KINGSTON PARK OPEN

The Kingston Park playground is being explored by local families and visitors to the Kingborough area after Kingborough Council launched a three-week program of activities on Friday, March 26. The park features areas to suit a range of ages and abilities, with a fort and climbing ropes area, sandpits, water play areas, flying foxes, a ball games area, musical apparatus, barbecues, tables and seating, swings and climbing frames, with an emphasis on natural elements and Tasmanian creatures. Submit your photos to editorial@kchronicle.com.au and see next week's edition for more images.

Avina of Kingston, Delilah of Bonnet Hill and Evie of Neika shared an exciting evening at Kingston Park on Friday, March 26. The three girls enjoyed the net swing together as well as exploring the many other areas of the new playground such as the climbing rope course and fort, the slides, sandpits, water play area and flying foxes. See Page 8 of this week's Kingborough Chronicle for more photos.

Election called

Kingborough residents will go to the polls a year early, after an election was called for Saturday, May 1.

Premier of Tasmania, the Honourable Peter Gutwein MP, made the announcement at midday on Friday, March 26, stating that Tasmanians can't afford the uncertainty of a minority government which has resulted after the departure of Sue Hickey from the Liberal party.

The last instance a Tasmanian Government called an election this early was 1989.

All the sitting members of Parliament have been confirmed as candidates, meaning Franklin MPs David O'Byrne, Jacque Petrusma, Alison Standen, Nic Street and Rosalie Woodruff will be up for re-election as well as Clark MPs Elise Archer, Ella Haddad, Sue Hickey, Cassy O'Connor and Madeleine Ogilvie.

Other candidates for Franklin include: Huon Valley Mayor Bec Enders, Dean Ewington and Dean Young.

Other candidates for Clark include: Simon Behrakis, Will Coats, Kristie Johnson and Harvey Lennon.

Candidates are correct at time of printing.

Vaccination clinic opened

Tasmania's first community COVID-19 vaccination clinic opened in Kingston on Monday, March 22.

The clinic was one of four community clinics opened in the past week, as part of Phase 1B of the vaccine rollout across the state.

Located at the Kingborough Community Hub on Goshawk Way, opposite the Kingston Health Centre, the vaccination clinic is currently operating from Mondays to Wednesdays.

To make an appointment for a vaccination, the public have been advised to call 1800 671 738, as the clinic is not a booking office.

Announcing the commencement of bookings on March 19, Premier of Tasmania, the Honourable Peter Gutwein MP said more than 16,000 Tasmanians were anticipated to attend the clinics over the next four weeks.

"The first phase of the rollout, Phase 1A, has now been underway for four weeks and I'm pleased to report that Tasmania has now delivered 7631 individual doses of vaccine to 6557 Tasmanians, including 1074 who have now had their second dose," Premier Gutwein remarked.

"The government will also run pop-up clinics to ensure Tasmanians living in rural areas can be vaccinated.

"These will be advertised locally."

A mobile clinic is expected to be set up in Huonville in the next four weeks.

Tasmanians who are able to receive their vaccine as part of Phase 1B include:

- Elderly people aged 70 years and over
- Remaining health care workers not vaccinated in Phase 1A
- Younger adults with underlying medical conditions
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander adults over 55 years of age
- Critical and high-risk workers, including defence, police, fire and emergency services workers and those employed in the meat processing industry.

Members of the public are asked not to enter the community vaccination clinic if they:

- Have COVID-19
- Have been instructed to quarantine and their 14 days are not yet finished
- Are unwell, including with fever, runny nose, cough, sore or itchy throat or shortness of breath.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Channel Highway chokepoint

Dear Editor,
The newly proposed roundabout on the Channel Highway for the Huntingfield subdivision appears to be inadequately designed.

Traffic travelling north along the highway from the Channel will, all-of-a-sudden, come to a complete stop to give way to traffic exiting the new subdivision.

Will Kingborough Council force all residents of the Channel through a tiny single lane roundabout that will likely cause a foreseeable chokepoint, especially in morning traffic, that will exist for generations, or will the proponent be forced to go back to the drawing board?

Brendan Howard
Woodbridge

International Day of Forests

Dear Editor,
Sunday, March 21 marked the International Day of Forests. I'd like everybody to celebrate the native forests that we have left on this planet.

I'd like it if people would help celebrate forests everywhere and do whatever they can to protect them.

Right now there is a Tarkine forest blockade that everyone in Tasmania must visit.

Please insist on the permanent protection of threatened forests.

I would like to encourage the forest industry to transition out of native forest logging now, and to move into plantation forests.

It is time.

Colette Harmsen
Tinderbox

Ban venture minerals from the Tarkine

Dear Editor,
Thank you to the Bob Brown Foundation protesters who continue to fight against destructive climate-unfriendly practices in the Tarkine/takayna.

