

Laura, Mick and Teddy Crawford were among the visitors viewing the old Channel Emporium in Woodbridge on Saturday, August 13. Mick Crawford has recently been teaching an archaeology and relic recovery course at Woodbridge School. For further coverage of the Woodbridge Life 2022, Back to Woodbridge weekend, see page 9 inside today's Kingborough Chronicle, with more to come in future editions.

Council blocks action on rental crisis

A motion to prepare a report to enable Kingborough Council to consider a range of options to address the current rental affordability crisis in the municipality has been narrowly lost (4/5).

The vote took place at a meeting of Kingborough Council on August 15.

The item proposed that, "A report be prepared for the Council considering options and potential wording of a motion with the objective of restricting or disincentivising use of entire homes for short-stay accommodation in Kingborough".

The motion was moved by Cr Gideon Cordover and seconded by Cr Amanda Midgley.

The four Councillors voting in favour of a report being prepared were Cr Gideon Cordover, Cr Flora Fox, Cr Clare Glade-Wright, and Cr Amanda Midgley.

While the five Councillors who voted against the motion were Cr Paula Wriedt, Cr Jo Westwood, Cr Sue Bastone, Cr Christian Street, and Cr Steve Wass.

Cr David Grace was absent.

Each of the five Councillors who voted against the motion were asked the following questions by the Kingborough Chronicle on August 19.

- "What is your short-term solution to the housing crisis in Kingborough? (i.e., in the next 3-12 months)
- "If you were to become unexpectedly homeless in the next few weeks, where would you live?
- "Does your asset pool, or your family asset pool, include one or more investment properties (i.e., other than the home you currently reside in)?

At the time of going to print, only one of the five Councillors who voted against the motion has provided a response.

In her response, Cr Sue Bastone claimed "there is no short-term solution to the housing crisis in Kingborough because we do not have large numbers of short-term rental (STR) entire properties in Kingston".

However, Cr Bastone did not provide any data to support her statement.

Cr Bastone also claimed, "the STR properties are, in the most part, used by families as their holiday homes in areas that are not commutable to Hobart or northern suburbs on a daily basis for employment."

Again, however, Cr Bastone did not provide any evidence in support of her claim.

In response to question two, Cr Bastone said, "If I became unexpectedly homeless, I would live with my daughter, husband and granddaughter".

In relation to the question of investment property ownership, Cr Bastone responded, "No other property except the one we live in".

The Kingborough Chronicle shall revisit this story in forthcoming editions, including any responses received from Cr Paula Wriedt, Cr Jo Westwood, Cr Christian Street, and Cr Steve Wass.

Potential conflicts of interest

The Kingborough Chronicle is informed that any Councillor with an investment property that is used for short-stay accommodation is required to disclose the property on Council's Register of Interest.

Further, in the circumstance of a vote on short-stay visitor accommodation, a Councillor with property that is used for short-stay accommodation is required to leave the meeting room and recuse themselves from the debate.

Bumper rollup at Snug EV show

More than 400 people flocked to Snug on Saturday, August 20, for the Snug Electric Vehicle Fair.

Peter Laud of Net Zero Channel group said the "bumper turn-out" of interested people, more than double the expected numbers, signalled an "electric vehicle revolution is underway in Tasmania".

Makes and models of vehicles on show included the Tesla, Nissan Leaf, Hyundai Ioniq, including one of the only Ioniq 5's in Tasmania, and a Mini. "There were also three vans, including two Nissan ENV 200 camper conversions," said Peter Laud.

"The Electric Car Fair was the first major event co-hosted by the Net Zero Group which has the long-term aim of making the Channel Tasmania's first carbon neutral area.

"More than 40 electric vehicle owners offered their cars for people to either test drive or experience riding as a passenger in an EV for the first time, and more than 300 people were given rides, some of them multiple times.

"In addition, a static display of EVs offered potential buyers a further opportunity to learn about EVs with owners answering a steady stream of questions.

"The Net Zero Channel group linked with the Tasmanian branch of the Australian Electric Vehicle Association (AEVA) to stage the fair which was held at the sports ground in Beach Road, Snug.

"At a packed Q&A session AEVA Tasmania vice president Clive Attwater discussed in detail the costs of owning EVs and their environmental benefits."

