborough Council Access Advisory Committee.

Kettering concerned over safety

Considerable danger is posed to walkers and motorists along the Channel Highway at Kettering due to the lack of a pedestrian path between Oyster Court and Oxleys Road.

The Kingborough Chronicle visited the site on March 3 to examine the area of concern and speak with members of the Kettering and Snug community.

During the site visit, numerous vehicles travelling south were witnessed passing over the double dividing line, into the oncoming traffic lane, to avoid pedestrians walking northward toward the Kettering Community Hall.

Walkers are required to walk on the side of the road, with no separation from cars.

The Kettering community are seeking signatures from Channel, Kingborough and Houn Valley voters on a petition, to bring the dangerous situation to attention of the President and Members of the Parliament of Tasmania's Legislative Council.

The petition is seeking Tasmanian Government support for the construction of approximately 200 metres of foot-path on the Crown Land that sits above the Channel Highway in the area between Oyster Court and Oxleys Rd.

Local groups leading the call for action include the Kettering Community Association and Kettering Walkers group.

Kettering Community Association's Dr Heather Gluyas is noted as the Principal Petitioner and Member for Huon, Dr Bastian Seidel MLC is sponsoring the petition on behalf of the local community.

"The Channel Highway in this area is very narrow, but carries a high volume of vehicular traffic," states the petition.

"Cars are often seen having to swerve around the pedestrians into the lane of the other side of the road, as well as pedestrians having to jump to safety into the ditch beside the road.

"This is fraught with danger to both pedestrians and also to the vehicular traffic and inevitably a serious accident will occur.

"The road is part of a circular link to the Trial Bay Track, however there is no pedestrian path, so walkers are required to walk on the side of the road with no separation from the cars."

Pedestrians from Kettering and surrounding areas utilise this part of the road to access Trial Bay from Kettering.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Living a life of luxury

Dear Editor,

To the Honourable Jonathan Duniam and Honourable Eric Abetz, if you lost your job today you could happily live on a tax payer funded payments for the rest of your lives. The rest of us are struggling.

I know the JobSeeker payment is not a wage supplement at $40 a day?

My rent is $60 a day.

You call that a wage supplement?

I have applied for so many jobs I've lost count and not to appear ungrateful at all, but being a volunteer at a Community Care Service (mostly known as a Food Bank) the majority of food is out of date and many are reluctant to use the food.

Why can someone on a single parent payment or disability pension get so much more than a JobSeeker, many of whom are genuinely looking for a job and are single parents with a child over the age of cut off?

It does not make sense.

I beg any of you in your flash homes to live on $40 a day. That would be the cost of your lunch alone probably at no expense of your own.

Ratepayers motions moved at council AGM

At Kingborough Council's Annual General Meeting (AGM) on February 27, the President of Kingborough Ratepayers Association Inc (KRAI), John McDonald, moved motions aimed at strengthening council governance and accountability, and reducing council's increasing reliance on litigation to solve disputes.

KRAI's two motions were carried.

The first motion sought introduction of a Mediation Policy to cover both compliance and complaints handling processes.

The AGM agreed that mediation should be the primary mechanism to resolve issues, except where an alleged compliance breach is committed for financial gain, or deliberately flouted legislation.

The AGM also endorsed a sign-off by Kingborough Councillors to occur before any legal action commenced.

The second motion called for a new complaints and breaches register to be established, including a report to councillors at each council meeting.

The AGM agreed that the registers should log complaints about council's operations and services and breaches of legislation, policy, standards, and service delivery.

"These motions have historical context," said Mr McDonald.

"During 2018/19, KRAI researched a number of member complaints about Kingborough Council's interactions with the community.

"The complaints were filtered.

"Ten remaining issues demonstrating non-conformance to legislature and/or Kingborough Council's own compliance, planning and governance procedures and processes, were documented in an Issues Paper.

"The content of the Issues Paper was discussed with both the Mayor and General Manager.

"Concurrently, community concern about Compliance Unit methods and actions influenced Cr Christian Street to move a motion to establish a Compliance Unit review by the Audit Panel during 2019.

"Ratepayers were not invited to make submissions, and the Audit Panel's review failed to identify community concerns about the Compliance Unit's operations," Mr McDonald continued.

"In April 2020, the KRAI executive reviewed the content of the Issues Paper and subsequent complaints alleging acts and omissions by senior council officers.

"That review motivated development of the KRAI's Oversight Governance and Accountability submission to council, that the Kingborough Chronicle has reported in recent editions.

"KRAI has put up these motions as a positive measure to encourage best-practice governance from our council."

The motions moved at Kingborough Council's AGM will be considered at council's meeting on March 15.

10,000 Tasmanians supported by NDIS

Dear Editor,

Figures released by the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) in late February show more than 10,000 Tasmanians are now receiving support from the scheme.