Australia's largest temperate rainforest in the Tarkine/takayna is threatened by two giant mines if the Venture Minerals mine at Riley Creek goes ahead.

This area will be transformed from a beautiful world-heritage class wilderness into piles of rubble, and ongoing environmental impacts will devastate the area for decades if not hundreds of years.

For the sake of our planet, stop this nonsense.

Felicity Holmes
Tinderbox

No crossing the roundabout

Dear Editor,

I note with interest the Development Application for a new roundabout on the Channel Highway to provide access to the State Government's Huntingfield subdivision has been lodged with Kingborough Council.

It's interesting to note that throughout the report and documentation there are references regarding the need to maximise connectivity for surrounding pedestrian and cycling networks.

However, if you look at the roundabout design submitted, it contains no provision for pedestrian or cycling crossing whatsoever.

Extremely disappointing to be saying something on one hand but not putting it into practice on the other.

Just think, if you could get across this new roundabout, along a shared path to Maddocks Road, you arrive at Whitewater Park Estate.

From there cyclists and pedestrians would be able to safely find their way to the new Kingston Park precinct, Kingston shopping precinct or up to Kingborough Sporting Centre precinct and Kingston High School.

Then the reverse.

Cyclists and pedestrians coming from Kingston could go along the Whitewater Creek track, down Maddocks Road, across this new roundabout to Huntingfield and be on their way toward various schools, the new Park and Ride facility, and hopefully in the future, to Margate and Snug via a new shared cyclist/pedestrian path.

Sadly, this is a significant missed opportunity by the State Government to be thinking big picture.

This is also a disappointing result for the surrounding current and future residents and the 546 people who recently signed a petition calling for this Whitewater Creek track to be connected to Huntingfield.

For now, everyone will just have to settle for undertaking their journeys by car and congesting both this new roundabout and the Algona Road/Fork in the Road roundabout.

2050 vision for greater Hobart region

Kingborough residents have been invited to comment on a brief document aimed at guiding long-term development and planning in the greater Hobart region.

A Consultation Draft, 2050 Vision for Greater Hobart document has been produced by a committee comprising of four local government representatives from the Kingborough, Clarence, Glenorchy, and Hobart council areas, in collaboration with the State Government.

The Greater Hobart Committee members, including Mayor of Kingborough, Cr Dean Winter, released a joint statement on March 24 inviting public feedback on the 30-year vision document.

"Greater Hobart is already home to around 199,000 people and is expected to reach 227,000 residents by 2040," Mayor Winter commented.

"The draft vision is based around six themes that contribute to making Greater Hobart a great place for people.

"The themes cover community and natural environment, coordinated planning, transport connections and future-proofing our city, people and economy.

"A public feedback period is now open on the new vision, which will guide development and planning across Greater Hobart for the next 30 years to ensure it grows to be a thriving and an inspiring place to live."

The document identifies six key challenges for the region, including an ageing population, managing growth, employment, housing diversity, impacts of climate change and transport and infrastructure.

The Consultation Draft 2050 Vision for Greater Hobart contains less than 15 pages of text and is available at www.greaterhobart.tas.gov.au/vision

Junior soccer kicking off at Woodbridge

Woodbridge Soccer Club held an open day at the Woodbridge Oval on Sunday, March 28, from 11am to 2pm, for prospective young soccer players and their families interested in participating this year.

The community was invited to attend the event, which included a sausage sizzle, kicking a soccer ball and talking to club representatives.

The junior soccer club caters for players in the Under 6 to Under 12 age groups.

The club encourages parent participation in the areas of coaching, training, team management and a variety of other volunteer roles.

The soccer season is scheduled to run from April 24 through to August 28.

Games are played each Saturday morning with training occurring after school, on weeknights.

Registrations will be open until April 5.

Nature preserved at Tinderbox Hills

Tasmanian Land Conservancy (TLC) celebrated the announcement of Tinderbox Hills Reserve, Tasmania's newest nature reserve at Kingston Beach on Friday, March 26.

TLC said the 67-hectare reserve has been established on the Tinderbox peninsula thanks to more than a thousand people making donations from all over the world.

TLC Chief Executive Officer James Hattam said the organisation is particularly grateful for the support given by locals on the peninsula.

"This is an area where nature is highly prized," said Mr Hattam.

"Tinderbox peninsula has one of the highest densities of Land for Wildlife properties in Tasmania.

"This brand new protected area links existing formal and informal reserves around the peninsula.

"Tinderbox now has a significant conservation area of over 220 hectares in an area rapidly becoming suburban."

TLC said the not-for-profit organisation bought the property from Diana West, whose family, the Hales, have been in the area since 1946.

Ms West decided TLC would make a better owner than a buyer wanting to develop the area for housing or tourism.

