

Consultation sought on draft budget

Kingborough Council has released its draft 2021-22 budget and is seeking community feedback.

The draft budget is based on a 2.8 per cent general rate increase and the removal of the COVID-19 remission.

"In 2020-21 we provided a one-off COVID-19 rate remission to support households and businesses during a very uncertain time," said Mayor of Kingborough, Cr Dean Winter.

"The remission supported households and businesses by rebating $690,000 of rates that would otherwise have been payable.

"Unfortunately, it can't keep going forever and it won't be in this year's rates notice.

"This rise will still see Kingborough with the lowest rates in Greater Hobart."

"Our support will be targeted to those who need it," Mayor Winter continued.

"Anyone who is having difficulty paying their rates notice should contact our team at council and we can provide support under our hardship policy.

"Council has budgeted for the delivery of over $16 million of infrastructure projects, our highest ever spend."

With the Kingston Park playground completed, the Kingborough Council capital works will focus on three areas:

1. Rebuilding Kingston, starting with the complete redevelopment of the Channel Highway at Kingston early in 2022
2. Developing the parklands below the new Kingston Park playground into an area for outdoor activities, exercise and green open space
3. An upgrade and rejuvenation for regional playgrounds, including Louisa Hinsby Park (Tarooma), Dru Point (Margate) and Silverwater Park (Woodbridge).

Budget submissions are open until May 14.

The community can send their submissions to kc@kingborough.tas.gov.au or post them to Kingborough Council, 15 Channel Hwy, Kingston 7050.

Winter frozen out of pre-selection

Omission of Mayor of Kingborough, Cr Dean Winter as a Labor candidate for Franklin in the upcoming State Government elections has generated extensive discussion among politicians and community members.

Tasmania Labor Party Leader Rebecca White announced the candidates for the Labor Party on March 29.

"I am proud to be standing with a group of candidates that truly reflect the communities we strive to serve," Ms White said.

Former Tasmanian Premiers Lara Giddings, Paul Lennon and David Bartlett have been vocal in their criticism of the decision made by Labor Party administrators to exclude Mayor Winter from the ticket.

Between four available candidates, Mayor Winter received close to 50 per cent of the vote at the time of his election as mayor, proving his popularity with Franklin and Clark voters who reside in the Kingborough municipality.

The Kingborough Chronicle asked Mayor Winter about being confronted with the decision to leave a major role in local government for a potential role in State Parliament.

"It was an opportunity that came up quickly; when the election was called I had about 24 hours to decide," Mayor Winter commented.

"Having people like Paul Lennon, Lara Giddings and David Bartlett encouraging me to run certainly added to my decision to nominate, but it was tough."

Liberal campaign spokesperson Michael Ferguson said the intervention of the former politicians highlights Labor's left-right split.

Mayor Winter said that his political views weren't so polarised and that he had not yet received feedback on the selection process.

"There's a broad range of views in the Labor Party," said Mayor Winter.

"My views on most things could probably be described as 'moderate Labor'.

"I don't enjoy internal party politics and I am glad it's all over."

Mr Ferguson also referenced claims of "fraud" and "corruption" made by a former Member for Franklin, Ross Butler, during an ABC radio interview on March 30, which suggested one candidate had been persuaded to block Mayor Winter.

"[Mr Butler] also suggested that Franklin Labor candidate Fabiano Cangelosi had originally been planning to nominate for the Clark electorate, but had been "persuaded" to run for Franklin," stated Mr Ferguson.

Despite the controversy, Mayor Winter said he is looking forward to making further positive contributions to Kingborough, although he stated that it was still too early to decide about the next Kingborough Council elections.

"Being mayor is the best job I've ever had, which made turning up to work on Monday morning, even after a pretty brutal loss, relatively easy," stated Mayor Winter.

"The decision on whether to contest will be based on the sort of feedback I hear from the community and whether I think I have anything more to contribute.

"I think it's really important the mayor has a vision and energy to lead the organisation, and that's the main test for whether I put my hand up."

Nominations for the state election officially close on Wednesday, April 7.

Early voting for both State and Legislative Council elections commences on Monday, April 12.

Keep Kingborough progressing

Dear Editor,
So Dean Winter was rejected as a candidate for Franklin?
I don't think that's necessarily a bad thing.
The team of he and Jo Westwood as Mayor and Deputy Mayor of Kingborough Council are doing a great job.
Mayor Winter is relatively young.
Keep doing what you're doing here.
If you want a political career later in life, go for it then.
But for now, keep Kingborough progressing.