The NDIS Quarterly Report for Tasmania shows there were 9868 active participants and 241 children in the Early Childhood Early Intervention gateway receiving support from NDIS as of December 31.

Plus, 5539 of these active participants are receiving supports for the very first time.

As a member of the Joint Standing Committee on the National Disability Insurance Scheme, I am thrilled to see there are now 10,109 Tasmanians receiving support from the NDIS.

This is an important milestone for the scheme to reach in this state and shows thousands of Tasmanians are accessing the disability supports they need.

The NDIS was designed to help people develop skills and independence through specialised and individualised supports, allowing them to better engage with their communities and reach their personal goals.

It's great to see so many Tasmanians benefitting from the scheme.

Margate couple to face wildlife offences

A Margate couple is being investigated by Tasmania Police in relation to wildlife offences after they were intercepted near Prospect towing a trailer with an all-terrain vehicle loaded with allegedly illegally taken deer and wallaby in the early hours of Wednesday, March 3.

The man and woman were located by Police as they travelled on the Bass Highway in the early hours of Wednesday morning.

Police allege the pair had wildlife in their possession which had not been taken in compliance with wildlife regulations, including deer taken without relevant permits.

Police will also allege the wildlife was taken using spotlighting from the side-by-side all-terrain vehicle.

Police seized wildlife, firearms, ammunition, and the all-terrain vehicle as part of the investigation.

Parks and Wildlife officers assisted Tasmania Police with the seizure.

Tasmania Police stated on March 4, it is expected the couple will be charged with numerous wildlife and firearms offences in the coming days.

While it is currently deer season, Tasmania Police would like to reinforce with recreational hunters that they must comply with all permit requirements and relevant rules and regulations when taking wildlife.

Anyone with information on illegal hunting can report incidents to Police on 131 444 or CrimeStoppers on 1800 333 000.

Ticket to play

With schools having recently returned for Term 1 across Kingborough, many sporting organisations are opening registrations for children and young people.

Children aged five to 18 who are listed on a valid Centrelink Health Care Card, Pensioner Concession Card or who are in Out of Home Care are eligible to apply.

Under the 2020-21 program, successful applicants will receive two vouchers worth up to $100 each.

Families can choose to redeem both vouchers against a single club membership or use one voucher each for different club memberships across the year.

Ticket to Play voucher applications will close on Monday, May 31, and vouchers must be presented to an Approved Activity Provider by Monday, June 7.

Signatures needed to remove danger

Kettering Walkers' walking organiser Elspeth Haughie said one of the walking group members had fallen along the section of road.

"One of our walkers fell one day and ended up in hospital," said Ms Haughie.

Ms Haughie also noted the difficulty and danger faced by parents and grandparents pushing prams.

Ms Haughie said the walking group and community association had worked for several years to raise awareness and push for support to complete the circular link. "We've been trying since 2018," said Ms Haughie.

The Kettering Walkers group is a Heart Foundation of Australia registered walking group.

Ms Haughie said 500 signatures are needed.

Given the small population of Kettering, Ms Haughie said additional signatures were needed from elsewhere, including Woodbridge, Snug and the wider Huon and Channel region.

Hard copies of the petition are available at the Kettering Post Office, the Kettering Community Hall, the Steamhouse Café and the general store.

An electronic petition, or e-petition, is available at <https://lcepetitions.parliament.tas.gov.au/lcepet/Home/PetitionDetails/37?title=Petition%20Details>

As at March 7, the e-petition had gained 151 signatures. The closing date for signatures is Friday, March 19. The Electors of Huon are eligible to sign.

Numerous vehicles were witnessed crossing over the double diving line, as motorists swerved to avoid pedestrians walking beside the Channel Highway, between Oyster Court and Oxleys Road at Kettering on March 3. Pedestrians are not catered for along this stretch of road near the Kettering Community Hall and local café.

A group of Kettering walkers rest on a culvert that runs adjacent to the Channel Highway at Kettering on March 3. The lack of a pedestrian path between Oyster Court and Oxleys Road poses a considerable danger to pedestrians and motorists.

A pedestrian pathway is required between Oyster Court and Oxleys Road on the Channel Highway, Kettering. Five hundred signatures are needed on a petition to the members of Tasmania's Legislative Council by March 19.

Housing projects providing exciting opportunities for the future of Kingborough

Every Tasmanian needs a roof over their head and the Tasmanian Government is delivering a record number of homes and will continue to deliver more houses for Tasmanians who need them.

It was my great pleasure to be at the launch of the $300 million Kings Quarter development in Kingston last week. In terms of jobs and the local economy, Kingston Park is estimated to generate more than 600 new jobs and increase ongoing retail expenditure by about $3.7 million per annum within Kingston.