TLC said Ms West wanted a future for Tinderbox Hills where her family and other locals could still visit.

According to TLC, more than 80 percent of the Tinderbox Hills property is classed as vulnerable blue gum dry forest and woodland community, recognised at state and national levels as a high priority for protection.

"Among the vegetation, visitors might see the nationally threatened eastern quoll, eastern barred bandicoot, Tasmanian bettong and long nosed potoroo," Mr Hattam said.

"This is a conservation gem on Hobart's doorstep.

"The grassy woodlands of blue gum are in beautiful condition and protecting them in this reserve means critically endangered migrating swift parrots will have a place to return to every spring.

"This reserve may also be the last breeding habitat on the Tasmanian mainland for an endemic Tasmanian bird, the forty spotted pardalote," commented Mr Hattam.

"In February I was lucky enough to see two of these endangered birds on the property, knowing their habitat is now safe is a reminder of how vital this conservation work is."

Humble art exhibition

Local award-winning artist Joan Humble OAM is preparing to exhibit 42 of her latest paintings, comprising three years of dedicated work at the Huon Art Gallery in Cygnet.

Joan arrived in Taroona from Birmingham in England with her parents in 1949 and has lived there ever since.

Speaking to the Kingborough Chronicle, Joan said she almost exclusively paints Tasmanian scenes for exhibition, here and overseas, and many people will recognise scenes from the Labyrinth, Walls of Jerusalem, Cradle Mountain, perhaps even Port Davey, Bruny Island, Esperance River, Adamsons Peak and more local places in her art work.

Joan said she is proudly Tasmanian and her work is inspired by nature.

Each painting has taken her back to the time and place to which she sailed or hiked.

Joan has been teaching art for many years in Margate and Hobart, and this exhibition is a celebration of Joan's 83rd birthday.

The exhibition, a collection of oil paintings and miniatures, is scheduled to be held at the Huon Art Gallery in Cygnet, from April 4 to 24.

Local government reforms imminent

Structural reforms of Tasmania's local government sector appear imminent, as the Local Government Association of Tasmania (LGAT) announced support on March 16 for State Parliament to sponsor a process to drive reform of the sector.

The reforms were recommended in the Premier's Economic and Social Recovery Advisory Council's final report, released by the Premier of Tasmania, Peter Gutwein MP on March 16.

LGAT President, Mayor Christina Holmdahl said the association welcomed genuine, community-led discussion and collaboration around a changed approach to local government reform.

"We know from other states that successful reform must be community-led," said Mayor Holmdahl.

"Each community's challenges and strengths have to be understood to identify the right services for them now and into the future.

"Bigger is not always better.

"Reform should focus on delivering what communities need in a sustainable way, allowing for local innovation and solutions.

"The significant work undertaken as part of the LGAT's 21st Century Councils Project has already shown significant sectoral support for reforms that leverage local democracy, increase inter-council collaboration to drive improvements, consistency and sustainability," noted Mayor Holmdahl.

"Councils are place-shapers who drive most people's attachment to, and satisfaction with, the area in which they live.

"The experience of COVID-19 has shown the strong links between community members and their council and the important role councils are already playing in driving community-led recovery."

Mayor of Kingborough, Cr Dean Winter told the Kingborough Chronicle on March 23 that local government reform was considered only a few years ago.

"That process resulted in the strategic partnership between Kingborough, Clarence, Glenorchy and Hobart Councils," Mayor Winter said.

"We have an open mind on future reform options and we are happy to work with the Parliament in the best interests of our community and local services.

"Any amalgamation work needs to focus on delivering services.

"Every year the expectations of our community grow. "People want higher levels of services, better playgrounds, public toilets, walking track and waste collection.

"In order to do that we need to maintain and build a strong workforce that is able to keep delivering the services and infrastructure that our area needs," Mayor Winter explained.

Less drive time. More you time.

Bus services to and from Kingborough and the southern suburbs are changing for the better, giving you more time to do the things that you want to do on your commute. Catch up on the news, read a book, listen to music, and enjoy some down time.

The Tasmanian Government is working hard to give you real choice about how you travel to and from our beautiful city, with faster, more reliable and more frequent buses. We're making things better, so everyone has the freedom to move.

If you'd like to have your say on more changes that will improve future public transport in Hobart, you're invited to join us for our upcoming public consultation. Visit transport.tas.gov.au/southernprojects for more information.

Woodbridge market street party vibe

The Woodbridge Market returned to the Woodbridge Hall on Sunday, March 21 with fresh produce, musical entertainment, food and a variety of arts and crafts.

Market goers demonstrated their enthusiasm, arriving well before opening time and lining up to enter.

New co-owner Kate Lucas said the venue quickly reached capacity.

"The market proved to be great success with around 500 market goers turning up," commented Kate.