Delivering a message

Dear Editor,
Saturday, March 20, whilst I was away in the evening, my letterbox in Summerleas Road was vandalised.
Someone deliberately went out of their way to cross the busy primary street from the opposite side, with armco guardrail road safety barriers at both ends and no footpath in between.
My large, white painted, heavy metal letterbox was taken off the arm extending from its post, concreted into the ground.
It was left, distorted, beside the footpath across and up the road about 10 metres away, where it was later found by me.
This letter is to inform and warn others of happenings, and to complain about the significant time, effort and expense it has cost me to make good, to dispose of old and replace with new.
It is unfair that the perpetrator(s) and accomplice(s) get away with doing this, particularly as I have not done it to anyone.

New normal and future planning

Dear Editor,
We hear a lot about the new normal and it has become fairly obvious to me that after the pandemic, and now concerns that pandemics could be in our future, that public transport like buses, trains and ferries are probably not going to be the smart way to go, nor as popular.
A lot less people will want to be packed into a metal can with the risk of sharing air, especially in "the new normal" future.
I sincerely hope that municipalities design for this

Bruny Island ferry named Parrabah

The newest Bruny Island ferry has been named
Parrabah, which translates to whale.

Consultation with the South East Tasmanian Aboriginal Corporation (SETAC) was undertaken to reach the meaningful name, intended to show respect for the local indigenous community.

The announcement came as the vessel began sea trials in Hobart, prior to commencing passenger services in late April.
It is the second ever purpose-built ferry for Sealink and was manufactured in Tasmania.

The additional ferry is expected to increase the speed and efficiency of the Bruny Island services, allowing for greater capacity to service the local community and the recovering tourism industry.

SETAC's annual report 2018-19 tells of The Parrabah
- Whale Story.
"There was once a mother and baby whale coming up the Channel near Bruny Island," the story goes.
"A giant shark was chasing them.
"A sea eagle was telling the mother whale where to go so they could get away from the shark.
"They came up past Nine Pin Point.
"There is a big rock arch there.
"We believe it was formed by the whales jumping through to escape the shark.
"As the mother whale was coming up the channel, she future given people will want to work with the new normal and socially distance where practical and sensible.

People being in their own individual cars would be one of these outcomes.
I also hope that planning for homes and streets takes into consideration the obvious possibility for many more cars, but also residences/homes that have more off-street parking to take into consideration plug in electric vehicles that can be charged in the driveway and garages.
Street parking does not promote an electric vehicle future and if we want to be part of the solution to a positive environmental future we need to, right now, be planning for a future with a huge increase in electric cars.
This means better road infrastructure for these cars, as well as suburbs better designed to accommodate this.
High density housing with small crammed together unit-homes that have little or no space for multiple cars, are probably not future proof.
We need to plan for a very car friendly future.
I believe many people have been short-sighted regarding the future of the car, hoping that bicycles or public transport may have been the silver bullet to kill off the car, thinking cars are not environmentally friendly.
However, I believe many have overlooked the electric car, which is literally going to be the future, and also the environmentally friendly, pandemic proof transport of the future.
There is a kind of humorous irony to all this, in that cars will be the environmentally friendly, pandemic proof transport.
This is especially true in a place like Tasmania with our huge hydro-electric power dependence.

Safe hands through school years

Teachers, educators and families of children in Kingborough who are diagnosed with Tuberous Sclerosis Complex (TSC) will, for the first time, have access to accurate, up-to-date digital information resources, to ensure children with this devastating disease will be ‘in safe hands’ during their schooling years.

On Monday, March 29, a special school assembly was held at Blackmans Bay Primary School in honour of Caleb Chalk, who attends the school and lives with TSC.

Both Caleb and his big sister Jemima spoke eloquently about their TSC journey and their mother Miriam shared how much these resources will help families living with TSC.

“The In Safe Hands digital resources can really help families understand what conversations to have with their school to ensure their child gets the best support and education they can,” Ms Chalk explained.

“I look forward to sharing these resources with Caleb’s school and the wider community.”

Every week in Australia a baby is born with TSC and there are over 2500 people living with the condition across the nation.

TSC is a rare and complex genetic condition, which can have a range of harmful effects and can affect every organ in the body.

It commonly causes tumours to grow in a baby’s brain and heart and later in life can spread to their kidneys, skin and lungs.

TSC frequently causes difficult to control epilepsy, learning difficulties and intellectual disabilities, autism, mental health challenges and disfiguring facial growths.

Every person with TSC is at risk of developing life-threatening conditions such as fast growing inoperable brain tumours.

As it is a rare disease, not all teachers and educators know how to best support a child with TSC during their school years.

Thanks to funding support from TSC families across Australia, the Disabled Children’s Foundation and the Universal Charitable Fund, Tuberous Sclerosis Australia (TSA) has developed the ‘In Safe Hands’ educational resources, to inform and support educators and families with a child experiencing TSC.

Blackmans Bay Primary School Principal Della Wells said the resources have expanded their knowledge.

“As a principal who has been supporting a child with TSC in our school, we greatly appreciate the development of this excellent resource,” Ms Wells remarked.