The first stage of the development will result in the construction of 80 new, environmentally responsible homes, along with associated infrastructure, delivering over 60 jobs per annum during construction and over 600 new jobs once complete and millions of benefits to the local Kingborough community.

Alongside this project, the government continues to progress the Huntingfield Land Release project, which is a key initiative under the Tasmanian Government's Affordable Housing Action Plan 2019-2023. The Huntingfield subdivision will deliver a broad mix of around 470 residential lots, with at least 15 per cent of the lots retained for social and affordable housing.

There will also be high-quality public amenities and open spaces to serve the needs of the local community, in addition to injecting around $19 million into the local economy and creating over 140 full-time jobs.

The construction of homes is expected to result in almost $120 million in economic activity, creating over 850 jobs.

Kingborough is one of the fastest growing areas in Tasmania, and projects such as the Kingston Park and the Huntingfield development will assist in addressing its future needs.

These projects will bring a significant number of jobs, traineeships, and offer long-term contracts to local tradespeople.

It is more important than ever, as we build our way out of the COVID pandemic situation, that we work closely and cooperatively towards projects that require the skills and expertise, and financial resources of both tiers of government, for the benefit of all Tasmanians.

Coercive control, what does it mean?

Coercive control is sometimes known as entrapment, explained as being held hostage in the home or intimate terrorism.

Coercive control is an ongoing pattern of behaviour that is used to maintain power and control over another person's life.

Family and domestic violence services have long recognised this pattern of behaviour before the term coercive control was created.

For decades, survivors have been reporting that the most difficult thing about domestic abuse is not necessarily the physical violence, the bruised ribs, chipped teeth or broken bones.

The worst part, many survivors say, is the psychological abuse including manipulation, surveillance, the gradual isolation from friends and family, the rigid rules, degrading put-downs, humiliation and threats.

This insidious system of behaviours perpetrators use to dominate and entrap their victims known as coercive control.

Sometimes referred to as "intimate terrorism", coercive control chips away at victim's sense of safety and independence.

Some report feeling as if they are being held hostage, constantly "walking on eggshells".

Professor Evan Stark, a sociologist who developed the concept of coercive control, has defined it a "pattern of domination that includes tactics to isolate, degrade, exploit and control" victims, as well as to frighten them or hurt them physically.

Stark's research has found that between 60-80 percent of women who seek help for abuse have experienced it, and that the level of control in such relationships is a predictor of severe and fatal violence.

A review of domestic violence-related homicides in NSW, for instance, found that 99 percent of the relationship was characterised by the male abuser's use of coercive controlling behaviours towards the victim.

Signs you maybe experiencing coercive control within your relationship include if your partner:

- Has strong opinions of what you should wear
- Tells you that you would be better off without your friends
- Becomes jealous easily and is possessive
- Belittles you in public
- Continuously calls, texts and monitors you throughout the day

If you are concerned for yourself or have a friend that may be experiencing these things please contact 000 in an emergency, 1800 608 122 after hours support Family Violence Counselling and Support Service or discuss your concerns with Jireh House on 6232 3850 or family violence specialists at the Huon Domestic Violence Service on 6264 2222.

Young wisdom

Student leaders from schools across southern Tasmania converged for the 15th annual Southern Student Leaders Conference, in the Huonville Primary School auditorium on March 3.

Young leaders engaged in a discussion on leadership with keynote speaker Jordan Lovell and participated in learning activities.

Jordan Lovell shared wisdom gained as a state-level athlete and senior bank manager.

"It's pretty easy generally to be a leader when things are going well, if you're working in a great school and everyone's on fire, doing the work they want to do there is probably not too much to do as a leader," advised Mr Lovell.

"But when things are really challenging and someone's going through a tough time, that's when real leaders show up.

"They really show their value, by doing the right thing."

Taroona Primary School was represented by their Student Parliamentarians, Isaac, Addison, Luna and Henry.

Student leaders from schools across southern Tasmania came together for the Southern Student Leaders Conference held at Huonville Primary School on March 3. Local Jordan Lovell gave a keynote address on the topic of leadership, sharing his wisdom gained from experience as a state-level athlete, senior bank manager and community member. (PS)

Rural health services, have your say

COVID-19 has challenged us all and our health services around the state have borne the brunt of the health response.

Access to timely, equitable health care in rural and regional areas have been highlighted during this period.

Tasmanians living in these regions generally have a higher burden of chronic disease and poorer health outcomes.

Our government and Parliament need to fully understand the lived experiences and challenges, many of which are unique, faced by Tasmanians living outside our major cities.

An Upper House inquiry has been established to inquire into these matters to increase awareness and better inform future policy.

The Committee will examine health outcomes, patient experiences, wait-times and quality of care for people who live in rural and remote Tasmania with particular interest in the barriers we face in rural and regional Tasmania.