"The Woodbridge Hall quickly reached its COVID capacity limit early in the day, with such a crowd resulting in people having to line up to get in."

Kate said stall holders offered a wide variety of products and services.

"From produce to fashion, arts and crafts, with even massage available," said Kate.

"The Woodbridge Village Emporium got into the act... setting up an outside food stall to add to their meals available for takeaway or sit down inside.

"Fiddle De Dee played outside the Emporium.

"This led to a comment from one customer that it was like a street party outside.

"At end of the day the Woodbridge Hall committee arranged for four local pipers to play in the street beside the hall, marking the end of the market, sort of.

"Although the official hours of the market were 10am to 2pm, eager customers started coming in well before 10am and were still coming in well after 2pm."

The Woodbridge Market is now held on the third Sunday of the month, with the next market scheduled for Sunday, April 18.

Grants to remove weeds across regions

Applications have opened for the Large Grants Round of the Tasmanian Government's Weeds Action Fund (WAF), to support community organisations and farmers to tackle weeds impacting agricultural and environmental assets.

The grants aim to stop the spread, or where possible eradicate a weed species, across a broad landscape such as municipalities, catchments or regions.

Grants of up to $50,000 per year, for three years are on offer under Stage 2, Round 2 of the funding.

Weeds targeted include gorse, serrated tussock, Chilean needle grass, African feathergrass, African lovegrass, Parramatta grass, yellow burweed, Heather and Karamu.

Announcing the new round of grants on March 10,

Minister for Primary Industries and Water, the Honourable Guy Barnett MP said the new round is open to large-scale projects.

"The WAF's Large Grants Program is open to eligible multi-year, large-scale projects that involve neighbouring landholders and other stakeholders in the effort to eradicate weeds that are damaging to our environment," said Minister Barnett.

"In turn, this will lead to significant, lasting and measurable improvements to the productivity of agricultural land and the protection of our environmental assets."

Application close at 5pm on May 5.

Thanks to the generosity of the students, staff and families of Blackmans Bay Primary School through a free dress day on March 25, Easter will be a little brighter for locals in need. Students were asked to bring an Easter Egg or gold coin donation to participate in the annual event, with a goal of providing at least one Easter Egg (or bag of little eggs) for each of the Jireh House Women's Refuge residents on Easter Sunday. Chloe and Angus Stevenson helped prepare and deliver the donations for the sixth year of the drive, which provided Easter craft packs and over forty gift bags of Easter eggs to Jireh House, helping to meet increased demand. In addition, forty gift bags of eggs were donated to the Palliative Care, Whittle Ward for patients, their families and staff. (PS)

with Councillor Flora Fox

Being part of a community

It takes a community to raise a child.

Belonging to a caring and connected community creates strong, resilient citizens and generations of happy children.

My parents arrived as migrants from Holland in 1952, eager to raise their twin babies, my sister and I, in a safe and unspoiled environment and to set up their own business.

My father was a skilled auto mechanic and my mother was an experienced secretary and bookkeeper.

My parents joined the Blackmans Bay community, expanded their family and continued to live in Blackmans Bay and work at their service station and workshop for the rest of their lives.

In summer holidays, my father went exploring in the south west wilderness.

The rest of the family spent most of their holidays at the beach or in the bush behind our property in Gourlay Street.

My father regularly took my two brothers out in the dinghy to catch fish or crayfish.

Our large garden provided us with fruit and vegetables for the table and we preserved or shared the rest with friends and neighbours.

The family was supported by neighbours and the wider community and we made life-long friends in the area.

Mum joined the Blackmans Bay Progress Association.

We children went to the local schools, became brownies and Scouts and I also joined the local theatre group, The Kingston Players.

We got to know everyone in the area by name and where they lived.

Belonging to a community builds relationships and allows a two-way support system, which leads to volunteering and community service groups being formed.

Sporting clubs, Landcare groups, hall management committees and service clubs thrive and the whole community benefits.

A major part of Kingborough Council's budget supports these clubs and groups, but it is hard to put a dollar figure on the value that these activities and the volunteering involved contributes to the community.

Prior to becoming a councillor, as a volunteer I helped establish a gardening club, bush care groups, children's play groups, school mother's group and I enjoyed being secretary to the Howden Progress Association for many years.

When I was first elected to Kingborough Council in 1988, and for the next six years, councillors were all volunteers.

Kingborough's has been one of the fastest growing areas in Tasmania for the last 30 years.

Our population has doubled from 20,000 to nearly 40,000 people in that time.

The new statewide planning scheme will allow for further growth and denser living.

A record 785 Development Applications (DAs) were lodged in 2020.

Our small coastal communities of Blackmans Bay and Kingston are spreading to blend into a massive single housing mass.

Large old farming properties, including Huntingfield, are being subdivided into large high density lots.