“We’ve been working closely with Caleb and his parents to stay informed about TSC, however after reading the In Safe Hands resource there is so much more we now know.

“I believe these guides will be a fantastic resource for schools and families, helping us work as a team to best educate and support children with TSC in the classroom and playground.”

Teachers and parents of children with TSC can access the free In Safe Hands resources online.

Teacher’s Guide: <https://tsa.org.au/an-introductory-guide-to-tsc-for-teachers-and-educators/>

The Chalk family; Finn, Miriam, Jemima, Curt and Caleb have shared how the new In Safe Hands resources will help children like Caleb, living with Tuberous Sclerosis Complex (TSC), their families and teachers to work as a team in their education. (PS)

Caleb Chalk was visited by his prep teachers in ICU after the removal of a fast growing brain tumour. Caleb lives with Tuberous Sclerosis Complex (TSC) and his mother Miriam said the family have “been lucky to have so much wonderful support from Caleb’s school and teachers”. (PS)

Anzac Day again affected by COVID

Last year, residents across Kingborough gathered at the end of their driveways to light up the dawn for Anzac Day, collectively honouring fallen soldiers, after COVID-19 restrictions caused many of the traditional ceremonies to be cancelled.

This year, Kingborough will again see changes to local Anzac Day services due to social distancing and COVID-Safe policies.

Bruny Island RSL Sub Branch, Tarooma Ex Services Club and Kingston Beach RSL Sub Branch will all be holding modified services to accommodate restrictions on gathering numbers and social distancing requirements.

"Bruny RSL will be conducting a Dawn Service at the memorial at Alonnah at 0600 hours, followed by egg and bacon rolls for breakfast, as we cannot have a sit-down meal due to COVID restrictions," said Trevor Adams on behalf of the Bruny Island RSL Sub Branch.

The Tarooma Ex Services Club will be holding their dawn service and march.

"The day commences with our traditional march starting at 5:30am from the entrance of Tarooma Park, next to the Tarooma Community Garden, led by two WW2 jeeps, and finishes at our memorial," said Chris Harris on behalf of the club.

"The service starts at 6am and concludes at approximately 6.30am, immediately after this a hot breakfast will be served followed by a small presentation ceremony.

"Due to COVID restrictions only 70 people are allowed in the hall at one time, however breakfast will be served inside and out of the hall.

"All are welcome to attend but please observe social distancing and if entering the hall, either sign the register or use your COVID phone app," Mr Harris said.

President of the Kingston Beach RSL Sub Branch Mel Cooper said the Sub Branch will be holding a short march and dawn service.

"There will be a dawn service, which is open to all, and a short march which will just be for veterans and ex-service personnel," said Mr Cooper.

"We also want to remind everyone about COVID-Safe restrictions and social distancing."

Channel RSL Sub Branch have cancelled their services entirely.

"Due to the restrictions of public social distancing currently in place, Channel RSL Sub Branch and our community partners regret we are unable to run either a dawn service and public breakfast at Woodbridge School or the 11am service, public morning tea and children's sports at Snug Park Oval on Anzac Day 2021," reported Dick Goodwin from the Channel RSL Sub Branch.

"The Sub Branch encourages the community to commemorate Anzac Day by participating in a Light-Up the Dawn vigilance at their property gates, driveways and balconies.

"We remain hopeful of resuming our traditional Anzac Day services in 2022."

Best grants to support veterans and families

Ex-service organisations who help veterans and their families can now apply for the 2021 Building Excellence in Support and Training (BEST) grants program.

Across the country, these organisations deliver extensive services to veterans and their families including leisure activities, transition support, assisting with claims, rehabilitation and wellbeing programs, as well as hosting many commemorative events and activities.

BEST grants help ex-service organisations provide vital advocacy services for current and former serving men and women, helping with their compensation claims and ensuring they get access to their entitlements and services.

Applications for the grants are now open online, with advocacy service providers encouraged to submit their application before the closing date of April 14.

BEST grants can be used towards paying the salary costs of administrative assistants and advocates, and any equipment needed to deliver services.

The Department of Veterans' Affairs offers a range of grant programs to assist with providing support to veterans and their families.

To apply for a grant or for further information on BEST grants visit the Community Grants Hub website <https://www.communitygrants.gov.au>

Currency of the isle

The Browns River History Group reported its first meeting of the year as a great success.

Although the group was restricted to 27 attendees due to COVID-Safe requirements, they hope the library can change the numbers soon.

For April, the talk will focus on old currencies and the value they had at the time.

Roger McNeice will be speaking on Monday, April 12 to deliver Dollars Rupees and Rum; a talk which will describe some of the currencies used here in Van Diemen's Land from 1804 to 1876.