Enough is enough road toll

Dear Editor,
I would like to give praise to the Tasmanian Police for their efforts to lower the State's road toll.
Having our son killed by a negligent driver, we know the pain and how the lives of families are destroyed by the action of some.
One of the hardest things is knowing that loss of lives would have been avoided if some people were not behind the wheel.

With Tasmanian property prices falling will Kingborough Council decrease rates for the community?
I suggest $20 off each rate notice would be welcome in this difficult financial period.

Police Workplaces Bill (the anti-protest bill)

Dear members of Tasmanian Parliament,
My name is Colette Harmsen and I am a veterinarian.
I completed my Bachelor of Veterinary Science at the University of Queensland in mearjin/Brisbane as veterinary science is not a degree offered at the University of Tasmania.
I was born in nipaluna/Hobart and returned here after graduating in 1999 to practice veterinary science.
The state of the environment has always troubled me, and I have participated in non-violent direct action for at least 15 years.
I have been arrested many times trying to protect Tasmania's environment and I am currently on a three-month suspended jail term for trespass while peacefully protesting.
These are my current bail conditions:
• I must live at 430 Tinderbox Road, Tinderbox, Tasmania during the period of bail and not change that address without prior approval of the Court, and be there between the hours of 10pm and 6am, and between those hours I must present myself to a police officer there if so required.
• I am not to be found outside a 30-kilometre radius of 430 Tinderbox Road, Tinderbox, save and except for travel to court appearance by direct route without unnecessary stoppage or deviation.
• I must not be found west of Devonport.
My next court date is September 27, where, I have been instructed, I will likely be given a jail term to serve.
I have had seven curfew visitations by Police in the last six weeks to my home.

I believe this penalty for peaceful protesting is quite harsh, as people with far more violent, serious and aggressive crimes get the same punishment as me, and all of my arrests have involved trying to protect the environment in a peaceful way.
The new laws are unequivocally aimed at targeting peaceful environmental protesters like myself, and indicate an increasingly harsh approach to the people who feel they have to put their bodies on the line, because the climate emergency is not being taken seriously.
I do not think that stronger punishments for protesters will prevent us from protesting, they will only cause the already stretched Tasmanian justice system a whole lot more work.
Please consider voting against the Bill.
I would be very happy to speak to you about this, within 30km of my home, and between 6am and 10pm.
Dr Colette Harmsen BVSc

Saddle Road and Watsons Road safety

Dear Editor,
This letter regarding the sub-standard condition of Saddle Road in Kettering, may prompt Kingborough Council into taking the steps to fix the problem.
Being a school bus route, safety is the big issue here.
The sealed section of the road on average is 3.6 metres wide, down to 3.5 metres wide in some sections.

Channel switches on to EVs

The Snug Electric Vehicle Fair included information and displays on electric bikes too.

“Other discussions focussed on the prospect of a reduction in purchase costs with the arrival into Australia later this year of a range of Chinese-made cars,” continued Peter Laud.

“Charging EVs at home and on the road was the focus of one workshop.

“With a bumper turn-out NZC organisers hailed the fair a success and are looking at repeating the event next year at the same venue.

“The next event on the NZC calendar will be a public screening at Kettering on October 30 of Regenerating Australia, a 20-minute documentary which examines how Australia could look by 2030 with the right environmental approach which would require a greater take up in EVs supported by State and Federal incentives and reduced fossil fuel use.

“Meanwhile NZC is examining how best to measure the current carbon footprint of the Channel area among homes and businesses which can be monitored for improvements in areas like greater use of EVs, increased rooftop solar and other home improvements.”

More than 400 people flocked to Snug on Saturday, August 20, for the Snug Electric Vehicle Fair.

Homeless graveyard

The Kingborough Chronicle has published a series of articles on the rental crisis and homelessness in Kingborough.

For previous articles refer to our July 26, August 2 and 9 editions.

In a media release on August 16, Councillor Gideon Cordover said his motion was intended as “a move designed to bring more homes back onto Kingborough’s long-term rental market”.

“It is a crying shame that five Councillors, including the Mayor and Deputy Mayor, voted against taking meaningful action to help fix the housing crisis,” Cr Cordover said.

“I commend Councillors Midgley, Fox and Glade-Wright who had the guts to vote to stand up against the vested monied interests and actually put the renters of Kingborough first ahead of the landlord lobby.