The committee will also examine Tasmania's planning systems and projections, these contribute to what health services are provided in certain areas.

As Committee Chair and Deputy Chair, we encourage health care providers, acknowledging how busy you all are, and individuals to identify barriers to access, availability of services in regional area and other matters relevant to the Committee's Terms of Reference, available here:

https://www.parliament.tas.gov.au/ctee/Council/GovA_dminA_RuralHealth.htm

Submissions will inform the committee's report and are requested before the March 12 deadline.

Electronic submissions are encouraged emailed to rur@parliament.tas.gov.au.

As with all inquiries, committee members seek and value your ideas and suggestions, including examples of lived experiences, although we are unable to consider or address individual health care complaints.

To ensure your submission will assist the Committee include:

- a short introduction about yourself or the organisation you represent
 - clearly address some or all of the terms of reference;
 - are relevant, concise and clear in the position or view put forward
 - outline what the issues are but also possible solutions
 - refer to evidence such as research, laws, policies, etc.
 - include case studies or stories that show how people are affected by particular issues, although these should not include names or any identifying information
 - have a clear structure and use page numbers
 - as much as possible include clear recommendations
- Primary prevention and early intervention are keys to community well-being.

Our rural health services are crucial to the health and well-being of all Tasmanians.

This is an opportunity for members of the community to make their voices heard and assist the committee to have well-informed data on which to report and make recommendations.

We understand that many health-related matters are very private and personal, therefore you can request your identity remain anonymous and not made public.

A whale dreaming creation

An artwork by St Aloysius Catholic College Year 7 student Carmela Harris, depicting the whale dreaming creation story of Bruny Island, was recently awarded first prize in a drawing competition organised by the South East Tasmanian Aboriginal Corporation (SETAC).

St Aloysius' Principal Eamonn Pollard said the college was very proud of Carmela and committed to building a better future with the Tasmanian Aboriginal community.

SETAC partnered with SeaLink to engage local schools and Aboriginal students.

Carmela's winning artwork is to be displayed on the SeaLink Bruny Island ferry, while further works are to be included in a future publication of the whale dreaming story.

Understanding issues behind inequality

Kingborough residents who identify as part of the LGBTIQ+ community can share their experiences via an online survey being conducted by University of Tasmania researchers Associate Professor Angela Dwyer and Dr Ruby Grant, in partnership with the Tasmanian Government.

The survey will be the first large survey of LGBTIQ+ people in Tasmania and aims to inform more supportive and inclusive state government services.

Individuals are encouraged to share their experiences accessing and using government services to enhance understanding of the issues and priorities of the LGBTIQ+ community in Tasmania.

Minister for Disability Services and Community Development, the Honourable Jeremy Rockliff MP announced the survey on Monday, February 8.

"I encourage LGBTIQ+ Tasmanians to share their experiences to enhance understanding of the issues and priorities of the LGBTIQ+ community, to help ensure we continue to support an inclusive and respectful community now and into the future," Minister Rockliff stated.

Leader of the opposition, the Honourable Rebecca White MP also encouraged all Tasmanians to continue working towards a more accepting and inclusive society.

"We stand proudly and respectfully side by side with the LGBTIQ+ community to continue to advocate for equality and inclusion," Ms White stated.

"Tasmania has come a long way but there is always more that we can do to ensure that everyone in our community feels accepted and supported," Ms White stated.

The survey closes on March 19 and can be found at https://qfreeaccountssjc1.az1.qualtrics.com/jfe/preview/SV_6x5eGnDXZPdoc5?Q_CHL=preview&Q_SurveyVersionID=currentZ

History is hiding in plain sight

Hobart history tour guide and former newsreader Bill Brundle is scheduled to deliver the Browns River History Group’s first talk of the year on Monday, March 15.

The talk is titled ‘Hidden Hobart in Plain Sight’. The original British colonial settlement of Hobart, as established from 1804 to 1838, has not vanished, rather it is present in a way convicts and soldiers at the time would have remembered it.

The presentation is a reminder that preserving our past, including preserving historic buildings is important.

Browns River History Group welcome the community to this talk and a gold coin donation is appreciated.

It is recommended attendees arrive early to avoid disappointment, as the event is limited to the first 27 people due to coronavirus restrictions.

The talk will take place from 3pm to 4pm at the Kingston Library in the old Kingston Primary School building, 8 Hutchins Street, Block A, Room A1.

Bill Brundle will be giving a talk for the Browns River History Group on March 15 at the old Kingston Primary School. (PS)

The market is under new management and the organisers promise visitors will not be disappointed.

Illustrating history at Channel Museum

Channel Museum is currently featuring the original artwork from Fiona Levings’ non-fiction picture book Now and Then, as part of an exhibition titled Illustrating History: Margate 1940 – 2019.

In the book, author and illustrator Fiona Levings captures a piece of local history.