Learn why there were bits of the South American Dollar and Rupees in circulation as well as German Thalers and that most ubiquitous of all currency, rum.

Roger has been collecting and interested in coins and medals since he was nine years old and is a local expert, also founding the Tasmanian Numismatic Society in 1963.

The talk will be held in Block A, Room 1A in the Library Learning Centre at 8 Hutchins Street (Old Kingston Primary School) from 3pm to 4pm on Monday, April 12.

All are welcome for this free talk although arriving early is recommended to ensure a seat and a gold coin donation is appreciated.

Currency and coin expert Roger McNeice will be speaking about the history of currency in Van Diemen's Land between 1804 and 1876 at the upcoming Browns River History Group meeting. (PS)

KINGSTON BEACH ANZAC DAY DAWN SERVICE 6.30am Osborne Esplanade

After having had to be cancelled last year because of COVID-19, an ANZAC Day Dawn Service will again be held at Osborne Esplanade Kingston Beach. Unfortunately because of COVID restrictions the March that follows the Dawn Service will be restricted to Service and ex-Service people only. This will not necessitate closing roads as has been necessary in the past.

The venue includes the lawn and the adjacent beach area so COVID spacing rules should not be an inconvenience.

The Dawn Service and Wreath Laying will be held usual. For those not able to attend, we encourage people to stand at the foot of their driveways with a candle to remember the fallen, as many did last year. We also encourage members of the public to support our principal fundraising effort by purchasing ANZAC tokens from our sellers at local shopping centres closer to ANZAC Day. The money we collect only goes to supporting veterans and their families and our other charitable purposes.

There are categories of Membership of the RSL Sub Branch for all serving and ex-serving members of the Australian and Allied Defences Forces, for members of the Police and Emergency Services and for people who have or have had relatives in defence forces. New members welcome.

If people wish to wear medals that had been awarded to relatives, they should wear them on their right breast. Members of the public who wish to lay a wreath, please contact the Secretary on 62295817 or kbrslsubbranch@bigpond.com

The COVID distancing rules will be observed at the Service.

"They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old, age shall not weary them nor the years condemn; at the going down of the sun and in the morning, we will remember them."

Maryknoll on a roll

The Maryknoll social housing subdivision was officially launched on Friday, March 19 in Blackmans Bay.

The subdivision will comprise 26 new social housing dwellings.

The land was gifted to Catholic Care Tasmania (CCT) last year by the Tasmanian Congregation of Presentation Sisters (Sisters) who had owned it since 1929, ensuring the Sisters' legacy of providing support for homelessness continues.

During its time, the three-hectare property, idyllically set on a hill looking over the Tasmanian coastline, has been a place for prayer and reflection for approximately 65,000 visitors over the years.

The subdivision will consist of a mix of privately-owned and social housing two-bedroom dwellings, including designs catering for older people and those with disability.

The development and management of the site will be through CCT and CentaCare Evolve Housing (CEH), in accordance with the wishes of the Sisters.

Construction of the homes will include work by St Joseph Affordable Homes (SJAH), which is the newly established Catholic construction social enterprise.

Construction is forecast to begin in May 2021 with practical completion set for July 2022.

In house politics

In support of the Maryknoll subdivision ceremony, Minister for Building and Construction, Elise Archer MP, attended the launch.

"It was a pleasure to be able to attend the official launch of another extensive and much needed development to assist those experiencing homelessness and housing stress in southern Tasmania," Minister Archer said.

"Our government announced late last year the Community Housing Growth Program, providing $100 million capital funding from the Rebuilding Tasmania Infrastructure Investment COVID-19 Response Fund, to continue increasing and improving access to good quality social housing for vulnerable Tasmanians.

"We remain on track to deliver up to 1,500 new social housing dwellings by June 2023, with some significantly progressed with design work complete and approved development applications in place," added Ms Archer.

"New projects like this will not only provide housing for those in need, but will also stimulate our economy and create jobs, with $570 million in total economic activity already in place across the state and more to come."

Shadow Housing Minister Alison Standen responded to Ms Archer's statements at the launch by claiming Tasmanians are right to be deeply cynical about the State Government's response to the housing and homelessness crisis.

Ms Standen said it was all very well for the State Government and Housing Minister Roger Jaensch to claim new housing projects were underway, but the truth was in the facts about the appalling state of public housing and lack of actual delivery.

"The fact is almost 3,600 families are on the housing waiting list," Ms Standen said.

"The fact is this is a 65 per cent increase on the waiting list the State Government inherited seven years ago.

"The fact is the latest report on Government Services shows of those 3,600 families, 2,454 are in the greatest need.

"The fact is the minimum average waiting time for the most urgent cases on that list is 64 weeks, one year and three months."