“At the same meeting, a motion moved by Mayor Paula Wriedt “That LGAT lobby the State Government to encourage the development of affordable housing, as a matter of urgency” passed unanimously.

Cr Cordover said the Mayor’s motion was “a nice letter to the Local Government Association asking them to write a nice letter to the State Government,” which would take years to see any real action”.

“Sadly, due to the ‘recalcitrant five’, the Council Chamber with the current council is a place where good ideas go to die.

A stage and screen film festival first for Kingston

A stage and screen festival, showing award-winning international films, documentaries, and British theatre, is happening right here in Kingborough this week.

Kingborough Council's Coordinator Community Services and Hub, Carol Swards said it's the first time the Art Screen Event has taken place in Kingston.

The ticketed festival includes a collection of six film and theatre events, showing from Friday, August 26, to Sunday, August 28, at the Kingborough Community Hub.

Carol Swards has provided details, on what local film buffs may view at this unique festival.

The festival highlight is expected to be the UK National Theatre's Prima Facie, written by Australian Suzie Miller.

Other festival films include comedies The Good Boss, and Falling for Figaro, starring Joanna Lumley.

Theatre events include An American in Paris musical, from London's West End, and Leopoldstadt, from the National Theatre.

The 2021 documentary Blind Ambition, winner of the Audience Award at the Tribeca Film Festival and the Sydney Film Festival, is scheduled for the opening night.

A Stage & Screen Film Festival, including six films and events is being held as a ticketed event at the Kingborough Community Hub from Friday, August 26, to Sunday, August 28. Pictured is the Director of Art Screen Events, Katrine Elliot. Historic school's revival

There is a revival happening at the old Kingston primary school on Hutchins Street, across from the Kingston Library.

And it is not going unnoticed, nor un-noted.

Pam Poulson has provided the following, on behalf of University of the Third Age (U3A) Kingborough.

"Our intention is to thank the library for the restoration of these buildings which are so important for community use," wrote Pam.

"U3A is the largest tenant and has been for 21 years."

The old Kingston primary school

Kingston has a very old primary school.

It began as a single, weatherboard schoolroom on Hutchins Street, then a brick schoolroom was later built alongside.

As the school population continued to grow, the weatherboard building was pulled down, and the brick schoolroom was expanded in the 1930s to become the imposing brick building it is today.

Next, more wooden classrooms were built and opened in 1957, but were outgrown by the 1970s.

Hence, a new primary school was constructed at the Church Street site.

There are residents in Kingston today who were once students at the old Kingston school.

Some still attend, now as U3A members!

The old buildings have been in use since the old school closed, although the wooden classrooms have been in a derelict condition.

Restoration began earlier this year, with painting and work to make windows usable.

Ventilation became imperative when COVID hit.

Windows can once again be opened, and it is many years since that has been possible.

Clearly, there have been good painters on site, and the nearly completed building is looking quite lovely.

It is painted inside, and out, and has new carpet.

The buildings are invaluable to volunteer groups in need of meeting places, as affordable space is in short supply in Kingborough.

Classes for senior citizens, offered by U3A, are very important for the wellbeing of the older members of the community.

U3A thanks Kingston Library staff for their services, and we would like to express our thanks for the restoration of the historic buildings.

Retirees seeking to learn or be more active can visit and/or join U3A at www.u3akingborough.org.au, visit the old Kingston Primary School, or write to PO Box 479, Kingston, 7051, to find out more.

The brick building on Hutchins Street opposite the Kingston Library was constructed in the 1930s. It housed the old Kingston primary school and is in the process of being restored. (PS)

Gardens ready for spring

While we may be still huddled under blankets or around the fire, spring is just around the corner.

Plants, and experienced gardeners, are gearing up.

"The grass on the river flats has started to move so the Pademelons will soon stop monsterring garden plants and munch out on tasty, nutritious grass, we hope", said Bill Chestnut, at Inverawe Native Gardens in Margate.

Bill is preparing for the reopening of the local native gardens on September 1.

The first signs of the new season are beginning to show.

"First the wattles, vast splashes of showy gold, then the grevilleas", explains Bill.

"Native laurels join the party and Philothecas (fairy wax flower) are in full bud.

"Westringia varieties are always in bloom.

"The nectar from all those flowers lets honeyeaters know it is time for nest building.