It shares the lives of two young boys growing up in the same house, eighty years apart.

The book was recognised as a notable book in the Children’s Book Council of Australia’s Children’s Book of the Year awards in 2020.

The exhibition includes 16 original artworks from the book, alongside a selection of historical source material used to create them.

An illustration from the children’s book Now and Then, by Fiona Levings, is on display at the Illustrating History: Margate 1940 – 2019 exhibition at the Channel Museum during March. (PS)

AUSTRALIA’S COVID-19 VACCINATION PROGRAM IS UNDERWAY.

COVID-19 vaccines will keep Australia safe and protect our way of life. The people most at risk of serious illness and those most likely to be exposed to the virus in our communities will be vaccinated first, including:

- Quarantine and border workers
- Frontline health care, disability and aged care workers
- People living in aged and disability care accommodation

Vaccination offers the best protection from COVID-19, but it’s also important we all continue to remain COVIDSafe.

To find out when it’s your turn, visit australia.gov.au or call the National coronavirus and COVID-19 vaccine helpline 1800 020 080.

Vessel pump-out at Margate Marina

A new marine vessel pump-out facility for recreational vessels with holding tanks is now open to the public at Margate Marina, the first outside the Derwent area.

The pump-out facility is provided as a free service for all recreational vessels and aims to reduce the effects of black water disposals in the D'Entrecasteaux Channel. Marine and Safety Tasmania contributed to its installation. Located at the Margate Marina's fuel dock, the pump-out is a self-serve operation for boats with holding tanks and relevant deck fittings. Owners are asked to contact the marina office on their approach to the marina before use.

Access is currently restricted to shallow draft vessels until dredging is completed in coming months. Other recent works at the marina include additional 24/7 CCTV cameras, an expanded trailer boat storage area with an additional 20 bays, a fully equipped laundry for the growing number of live-a-boards and an asphalt driveway entrance to the foreshore carpark. The current marina berth count is 130 floating pontoon berths with plans to expand. The slipyard area for maintenance of vessels is due to increase significantly, with the approval of a large marine trades building. The redevelopment of the marina is planned to continue over the next few years.

Nadine Seabourne

Nadine Seabourne, salon owner of Trilogy Hair has enjoyed an exciting and successful career in hairdressing for 30 years.
Starting with a Certificate 4 in Hairdressing, Nadine ran businesses in the Huon Valley including Ocean Wave Hair in Dover, before moving to Kingborough with her family in 2013 and worked for Brian at the Barbers Chair in Blackmans Bay.
After a few short months Nadine fell in love with the people and purchased the business now called Trilogy Hair Salon.
Nadine and her team quickly outgrow the space and moved to the former Mother Goose Baby Shop in 2015 alongside The Beaute Spot.
Nadine and her talented team continued to grow and employ new apprentices, which is something Nadine is most proud of; training the next generation.

"Passion is important in creative careers and ongoing education is the key," Nadine said.
"My commitment to being a lifelong learner and the realisation that we are never too old to learn."
In 2019 the opportunity came up for Trilogy Hair to expand, and Nadine purchased Insignia Hair in Channel Court and brought it under the Trilogy brand.
"I didn't set out to own and run multiple businesses, I credit my initial growth to client and community support and a great team from the beginning and my team now."
When asked about any setbacks along her journey, Nadine reflected on her work-life balance saying "Family life and work life is an important balance and something I have learned along the way.

"I slowly but surely learnt to work smarter, learning more about business and not just being the hairdresser was integral."
Always looking ahead to the next challenge, Nadine and her team at Trilogy Hair have a plan to diversify the business and complete the trilogy.
"We plan to add the third salon that will be the 'Trilogy of Salons', and to diversify our business into a specialist training hub for young hairdressers offering an alternative to what's available."
Nadine thanked her staff, their clients, the community for their success, as well as the landlords and fellow salon owners in the Huon Valley, Kingborough and Hobart area, saying they are "wonderful in bouncing off ideas, listening to each and problem solve all this business."

International Women's Day is an occasion to celebrate local women making a difference.
In Kingborough, we can look to Edna Pennicott for inspiration. For four decades, Edna has been helping those who are doing it tough. Through Kingborough Helping Hands, Edna's work includes organising emergency supplies including hot meals from a mobile service, Christmas hampers, children's presents and other assistance. The charity brings together volunteers from all walks of life and Edna is at its heart.
While Edna's efforts have earned her recognition, most recently as Tasmania's Local Hero recipient at this year's Australian of the Year awards, International Women's Day is a moment to celebrate other local women, especially those whose work may often go unnoticed.

Edna would be the first to acknowledge she relies on the support of other dedicated volunteers. Despite her humility, Edna - her hard work and compassion - is the glue that brings people together.
COVID-19 has made the past year difficult for many in Kingborough. Now is a great time to think of women who have been helping others, be it through their employment, caring for family and friends or volunteering.
On March 8, let's say thank you to all these women and think of ways we can join in to help.