Ms Standen claimed the wait time has increased from 20 weeks in the last seven years, with overcrowding at 4.7 per cent for public housing, higher than the national average of 3.9 per cent and overcrowding in community housing increased to 6.9 per cent compared to 3.3 per cent last year.

"The fact is Tasmanians are sleeping in tents, in cars, in desperate, sometimes dangerous and truly sad conditions, relying on the kindness of family and friends to couch-surf and Mr Jaensch and Premier Gutwein are content to turn the other way and do nothing of any substance to address this awful situation," declared Ms Standen.

Hot spots up testing

An additional COVID-19 clinic testing clinic was stood up in Kingston on March 31 to help accommodate increased testing numbers after the declaration of hotspots across Brisbane and Byron Bay.

Tasmania was on track to perform a record number of tests on March 30, with more than 1400 tests expected to be carried out.

State Health Commander Kathrine Morgan-Wicks thanked everyone for their patience and apologised for delays.

"I want to assure everyone who needs to get a COVID-19 test that they will be tested, and they should remain isolated until that occurs," said Ms Morgan-Wicks.

"I can assure people that our testing staff and our hotline staff are doing everything they can to ensure everyone who requires a test gets one as quickly as possible."

Extra staff were deployed to the Public Health Hotline, which stayed open late on both March 30 and 31 to enable more people to book a test.

Director of Public Health Dr Mark Veitch declared further premises as high-risk in both Queensland and

New South Wales on March 30, following the confirmation of further COVID-19 cases related to outbreaks in those states.

A list of high-risk premises can be found at <https://coronavirus.tas.gov.au/travellers-and-visitors/coming-to-tasmania/travel-alert>.

This list is being updated regularly and should be monitored by those who have recently travelled, or been in contact with returned travellers.

Anyone who has visited any of the premises declared as high-risk premises in Greater Brisbane, South-East Queensland or Byron Bay in NSW, will be required to quarantine for 14 days at suitable premises.

Recent arrivals from both Queensland and NSW will receive SMS messages asking people to check the list of high-risk premises and to contact the Public Health Hotline on 1800 671 738 if they were at any of the premises at the specific times listed.

Anyone who has any symptoms, even mild, should contact the Public Health Hotline on 1800 671 738 to arrange a test.

Probus elections

The Probus Club of Kingston held its AGM on March 29 at which the new president and committee were elected.

Dr Len Lambeth became the new president, taking over from Ian MacFarlane who has led the club through the difficult year of 2020/21.

Members showed their appreciation for his job well done as the reigns of office were transferred to Dr Lambeth.

The meeting was concluded by a very informative and entertaining presentation by Bill Brundle on the early history of the settlement of Hobart during which time Tasmania was known as Van Diemen's Land.

Amusing tales of colourful characters along with interesting diagrams and photos kept the well-attended meeting amused.

The Probus Club of Kingston meets at 10am at the Kingston Community Hall, 35 Redwood Road, on the last Monday of each month.

To conclude each meeting, morning tea is always followed by an interesting guest speaker.

Visitors and new members are most welcome.

Bill Brundle was the guest speaker at the AGM of the Probus Club of Kingston, entertaining members and guest by speaking on the history of Van Diemen's Land. (PS)

Franklin volunteer funding

Federal Member for Franklin, Julie Collins MP, is seeking expressions of interest from volunteer groups in the Franklin Electorate with the 2021 Volunteer Grants Program now open for eligible organisations across Kingborough.

Up to $132,450 of funding will be available across the electorate of Franklin as part of this grant program designed to make volunteering easier, safer and more enjoyable and to support, encourage and increase participation in volunteering.

Ms Collins will be assisted by a Franklin Community Consultation Committee, made up of members of the community, in determining which projects will be asked to apply for this grant program.

Grants between $1000 and $5000 are available to help not-for-profit community organisations or groups support their volunteers through practical measures such as the purchase of small equipment items, reimbursement for volunteers' fuel and transport costs, contributions towards the cost of training and background screening checks and activities that promote awareness of volunteering opportunities.

"Community groups are still recovering from last year's lockdowns where fundraising opportunities have been reduced so it is wonderful to be able to continue to offer support to community groups where I can" Ms Collins said.

Interested organisations are encouraged to contact Ms Collins on 6244 1222 or by email at Julie.Collins.MP@aph.gov.au, to request an expression of interest form and a copy of the program's guidelines.

Council Community Grants now open

Round two of Kingborough Council's Community Grants Program is now open for applications.

The Community Grants help provide not-for-profit community groups a chance to fund their activities and achieve their goals.

Mayor of Kingborough, Cr Dean Winter said Kingborough Council's Community Grants were an important support for community groups.

"The program aims to boost participation in community life, share resources and opportunities fairly across Kingborough and support people and groups with a commitment to Kingborough residents," Mayor Winter said.

Each funding round offers $20,000 in total, with individual grants up to $3,000 available.