"The flowers attract insects, and if you come equipped with a beak and feathers, that's lunch!"

Local biodiversity solutions

"The recent Australia State of the Environment Report released by Federal Environment Minister Tanya Plibersek indicated Australia now has more foreign plant species than natives," noted Bill.

"There is a problem with loss of plant, bird and animal species, not least in our municipality with rapid suburbanisation.

"We can do something about it," said Bill, noting that the aim behind Inverawe Native Gardens is to encourage and support others to "grow more native plants."

So, what can you do if you don't have much space?

"If all you can manage is three pots on an apartment balcony, it is better than not bothering," Bill said.

"In suburban backyards you can fit it in a few native plants.

"Carefully planned, you will have year-round colour."

Eucryphia lucida* is an understory plant, endemic to Tasmania. (PS)

Tree planting day cultivates new learning

St Aloysius Catholic College has provided the following summary of the college's National Tree Day efforts to share with the Kingborough community.

Plant a tree day

St Aloysius Catholic College honoured National Tree Day on Friday, August 5, by planting saplings and bushes in the Peter Murrell Reserve.

Staff and students added to previous plantings undertaken across the road from the college's Huntingfield Campus.

Kingborough Council's Natural Areas Interpretation Officer, Bridget (BJ) Jupe introduced the day's activities, providing information on the extent of habitat provided by National Tree Day plantings, and how the habitat supports local wildlife.

BJ spoke about the trees planted in the same location three years ago, by previous St Aloysius students, and how they have contributed to the local environment.

Ruby, who is currently Year 6, said that Plant a Tree Day "was really fun because we got to learn a lot about different things and where they grow, we got to learn about how the environment works".

Archie, a Year 7 student, shared, "I've learnt that some of the plants like to hang out in watery spots and some don't, and I've realised that this is actually quite a lot of fun, doing this, really good for the environment as well".

"I've also learnt that plants are yummier for animals in their first eighteen months.

"We put netting around them, and some plants need different types of netting; some need it to have less sun, some need less wind, some need more wind, and after eighteen months they're taken off."

BJ taught the students "all of the names of the plants, and how some go by water, and which are natives and things like that", said a Year 6 student.

The same Year 6 student also shared that, "It's a lot of fun, except we killed some worms along the way"!

Year 9 student, Bella, shared that, "It's nice to do something that affects our environment; it affects where we go to school".

St Aloysius Catholic College is proud to support the National Plant a Tree Day initiative and looks forward to volunteering again next year!

Native tree saplings and bushes were planted in the Peter Murrell Reserve by St Aloysius Catholic College students on Friday, August 5. (PS)

Planet Ark's National Tree Day began in 1996 and is now Australia's largest community tree planting and nature care event. It's a "call to action" for one and all. This year's National Tree Day theme, 'Connection', highlighted the importance of connecting to nature. (PS)

Weekly lunchtime meetings at KHS are used to plan events and fundraisers, in order to donate to both local and worldwide charities and organisations.

These organisations are all centred around women's health, safety or empowerment, and previous donation recipients have included Jireh House, Louis' Van, Care Australia and Birthing Kits Foundation.

In Term 2 this year, Z Club held a raffle for teachers and community members.

The prizes were generously donated by KHS students and families, Zonta Club of Hobart Derwent and several local businesses.

The club would like to extend their gratitude to all who showed their support, as it would not have been possible without that generosity.

The raffle raised an amazing $300, which was set aside for future projects.

In Term 3 every year, Z Club spends an afternoon packing birthing kits, containing the bare essential products for childbirth.

Z Club and Zonta International support this project.

A staggering 295,000 women and 2.5 million babies die during childbirth every year, and many deaths are due to lack of sanitary equipment.

The supplies for these kits are bought from Birthing Kits Foundation, and included gauze, soap, gloves, a plastic sheet, string and a scalpel.

Each of the items in the kit are necessary for providing a safe and sanitary birth.

Club members pack the supplies into individual packs, creating 200 valuable birthing kits.

The kits are sent to developing countries including the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Uganda, Nigeria, Papua New Guinea, and Ethiopia.

Once the birthing kits are sent off to women in need, Z Club will plan its final project for 2022.

The club will hold further fundraising events, and money will be donated to a chosen cause, possibly supporting Ukrainian refugees, or people affected by the women's housing crisis.