Samantha Brown – Art of Tea

In 2007 Samantha left her professional Environmental Science career to become “The Tea Lady”. Little did she know then that her small business would grow to become the leading tea brand in Tasmania and provide jobs for many local people.

Samantha takes pride in managing all aspects of the business with the strong core values of health, making a difference, relationships, and being caring and genuine.

Samantha says “We feel a great deal of satisfaction in knowing that we are providing quality tea to people all over Australia to help manage stress, sleep issues or to just share a good cuppa over a zoom call. People are also choosing to shop more locally now, and last year we saw an increase in care-packages being sent to friends and family interstate”. “We are very fortunate to have many long-term loyal customers and they share the love of tea with others too. This has really increased our online sales and kept us busy hand blending, packing and despatching tea!”

Tea has always been a way to improve health and mental wellbeing, and with over 150 “varie-teas” to choose from at the Art of Tea, there is something to suit every person.

Lauren Pringle – The Beaute Spot

Lauren Pringle has been a young, local leader in the beauty industry for over 12 years and has taken the next step recently as the new owner and operator of The Beaute Spot in Kingston.

Originally opened 20 years ago by Lauren's mother Lisa, The Beaute Spot has grown from strength to strength under their leadership, with Lauren working in the business shortly after finishing school and earning her Certificate 3 in Beauty Services.

Throughout Lauren's journey she has continued training in many courses to keep up to date with new technology and services to offer their clients.

Lauren's proudest moment to date is purchasing the salon and becoming the owner in January 2021, during a pandemic that has affected and continues to challenge the world. "COVID was a really testing time for us having to close for 11 weeks, however it gave us time to reset and rethink everything," said Lauren.

"Whatever life throws at me I normally bounce back bigger and better.

"I've always been hard working and dedicated to my clients, and will always go above and beyond.

"A lot of my clients have watched me grow into the woman I am today."

When asked about what has helped with her success, Lauren didn't hesitate in saying the community, her team at The Beaute Spot and her mum Lisa.

"The community is really important; without their loyal support we wouldn't have a business and my great team, Lisa, Rachael and Hailey with their hard work and dedication," said Lauren.

"Mum has been an inspiration and great support throughout my life and if it wasn't for her, I wouldn't be where I am today."

If running and owning your own business was not enough, Lauren is also a volunteer ambulance officer for Tasmania Ambulance and has competed in multiple marathons and fun-runs statewide.

The future for Lauren and her team at The Beaute Spot looks bright with exciting news to come in soon.

"Hoping to grow the business, I can't give too much away as I have big dreams for the salon," Lauren concluded.

Happy International Women's Day

We need to encourage women's workforce participation to close the gender pay gap. This means helping women to balance work and family responsibilities, as women tend to be the primary caregivers.

Karen Lockley and Kathleen Murray - Stihl Shop Kingston

"When I started my career, ideas of equality were different," said Karen Lockley, Stihl Shop Kingston's business owner. "Girls were encouraged to pursue the typical 'female' jobs, like secretary-type roles, or nursing, for example. "I'm a proud Mum with three girls, and career days at school have changed; girls are now encouraged to explore all avenues, including predominantly male-occupied professions or trades. "My eldest daughter drives a 20-ton tip-truck and helps out around the farm with excavations. "You wouldn't have seen so much of that 30 years ago!" Karen has recently employed a new apprentice, a small engines mechanic, Kathleen Murray, who is loving the challenge and embracing her new role. Kathleen is the only female mechanic employed by Stihl Shop Kingston, and her impressive background, training and qualifications have allowed her to flourish and exceed expectations. "I was in Tasmania Police for five years and after leaving to have kids, did a PhD in Forensic Soil Science," said Kathleen. "I couldn't find work in my field and wanted a trade. "My then-husband said, "At your age, you'd have more chance of getting knocked up than getting an apprenticeship". "I left him, and now have an apprenticeship at Stihl Shop Kingston." When asked about what advice she had for young women starting their careers, Kathleen said "Every mechanic I've worked with has been kind, supportive and generous in sharing their knowledge. "It's a vastly improved workplace for women tradies now. "Live your life, be free."

Melissa Muskett

I chose the challenge and joined the team at Raine & Horne Kingston in 2010. I provide Real Estate administration services for the office and the entire sales team.

In addition to my real estate admin roll, I also manage Kingston Self Storage – Kingston's largest self-storage complex with well over 200 individual units. We offer various sized units; all have roller door access and are under your own lock and key. The complex is securely fenced and security patrolled. There is 24 hour/7day a week access to the facility.