The grants provide up to half of the projects' costs, with recipients matching the amount dollar-for-dollar or in-kind.

"Over the years there have been hundreds of projects made possible by this financial support and we're pleased to be able to offer the program again this year," Mayor Winter continued.

"I'd encourage community groups to visit our website or get in touch with our community services staff to find out if their project is eligible."

Applications must meet certain selection criteria outlined in the guidelines online at <https://www.kingborough.tas.gov.au/kingborough/communityservices/communitygrants/>

Applications for this funding round close on Monday, May 10.

For more information, call the Kingborough Council's Community Development Officer, Julie Alderfox on 6211 8170, or e-mail jalderfox@kingborough.tas.gov.au

Checkup to build disaster resilience

Kingborough has seen its fair share of extreme weather in recent years.

Storms, floods and bushfires have affected communities across the state, catching many people unaware and creating significant damage, heartache and financial loss.

One such extreme weather event hit Hobart in May 2018, causing extensive storm and flood damage to homes, properties, businesses and infrastructure across several communities, including Kingborough.

The event highlighted that underinsurance among Tasmanian households and businesses is all too common; a reality seen after disasters nation-wide.

Working together to prepare for disasters

Disaster resilient communities are dependent on everyone working together to understand and reduce risks and prepare for disasters.

Insurance is a key tool in a community's disaster preparedness and recovery, alongside other measures by individuals, businesses, government and non-government organisations.

Individually, insurance can make all the difference in a person's capacity to recover, replace or rebuild their property, business and belongings; a cost that could otherwise be unrecoverable.

The insurance checkup

The Tasmanian Government has launched a simple online insurance checkup tool to help households and business owners find out how to get the right insurance for their situation.

By answering a few quick questions about their current insurance situation, people will receive a personalised, step-by-step checklist of things to consider, backed up with relevant fact sheets.

The fact sheets provide independent, easy-to-follow information to help people make informed choices relating to insurance.

Topics include tips for homeowners, renters, landlords and businesses to avoid underinsurance; insurance for roads, bridges, and other infrastructure on your property; what to do if you think you can't afford insurance; making a claim; and what to do when things don't go well with your insurer.

The website also features real-life accounts of people's insurance experiences following natural disasters.

She'll be right; until it isn't

Like most Australians, Tasmanians have a positive, carefree, she'll be right attitude.

The awareness campaign calls out that mantra by reminding us how risky it can be when it comes to planning for things, like being insured for natural disasters.

The insurance checkup is available at www.InsuranceCheckup.tas.gov.au or by calling into Service Tasmania to pick up an insurance info pack.

The project has been jointly funded by the Commonwealth and Tasmanian Governments under the Disaster Recovery Funding Arrangements.

Pregnancy and infant loss remembered

Both houses of Australia's Parliament have resolved to officially recognise October 15 as Pregnancy and Infant Loss Remembrance Day.

The resolution marks the culmination of a campaign by bereaved parents which commenced over ten years ago, providing national recognition to a day already recognised by New South Wales, Western Australia, Victoria and Tasmania, and in more than twenty countries around the world.

Federal Senator Catryna Bilyk, who co-sponsored the motion in the Senate, said the decision to observe pregnancy and infant loss on October 15 every year was vital to raising awareness.

"Observing Pregnancy and Infant Loss Remembrance Day signals to families impacted by the tragedies of miscarriage, stillbirth and neonatal death that they are not alone in their grief," Senator Bilyk remarked.

"As the mother of a stillborn baby, I understand how devastating this experience is and how important the observance of this day is to families affected by it."

Senator Bilyk also said that observing the day helps raise awareness of pregnancy and infant loss as a public health issue.

"Tragically, every day in Australia, six babies are lost to stillbirth, two to neonatal death and 280 to miscarriage," Senator Bilyk said.

"Australia's rate of stillbirth is 35 percent higher than the countries with the lowest rates and has not changed in 20 years.

"By commemorating Pregnancy and Infant Loss Remembrance Day, we are not only honouring babies who have died and acknowledging the grief and loss of their families, we are also recognising the work that is yet to be done to prevent infant loss in Australia."

Senator Bilyk recently participated in a Senate inquiry on stillbirth research and education and said it was clear from the evidence given to the inquiry that there are steps parents, the community and public authorities can take to minimise the risks and reduce the rates of stillbirth.

"I am hoping the recommendations from the inquiry and the observance of the remembrance day can become strong catalysts for change in driving down Australia's unacceptably high rates of infant death," Senator Bilyk stated.

Anyone struggling with issues around pregnancy or pregnancy loss can contact Pregnancy Counselling and Support Tasmania on 03 6224 2290 or find more information on their website at pcstas.org.au

Young people shaping their future

Kingborough youth aged between 15 and 19 are encouraged to have their say on important issues through the Mission Australia Youth Survey 2021.