Multiple-unit developments, surrounded by concrete, are springing up in leafy residential areas to replace modest homes and gardens, dramatically changing the rural feel of Kingborough.

State Government is overriding council planning schemes, forcing councils to allow more houses.

For example:

- 30 per cent more houses can be built on a given area of land;
- houses can be built right up to your back boundary;
- houses do not have to have sun coming into windows for living areas; and
- revised vegetation removal exemptions.

Kingborough has no control over these changes as they are driven by the State Government.

Council needs to pay for all this new development.

Existing residents lose their space, sunshine and views.

Councils are unable to charge the developers for community infrastructure and services, known as head-works.

Even the State Government is not contributing to the external infrastructure and services needed to cater for their own subdivision.

Everyone wants to live in Kingborough because of the historical and current success of the community.

Council and I have spent the last 35 years advocating for the community and the environment.

As a result, Kingborough is a safe, connected, and healthy environment, where people want to move to from overseas, interstate and elsewhere in Tasmania.

Council is actively attempting to keep Kingborough as a nice place to live, now and into the future.

You, as a Kingborough resident, should tell the state politicians what you think and how you feel.

Beach wheelchairs launched

A new fleet of beach wheelchairs destined for surf lifesaving locations across Tasmania were officially launched from The Salty Dog Hotel, Kingston Beach on Saturday, March 20.

The Wheels to Waves initiative was the brainchild of a group of Tasmania Leaders Program Graduates, with the support of Surf Life Saving Tasmania and a number of financial sponsors.

Surf Life Saving Tasmania said the custom-made, therapeutic, beach access wheelchairs provide people with disabilities the opportunity to access the beach and ocean with dignity, promoting inclusivity and equality.

"As soon as we took delivery of the beach wheelchairs back in January, they were pretty much packed up and transported ... to Sandy Bay, to be used by four excited participants at our Starfish Nippers Program," said Training and Community Programs Manager, Leanne Johannesen.

"The chairs first outing was a huge success, with families expressing their gratitude to the project team for heading up such a great initiative.

"The most heart-warming moment was hearing of a family who would struggle to all go to the beach together because the daughter was unable to access the sand.

"But now, I hear that after using the chair at Starfish Nippers, that the family ... now regularly book a chair to go to the beach.

"It has been lifechanging for them."

The wheelchairs are available to hire at no cost via <https://www.slst.asn.au/be-safe/beach-safety-top-tips/beach-access-wheelchair/>

Greater Hobart Committee
Four Cities. One Hobart.

2050 Vision for Greater Hobart - Have your say

We will live in the world's best small capital city, a city built for people that is connected, friendly and safe.

The Clarence, Glenorchy, Hobart and Kingborough councils and the Tasmanian Government have been working together as part of the Greater Hobart Committee to develop a shared Vision for Greater Hobart to 2050.

The draft Vision aims to reflect not only the varied and individual nature of the four cities that make up Greater Hobart, but also to celebrate what brings our communities together.

To help Greater Hobart continue to be a thriving and inspiring place to live, we want your feedback.

You can view the draft 2050 Vision for Greater Hobart at www.greaterhobart.tas.gov.au/vision.

Consultation will run until Monday, 26 April 2021.

To have your say, you can complete the online survey at yoursay.hobartcity.com.au/greater-hobart-vision or email your written submission to contact@greaterhobart.tas.gov.au

KINGSTON'S NEWEST PARK

Harvey and Flynn of Howrah joined Winnie of Glebe in some fun musical play at the opening of the Kingston Park playground.

An overview of the facilities and equipment at the Kingston Park playground, which was officially opened on Friday, March 26. The park features areas to suit a range of ages and abilities with a fort and climbing ropes area, sandpits, water play areas, flying foxes, a ball games area, musical apparatus, barbecues, tables and seating, swings and climbing frames. The playground has an emphasis on natural elements and Tasmanian creatures, with plenty of links to the environment and opportunities to explore connections to nature. Kingborough Council has planned a three-week program of activities to support a COVID-Safe opening of the equipment and prolong the enjoyment for both locals and visitors.

Elizeo, Kiki and Emmanuel from Bellerive enjoyed the seesaws at the opening of the Kingston Park playground on Friday, March 26.

Mikayla, Hannah, Lucy and Zara enjoyed a view from the top after successfully scaling the sea urchin climbing apparatus at Kingston Park.

Charlotte's Cove resident Annie blitzed down the flying fox at the newest playground in Kingborough.

Harry travelled from Snug to experience all the new Kingston Park playground had to offer, particularly enjoying the water play equipment.

Family friendly space and seclusion

Situated on five acres of well-maintained and semi-cleared bushland, just a few minutes' drive from the heart of Kingston and only 15 minutes to Hobart's CBD, sits this spacious and loved, country-style home.

The family-friendly layout provides privacy and separation and features an enormous master suite with ensuite and plenty of robe storage.