If you are looking for storage in a handy location with easy access, please contact me on 6229 1034 or email me admin@kingstonselfstorage.com.au

Susan Kay

I chose the challenge and changed careers after working for ten years predominantly in the not-for-profit sector. I joined Raine & Horne Kingston in 2019 and since then I have developed a reputation for being totally focussed on achieving positive results for my clients.

For me, real estate is not about houses ... it is about people and my abilities have earned me the “2020 Raine & Horne Kingston Salesperson of the Year” as well as being recognised as being one of the “Top 5 Raine & Horne (Tasmania) Salespersons of the Year”.

I firmly believe that great results are achieved when working closely with my clients. As I say, “let's get you where you need to be ... today.”

Paige Lorkin

I chose the challenge too and have just joined the Raine & Horne Kingston team and am incredibly grateful to be guided by 3 other strong women in business under the Raine & Horne banner.

I have a strong understanding of real estate in Tasmania and I am excited to bring a fresh approach to real estate in Kingborough.

I really care about my work and the people I meet along the way, and I look forward to guiding you through your real estate experience and helping you and your family reach your property goals.

INTRODUCING NICOLA FRANCIS, OWNER AND OPERATOR OF UNDEFEATD

UNDEFEATD is a martial arts school specifically for females, created by Nicola Francis in July 2019.

Nicola originally from Dover in the Huon area who now lives in Kingston, has over 10 years primary school teacher experience (from 1998 to 2009) followed by eight years as a full time Martial Arts Teacher (from 2009 to 2017).

Nicola being a mum to a young girl herself has a passion for teaching and motivating, especially for females, which was the reason for her launch of UNDEFEATD.

Nicola has successfully grown UNDEFEATD from its inception in 2019 with a martial arts school in Bellerive and has recently expanded the business into Kingston with a second martial arts school now open in Channel Court Shopping Centre (opposite Kaisercraft).

Nicola's aim is to help students meet their full potential and guide them in areas such as fitness, motivation, discipline, focus, resilience and respecting one-self and others.

She is extremely passionate and creative in delivering a fun and invigorating self defence system to girls, teenage girls and ladies and offers class lessons, private tuition, school groups, birthday parties and corporate groups.

Through UNDEFEATD, Nicola is able to teach the girls to have practical self-defence skills to help keep them safe physically and mentally.

A review from an UNDEFEATD student sums up the experience Nicola provides: "Super classes! Nicola takes the time to explain and share her knowledge. This is not something I would usually feel comfortable doing but the environment is friendly and welcoming, try it for yourself, I certainly have no regrets and look forward to each and every class." Jan (Undefeatead TEENS/Ladies class)

As well as being passionate about keeping girls safe, Nicola also owns and manages the Quarry Hill Lookout accommodation in Dover.

Kingborough Bowls support local Tigers

A gala evening of sports entertainment took place in the Donald Hazell Indoor Bowls Centre at the Kingborough Bowls and Community Club on Friday, February 26.

Kingborough's Premier Division team played in the last game of the Bowls Tasmania South Competition against the visiting Rosny Park team.

Spectators, including local and visiting club members and the public, created a noisy and electrifying atmosphere.

Kingborough Club members, some with hair painted black and yellow, wore club uniforms for the big event, in support of the Tigers.

Resident bowls reporter and photographer Pat Lee arrived in 1950's-style reporter's apparel, consisting of a black and white striped shirt with a media pass clipped on, reporter's hat with a press card on the brim.

Twenty-four lucky spectators enjoyed the luxury of viewing the game from four corporate boxes.

The prestigious boxes were won via an auction to the highest bidders the previous week.

Guests occupying the boxes were treated to drinks and nibbles served throughout the night.

The competition was a part of the Derek King Memorial Trophy Competition, held between the two clubs for several years.

Derek was a popular bowler at both clubs during his bowling days.

Kingborough players had a good night, winning overall 90 shots to 72 against Rosny.

Kingborough won on two rinks, drew on one and went down on the fourth.

Jason Fowler with Brent Forsyth, Graham Lack and Tony Verrier won 25-15.

William Coad with Robert O'Neill, Shane Garth and Graeme Walker won 26-17.

Ryan Guy's rink drew 17-17.

Jarod Long just missed out, going down by one shot.

On Saturday, February 27 the Division 1 team travelled to Rosny Park Bowls Club, where they were defeated overall by only four shots, with Rosny winning 78 shots to 74.

Kingborough won on one rink and drew on another with Rosny winning the other two.

Anthony Rowe with Michael Andersch, Ian Harris and Vincent Grimes won 19-11 and Mark Crawford's rink drew 21-21.

Division 3 hosted the visiting Sandy Bay Bowls Club team at Margate, meeting the same fate, winning on one rink and drawing on the second, with Sandy Bay defeating them overall 92 shots to 81.