In 2021, as the health and economic impacts of COVID-19 become clear, the survey will give youth a platform to express their aspirations, issues and concerns.

The Youth Survey 2020 was completed by more than 25,800 young people aged between 15 and 19 years, including 739 young people in Tasmania.

Tasmania's youth nominated the environment, equity and discrimination, and mental health as the most important issues facing Australia today, with over four in ten naming the environment most important.

The top three issues of personal concern for young people from Tasmania were coping with stress, mental health and school or study problems.

Close to half of respondents from Tasmania indicated they were extremely or very concerned about coping with stress.

Mission Australia's State Director Mychelle Curran said the survey is invaluable for collecting current information about the views of young Australians.

"I am so thrilled that Mission Australia's Youth Survey is celebrating its 20th year of providing a unique platform for young people in Tasmania and across Australia to share their thoughts and experiences at a time when so much change is occurring," said Ms Curran.

"It's frequently referred to by organisations and governments, informs policies and gives an insight to families and individuals hoping to develop an understanding of what young people are thinking and experiencing.

"It provides a meaningful opportunity for young people to have a say in how their future is shaped."

This year's survey questions will again focus on young people's housing situation, disability and experiences of discrimination, along with new questions to better understand the impact of COVID-19 and stress management.

According to Mission Australia, young people in Tasmania are particularly impacted by housing affordability with rents across the state on the rise due to a range of factors including people relocating from the mainland in the face of the pandemic and an increase in working remotely.

In some parts of regional Tasmania rents have increased by 30 percent since 2016.

"We hope that during a time when so many young people across the state are dealing with unique challenges and changes caused by the pandemic, that they will take the opportunity to reflect and share their thoughts on that experience," Ms Curran said.

The Youth Survey 2021 is expected to close on August 9. To take part in the survey, visit www.missionaustralia.com.au/youthsurvey

Bus building history in Kingston

Kingborough locals may be interested in reading a local historical account of the bus building industry in the area.

A recent book titled Ansair Kingston 1987-1995, written by Grant Wise, provides an account of the period when Metropolitan Transport Trust buses were built in Kingston.

Mr Wise was one of the first employees of the Ansair Kingston bus bodybuilding factory in early 1987 and remained there until the doors closed in 1995, when Ansett Transport Industries sold Ansair.

More than 260 buses were built at the factory during the period for use service throughout Tasmania.

The Metropolitan Transport Trust began using the name Metro during this period.

Metro Tasmania Pty Ltd, a state-owned company, was established in 1998.

Local Senator Eric Abetz recalls the factory and commended Mr Wise for recording details of the time.

"I can recommend it as an enjoyable read full of important historical facts and photographs," said Senator Abetz. "It is great to see another local preserving our history."

For further information, contact Mr Wise via grantwise@hotmail.com

A new book titled Ansair Kingston 1987-1995, written by Grant Wise provides an account of the period when Metropolitan Transport Trust buses were built in Kingston. (PS)

SERVICE OF THE WEEK

A home away from home for the fussiest of feline guests

Many years ago Lesley Gaze had a dream; a dream that at some time in the future she would be able to work with animals from home.

Over 15 years the dream became a reality. Lesley found herself in a position where she could build a Luxury Cat Hotel. Lesley prides herself on being 'the type of place that I would be happy to leave my own cats in if I were to ever go away on holidays, get sick or for some other reason could not care for them myself for a while'.

Lesley has spent over 19 years breeding the very beautiful Birman cat as a hobby. She can now expand to spending the whole day with both her breeding cats and her visiting guests at the Cosy Cats Luxury Cat Hotel.

'Where else could I go to work each morning and be greeted by so many happy faces so pleased to see me and offering head butts and cuddles?'

Every cat that stays at Cosy Cats is treated by Lesley as one of her own. 'I am very fussy about how my cats are cared for. I do my best to provide everything my guests and their owners expect with premium food, litter, scratching posts, a window and ledge for every cat to look out from and of course climate controlled rooms. Caring for cats is my passion not a job'.

Prices start from just $20 per night!

Bowls Grand Final wins and losses

Grand Final competition day for Bowls Tasmania South Pennant season saw four finals played at the Beltana Bowls Club at Lindisfarne on Saturday, March 27.

Two Kingborough Bowls and Community Club teams played their grand finals, which saw an exceptionally large contingent of Kingborough club members and supporters attend to barrack for them.

With the four finals being played on the three greens at Beltana, the large crowd in attendance gave a carnival atmosphere to the day.

Kingborough's Premier Division team played on the top green next to the clubrooms against Sandy Bay.

Going into the game Kingborough were the reigning champions, having won the shield last year when they went on to win the state competition.