Branching from the opposite side of the impressive, raked ceiling entryway, along a light-filled hallway, is the children's wing which has three bedrooms and a large bathroom, with the end bedroom being easily big enough to act as a second living area.

All of these rooms have built-in wardrobes and a lovely, leafy aspect.

The central kitchen and living area open onto an expansive sundeck, which can also be accessed via the main bedroom, providing a wonderful outdoor entertaining space or just another relaxing place to enjoy the beautiful outlook.

The timber features both inside and out add to the charm, warmth and overall appeal of the home.

A concrete pathway/patio completes the circle around the house so there is no need to get your feet dirty when popping out to enjoy the garden.

The level, grassed area out the back makes a great spot for the hammock or the kids' trampoline.

The outbuildings consist of a timber garage with two roller doors which has enough room for two to four cars, depending upon vehicle sizes.

There is a second shed/workshop which has vehicle access to the personal entry door.

Two large water tanks, holding approximately 23,000 litres each, have your water needs covered and will put you well on the way to self-sustainability.

The elevated position and cul-de-sac location allow the unique perspective of living quietly amidst the treetops with beautiful views to the hills beyond, yet glimpses of the River Derwent through the leaves serve as a reminder of the close proximity of what has been rated one of the best beaches for a relaxing road trip in Tasmania.

Kingston Beach offers beachside restaurants, cafes, great walking tracks, an off-leash dog area, safe swimming and regular community events.

The nearby Picket Hill Track has an access point from Denehey Road and is a 6.4km walk, bike or ride return trip, which takes you through grassy paddocks, light woodlands and between rural bush properties.

A great feature of this trail is the panoramic mountain and ocean views available from the Picket Hill Lookout.

This is a rare opportunity to capture a private, bush, beach and near-city lifestyle experience.

Sophistication within rustic charm

Echidna Cottage is a boutique property that offers the sophistication of a modern home paired with the rustic charm of shack life.

Set on over 2000 square metres of land this is a true haven, with an abundance of bird song, animal life and picturesque water views.

The house embodies true craftsmanship, carefully restored and embellished in a labour of love.

Offering two bedrooms and a separate bedroom studio, currently used as an Airbnb rental, there's room, flexibility and options for all.

The open plan living space is simply delightful, capturing sunshine, visions of bush life and shimmering water.

The whole house has been completely renovated with the kitchen and bathroom as highlights.

High-quality contemporary fixtures and fittings have been used throughout, adding the convenience of modern living.

Positioned in a quiet street with no neighbours in sight, this is the ideal place to escape and breathe the fresh air.

Take the one-minute stroll to the local store or the coastal walking track.

The Sommers Bay waterfront and boat ramp are just minutes away.

Walk from your doorstep into the beautiful Tasman National Park for hiking and mountain biking trails.

Found just 50 minutes' drive from Hobart, this is a fantastic opportunity to live in serenity.

Here you feel like you are a world away, yet a short drive to the township of Dunalley and all that it offers.

Kerri-Louise Hooper has TWO sets of twins!
 Shiloh and Luca (8 years) and Quinn and Austin (3 years)
 Last week was Multiple Birth Awareness Week 2021, a national Australian campaign to raise awareness around, and draw attention to, the unique realities for multiple birth families.
 Kerri-Louise was honoured to be the guest speaker at the launch of this special week last week.
 The goal for this year's campaign is to drive awareness around a misconception when it comes to determining zygosity of multiple birth children.
 Zygosity refers to the degree of genetic similarity within each pair of twins; in other words, how similar their DNA is.

Wage subsidy for trainees expanded

A targeted wage subsidy program for apprentices and trainees will be expanded for another 12 months.

The federal government's Boosting Apprenticeship Commencements (BAC) wage subsidy program is fully subscribed and will now be expanded for a full 12 months for new apprentices and trainees signed up prior to September 30, 2021.

It is estimated that this demand driven expansion will generate new apprentice and trainee places.

Assistant Minister for Industry Development, Senator, the Honourable Jonno Duniham said on March 12 that the BAC has already supported 405 apprentices and trainees in Franklin.

"The Boosting Apprentices Commencement program has to date assisted almost 40,000 businesses to take on a new Australian apprentice or trainee, including hundreds across the Huon Valley, Kingborough and Clarence Council areas," said Senator Duniham.

"By expanding this wage subsidy for another 12 months, we'll be helping businesses to create even more jobs."

Further information on the support available to eligible businesses and employees is available at <https://www.dese.gov.au/boosting-apprenticeship-commencements>

Maritime trail

There is no denying that the Southern Tasmania has so much to offer Kingborough locals and visitors alike, and one of the many attractions is the Huon Valley's wooden boat building reputation.