Mike Westlake's rink got up by one shot winning 23-22 and Anthony Sculthorpe drew 24-24.

Division 4 also travelled to Rosny Park where they met some stiff opposition.

Rosny defeated them overall 89 shots to 76, with Kingborough managing to win on two of the four rinks played.

Pat Lee's rink of Veronica Cleary, Glenus Johnson and Fiona Hickey won 24-19.

Meanwhile, Sue Mann with Dale Freeman, Lee Sheard and Frances Phillips won 22-18.

Division 4 and Division 1 were also a part of the Derek King Memorial Trophy Competition, however with both Kingborough teams losing to Rosny, Rosny won the Trophy.

Division 6 hosted Howrah at Margate, achieving an overall win against the visiting team, 71 shots to 33.

Kingborough won on two rinks and drew on the third.

Michael Cawthorn with Lee Connors, John Rosevear and Ian Cockshut had a good 30-7 win.

Bruce Moran with Jim Beadle, Ray Palmer and Lindsay Webb won 25-10 and George Rahmanovic drew 16-16.

Division 7 hosted the visiting Tasman team from Nubeena.

Kingborough defeated the visitors on both rinks, winning overall 49 shots to 23.

Regina Hayes won 23-10 and Rex Duggan won 26-13.

In the Wednesday Competition, Division 1 travelled to the Beltana Bowls Club at Lindisfarne where they were defeated overall 70 shots to 50.

Kingborough won on one of the three rinks played, with Gavin Cleary winning 27-22.

Division 3 hosted the visiting Royal Hobart Bowls Club team on the grass at Margate.

Kingborough won on two of the three rinks played, delivering an overall win of 63 shots to 47.

Mike Westlake with Tom Ferguson, Gavin Fenton and Terry Thompson won 26-13 and the Bruny Island rink of Gary Baker, John Kobylec, Max Burslem and Geoff Eddington won 22-14.

Division 4 had a bumper win when they hosted the visiting Rosny Park Bowls Club team on the grass at Margate, winning convincingly on all three rinks played for an overall 91 shots to 25 demolition.

John Mac with Tony Chaffey, Bill Muss and Michael Hemmings led the charge winning 33-4.

Pat Lee with John Iles, Peter Oates and Stephen Sanders crushed their opposition 30-8 and George Rahmanovic with Lee Connors, Bill Reeve and Bernie Holland, after being in deep trouble early fought back and in doing so picked up a 'Holy Grail' of eight on one end which blew their opposition out of the game and they ended up winning 28-13.

In the Thursday Women's Competition Division 1 travelled to Brighton Bowls Club where, in an awfully close game, they were defeated overall by their hosts by only one shot, Brighton winning 47 shots to 46.

Kingborough won on one of the three rinks played with Leonie Price's rink winning 22-14.

Due to the very windy conditions on the day, Division 2 played in the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre at Margate when they hosted the visiting Cygnet Bowls Club team.

Kingborough dominated the game, winning on two rinks and drawing on the third for an overall 81 shots to 48 victory.

Veronica Cleary with Maureen Sculthorpe, Dianne Lovell and Fiona Hickey won 31-12.

Glenus Johnson with Glenna Thompson, Margaret Thorp and Ida Jones won 27-13 and Pam Rosevear's rink drew 23-23.

Division 5 also played indoors in the Donald Hazell Centre against a combined Buckingham/North Hobart team, with the visitors winning overall 45 shots to 42.

Blind Cricket launch at the Cricket Hub

The Cricket Hub, Kingston hosted an event for the Blind Cricket Tasmania program on Wednesday, February 17.

The event and program informed the local community of their vision to establish and manage this initiative for the benefit of the blind and visually impaired community.

Kingston resident Phillip 'Sunny' Drury, CEO of Inclusive Innovations Tasmania hosted the event which included a video presentation of the blind cricket story, interviews with local blind cricket players and program ambassadors, Nathan Lyon video message of support, Harcourts Foundation donation of $5000, the confirmation of a 'Come and Try Day' and the announcement of Dual State team partnership for 2022/23 National Cricket Inclusion Championships.

The game of blind cricket was started in Australia by returning soldiers from the First World War who lost their sight on the battlefield.

Its early origins were in Prahran, Victoria where a group of people who are blind and vision-impaired came up with the idea of putting rocks in a can and using it as a ball that had sound.

Today the blind cricket ball contains a bell and competitions are held in all mainland states, while progress is being made to develop programs in Tasmania and Northern Territory.

The annual National Cricket Inclusion Championships (hosted by Cricket Australia and Taverners Australia) brings players together from all parts of Australia.

From there, elite players can go on to play internationally, competing with teams from 10 countries in T20 and ODI World Cups every two years, as well as an Ashes series between Australia and England every four years.

Blind cricket is the only non-Paralympic sport that covers its own costs of its participants at international level.