Kingborough were also the minor premiers this season, having finished on top of the competition ladder after the completion of the 18 games played in the competition round.

The final was a keenly contested game all day.

Sandy Bay started off better before Kingborough fought back to take the lead, before Sandy Bay upped the momentum to charge back into the lead and take the shield off Kingborough by five shots, defeating them 76 shots to 71.

Kingborough only managed a win on one of the four rinks played, with Will Coad, Robert O'Neill, Shane Garth and Nathan Dinning turning their game around after the opposition rink, skipped by Andrew Norris, jumped out of the blocks and took early control of the rink.

Will and his rink stuck to their usual game and eventually ran away winning 28 shots to 11.

Ironically, Andrew Norris is a regular at the Kingborough Club as he is the green keeper at Kingborough.

Young gun brothers, twins Ryan and Bryce Guy, were drawn at the calling of the cards to play each other during the final.

Ryan skips for Kingborough and Bryce skips for Sandy Bay.

This matchup was a close game all day, after 14 ends Ryan was in front by three shots, but with some excellent bowling from his number three, Phil Hobbs, Bryce won five of the last seven ends to defeat Ryan by five shots.

The large spectator crowd were entertained the whole game with the top-class bowls played by both teams and the atmosphere was such that there was not a quiet period throughout the game around the green.

Even people walking on the street stopped and watching the game over the fence.

The Kingborough Premier Division team travelled to and from the game in the club bus, ably driven by the wife of one of the players.

The Sandy Bay Club and players were impressed by the sportsmanship of the Kingborough team who stopped off at the Sandy Bay Bowls Club on their return trip to Margate, to help them celebrate their win.

It was the first time in eight years that Sandy Bay had won the shield.

On the bottom grass green at Beltana, Kingborough's Division 6 team came up against Dover RSL Bowls Club team.

Again, this green was packed with spectators who witnessed some top-class bowls from this division.

Kingborough took control of the game early and ran away with the victory, 57 shots to 44.

Kingborough won convincingly on one rink, drew on one and lost on the third.

Bruce Moran with Jim Beadle, Ray Palmer and Lindsay Webb picked up six shots on the first end and after that ran away with the game on their rink, leading for all 21 ends, winning 27 to 11.

The other two Kingborough rinks were both well in control of their game until they reached the score of 13.

Michael Cawthorn was leading 13 to 6 on end 13, and after that only won two more ends, drawing in the end 15 all.

George Rahmanovic was also 13 to 6 on end 13, and he too also only won two more ends and was defeated 18 to 15.

Overall, the team was ecstatic on winning the Grand Final.

The club is immensely proud of Division 6's Grand Final win, with the team having a number of first year bowlers in the squad.

Jason Commene congratulates Phil Manning after Sandy Bay's win in the Premier Division Grand Final. (PS)

Division 6 Skip Bruce Moran 'giving a hat' to Ray Palmer for a winning bowl into head. (PS)

Tigers pounce on Demons to open TSL

Kingborough faced North Hobart in Round 1 of the TSL on Good Friday.

The TSL Senior Tigers bolted out of the blocks to gain a comfortable lead, ending the first quarter 23 (3.5) to two.

By half time the gap had widened still further, putting the Tigers at 45 (6.9) to North Hobart's 10 (1.4) points.

The Demons rallied after half time, kicking six goals to the Tigers' three in the third quarter.

The final quarter was a thriller, with the Tigers fighting to suppress the rising comeback by the Demons.

North Hobart's effort came too late in the game to overtake Kingborough's early dominance, resulting in the Tigers 10.18.78 defeating the Demons 10.7.67.

Knocking the dust of their boots to score in the first game back were Cooper Sawdy (2), Luke Graham (2), Elijah Readon, Max Collidge, Riley Ashlin, Zac Adams, Lochie Griggs and Tyler Carter.

Also easily shaking off the cobwebs to be named among the best players for the match were Zac Adams, Max Collidge, Will Campbell, Lachie Clifford (Captain), Riley Ashlin and Eddie Cole, who put in a standout effort against his former teammates.

Sam "Digger" Duigan played his 50th consecutive game for the Tigers and Will Clifford opened the season by playing his debut in the TSL Seniors competition.

After the first round the Tigers are second on the TSL Ladder behind Launceston, with a massive percentage difference putting Launceston clear on top.

In their opening match, the young Development League Tigers faced a very difficult task against the bigger and more experienced North Hobart Demons.

Unfortunately, this resulted in the Tigers going down 54 to the Demon's 123 and leaving them in fourth position on the Development League ladder.

A fresh Kingborough Tigers TSL team pounced on the North Hobart Demons to secure a win in the opening match of the season. Will Clifford's efforts on field resulted in him being named among the best players for the match. Final score: Tigers 10.18.78 defeated Demons 10.7.67. (PS Carolyn Whitehouse)