The Australian Wooden Boat Festival's Maritime Trail, being held over the weekend of April 10 and 11, is offering a unique opportunity for those with an interest in wooden boats, or those simply with a mild curiosity, to take a peek behind the scenes at the many steps involved in wooden boat building and maintenance.

The Maritime Trail is being held state-wide but so many of the activities on offer are centred in the Huon Valley, an indication of the prevalence of this craft on both sides of the Huon River.

The beautiful craftsmen and craftswomen-ship that goes into wooden boatbuilding, together with the charm of sailing in these magnificent vessels has universal appeal.

Huon Valley and Channel residents can be proud of their region's wooden boat-building reputation; a reputation that has encouraged interstate enthusiasts to purchase over 25 per cent of Maritime Trail tickets sold so far.

The Maritime Trail is a series of guided tours of timber mills and boatyards and a showcase of classic wooden boats including some tall ship sailings.

It also includes some special-interest events at Franklin's Palais Theatre featuring talks by maritime sector leaders and nautical authors; sea shanty workshops and a forum discussing Tasmania's world-renowned boat-building timbers.

For all the details and tickets visit the Australian Wooden Boat Festival website at www.awbf.org.au

Lefke van Gogh and Matt Morris in the Franklin boatshed, where some of the amazing wooden boat building craftsmanship takes place. (PS)

Presented by the Australian Wooden Boat Festival, the Maritime Trail is a behind-the-scenes look into Tasmania's vibrant maritime culture and wooden boat industry.

- Private tours of boatyards and sawmills
- Rides on classic wooden ships
- Workshops, films and presentations at the Palais Theatre, Franklin

Put together your own trail to discover Tasmania's rich maritime culture and the people who keep it ticking.

Kingston High positioned for sporting excellence

The year is off to a flying start at Kingston High School with the launch of its Grade 7 to 12 sports, health and wellbeing program.

Principal Dr Libby Robinson said the school's proximity to the Kingborough Sports Centre (KSC) and the school's close partnership with Kingborough Council facilitates a diverse range of opportunities to embrace sports, health and wellbeing education.

"Kingston High School has a proud history of excellence in the field of physical education and health," said Dr Robinson.

"When the campus was relocated next to the KSC, new opportunities opened with students' Health and Physical Education (HPE) classes taking place in the KSC basketball courts and surrounding sports fields.

"Today the school's partnership with the KSC extends to a wide use of the facility and a close partnership with management and council, including the construction of a classroom overlooking the basketball courts."

Dr Robinson noted the school's health and physical education team design, and implement, lessons for students, in order to develop a broad knowledge of health, respectful relationships, sporting skills, team-based competition and outdoor education.

"With the expansion to Years 11 and 12, the Athlete Development Program has already seen some current and future star athletes combining study of sport alongside specialist coaching in their field, such as gymnastics," said Dr Robinson.

"This is an area of exciting prospects, with a view to including the whole of the Kingborough community in engaging in education around mental health and other wellbeing matters.

"Recently over 70 adults attended the parents' Holding the Ladder evening session on supporting adolescent mental health.

"Kingston High School is forging new pathways for the young people of Kingborough, from Grades 7 to 12, with their connection to the Kingborough Sports Precinct, local sporting organisations, the rich outdoor environment for outdoor education.

"The diversity and reach of sport is a social connector for all of us and its impact, not only on physical health but also emotional and mental health for the future, is an opportunity to embrace as a community through education," Dr Robinson concluded.

Combined Probus Club of Kingston President Jenny Tayler with Rotarian Malcolm Wells and the Probus Club's founding President Harman Mulder as he cuts the cake marking the fifth anniversary of the Kingston group. (PS)

Fifth year celebration for Kingston Probus Club

Members of the Combined Probus Club of Kingston celebrated the fifth anniversary of the Foundation of the club at Brookfield late last year.

There were many Foundation Members present and the club also celebrated the significant birthdays of Frank Laird (90), Harman Mulder (80) and Carola Crestani (80).

The members whose birthdays had passed since the start of lockdown in March were also celebrated on the day.

Harman Mulder was the Founding President of the Combined Probus Club and was present at the celebration, cutting a cake to mark the occasion which had been made by Christa Sell.

Malcolm Wells represented the Rotary Club of Kingston, which founded the social club, and extended congratulations to the Foundation Members, the initial office bearers and to those greatly involved in the establishment of the club, not forgetting the late Peter Fehre for his contribution.

Mr Wells expressed his pleasure in seeing the Probus Club so active and healthy,

Mr Mulder made some comments on the history of Probus, which had come from the UK in 1965 as a social club and is not involved in fundraising.

The Men's Kingston Probus Club was established in 1983, followed by the Ladies Kingston Probus Club in 1991, then the combined club in 2015, which members said is here to stay and grow.

Malcolm Wells presented President Jenny Tayler with the Club's Fifth Anniversary Certificate on behalf of Probus South Pacific Limited.

The Combined Probus Club of Kingston meets at 10am at the Kingston Community Hall, 35 Redwood Road Kingston, on the first Monday of each month, followed by morning tea and an interesting guest speaker.

Club members are involved in activities like, coffee and chat, luncheons, walks, mahjong, craft, cards, theatre and jazz outings and a monthly newsletter.

The club welcomes new members and visitors.

Charlotte's Web live on stage

Kingborough parents or grandparents looking to entertain their children or grandchildren during the school holidays may be interested in visiting the Playhouse Theatre to see the children's book Charlotte's Web, brought to life on stage.

Charlotte's Web is a farm-yard story about an orphan pig, named Wilbur, and a kind and intelligent spider, named Charlotte.

Charlotte takes pity on the little pig, destined to be slaughtered for food when he gets bigger, and decides to do what she can to save his life.

Charlotte's Web is the first show of the year from the Hobart Repertory Theatre Society

The play is performed by a group of actors, with ages ranging from ten to over 60, and is directed by Kingborough local Anne Blythe-Cooper, an avid theatre lover, writer and music teacher.

"The show is coming together really well and I love the vibe in the rehearsal room," said Anne.

"The cast are a delightful group who never fail to lift each other up.

"Older cast members have been mentoring and teaching the younger ones, many of whom I am sure will go on to achieve great things in theatre and performance."

Charlotte's Web opens at the Playhouse Theatre in Hobart on April 9.

Jack Ross (centre) was named as Player of the Match by umpires Simon Burns and Greg Beechey. Jack scored 88 with the bat and took three wickets as well as a catch from Lincoln Street's bowling. Jack narrowly beat keeper Richard Cowland for the title, who scored 109 and took two catches behind the wickets. (PS Carolyn Whitehouse)

Two teams roll into grand final

After the preliminary finals of the Bows Tasmania South Pennant Competition on Saturday, March 20, the Kingborough Bows and Community Club went into the grand final round with two teams still in the mix.

In the Premier Division team's preliminary final, which was played against Glenorchy Roadman in the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre at Margate, Ryan Guy's rink of Jason Commene, Callum Dinning and Jeff Parsons became the lynchpin which stopped the wheels falling off the Tigers' campaign to qualify for the final playoff.

After dropping three shots on the first end, Ryan and his rink consolidated and pulled away for a convincing 13 shot win on the rink, final score 31 to 18.

Kingborough had an overall 11 shot win against Rodman in the game, 88 shots to 77.

Will Coad, Shane Garth, Robert O'Neill and Nathan Dinning won on their rink 22 to 16 after a very tight battle all day.

On the 18th end they were equal pegging with their opposition but were able to win the last three ends to get a six-shot win on the rink.

The other winning rink for Kingborough was Jarod Long with Craig Griggs, Jack Butler and Brett Rollins who got up by three shots to win 21 to 18.

Division 1 travelled away to Claremont, where they played the home team in their preliminary final.

Kingborough found the going tough and even though they won on two of the four rinks played they were not able to come up with the goods, eventually defeated by Claremont 77 shots to 69.

Tony Clark, Michael Steele, Ian Cooke and Conrad Westhead played consistently and came away with an 18 to 12 win.

Tony Rowe, Michael Andersch, Ian Harris and Vincent Grimes won 22 to 20.

This overall loss bumped them out of the finals. Division 3 also lost their chance of a grand final playoff when they hosted a Glenorchy Rodman team on grass at Margate in their preliminary final.

Rodman defeated them overall 90 shots to 77 with Kingborough winning on two of the four rinks played.

Mike Westlake with Greg Riley, Sally Bowes and George Ashwood won 23 to 18 and Anthony Sculthorpe with Iain Dinning, John Mac and Ken Dubois won 26 to 21.

With a Glenorchy Rodman team playing in the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre as well as one playing outdoors there was a large spectator base for both Kingborough and Rodman at the club, which added to a great atmosphere around the centre.

Division 6 had already won their way into the grand final, so did not have to play on the 20th, but to keep their concentration on track, a casual competition against a Division 4 combination was arranged before the preliminary finals were commenced.

This warmup game was enjoyed by the many spectators which had built up at the club before the two preliminary final games commenced.

The Division 5 women's team travelled away to Sandy Bay Bowls Club to play in their preliminary final.

The game commenced with a slight drizzle of rain, making conditions difficult on a damp, slow and heavy green, but as the game progressed the weather settled and playing conditions improved greatly.

Kingborough started the game struggling with the conditions, but as the weather improved so did their game and they came away winning their way into next week's grand final, defeating Sandy Bay overall 48 shots to 34.

They defeated the Bay on both rinks played; Jean Hemmings won 24 to 15 and Helena Harris 24 to 19.