For further details about Zonta, email Julie Wiltshire at juliewiltshire49@gmail.com

KidFit Triathlon is on again

Hundreds of children throughout Tasmania are expected to swim, cycle and run their way to history as the 2011 Bupa Health Foundation KidFit Triathlon moves into its 12th season.

The event will take place in five centres across Tasmania, and Blackmans Bay Beach will be holding the largest event scheduled for Sunday, March 20.

Life, Be in it! State Manager and event organiser, Stephen Dwyer, said the Blackmans Bay event is by far the largest of the five event series, with participants always reaching over 600 children in the Foundation Steer Committee Chair and Clinical Officer for Bupa Australia, said the triathlon is an important initiative in helping Tasmanian children adopt healthy lifestyles, as a quarter of Australian children are overweight or obese.

"We are delighted the club has responded so well to the opportunity," said Dr Bennett. "We are committed to the health of the nation, and the triathlon is a great way to improve nutrition habits at

The doors first opened to the brand new, state-of-the art Kingston High School building on Thursday, February 17, 2011.

The school, located on Kingston View Drive adjacent to the Kingborough Sports Centre, was designed to cater for around 700 students from Grades 7 to 10 as a place not only for learning, but also for community participation, with its performing arts centre, gymnasium, car park, bus facilities and sports fields.

Kingston High Z Club spent a productive lunch time packing hamper boxes to raise money for one of Zonta International's major initiatives. Zonta Birthing Kits enable women in developing countries to give birth in a safer manner. The kits, which cost about $5 each, consist of a sheet of plastic, gauze, string, a blade, soap and gloves. The plastic bag and the plastic sheet are treated with an organic compound that helps the plastic break down. (PS Ray Quinn)

Kingston High School

50 Year Anniversary
1972 - 2022

Helen Gourley's tenure as principal, 2004-2012

Kingston High School's past principal Helen Gourley was always around the school, inside and out.

Helen knew all students and many of their family members.

During her time in the lead role, spanning from 2004 to 2012, Helen had high expectations for both staff and students.

Staff were trusted and were presented with professional development, leadership and mentoring opportunities.

Helen's focus was on relationships, and staffing was structured in such a way that teachers had daily opportunities to explore teaching and learning with their colleagues.

The years of Helen's principalship were years of great change, the most obvious being the school's move from its original site to a new, greenfield site near the Kingborough Sports Centre.

This was a long-range plan involving local and interstate architects, Kingborough Council representatives, local community members as well as school staff, students and their families.

Apart from a consideration of the built structures, the sustainable features, the landscaping and the provision of digital capacity for every student and every space, Helen had to continue to operate a school from the old site.

Helen ensured that planning for the new, twenty first century ways of teaching and learning, began at the old site.

In a land swap with Robert Rockerfeller, Helen was able to acquire "The House" adjacent to the school oval and created the first major program of vocational learning opportunities. Students were chosen because of the need to give them an alternative focus, in order that they remain in touch with education.

Boat building and gardening programs commenced here, as the bones of a flexible, life-skills, practical program, and travelled to the new site.

This was the first element of Project 17.

The second element of Helen's Project 17 was an academic program to foster excellence among the highest achievers in the school.

Helen's planning for the important focus on teaching for the new century led to opportunities for groups of staff to travel to conferences focussing on teaching and learning, based on the latest understanding of the development of young people's brains.

Four staff won a Hardie Scholarship to travel internationally, and Helen won a Westfield Scholarship to travel to six countries studying successful educational initiatives to translate to our local situation.

All staff benefitted from the opportunity to work with Dr Julia Atkin, an inspirational speaker who led the school to consider change.

When she reflects on these years Helen says that she is proud of the enthusiasm with which staff took up the opportunities to work in collaborative teams, and of the way students supported each other regardless of skill, background or capacity.

Kingston High School was an inclusive school, reflective of its multicultural community.

The inclusive philosophy permeated the student population and spread into families and the broader community.

Helen knows that Kingston High School was a leader in inclusion in Tasmania and that this culture continues.

SCC Welcomes new Principal, Jodie Bennett

Southern Christian College recently welcomed their new Principal, Jodie Bennett.

An experienced teacher and school leader, Jodie has moved from Sydney to take on her new role.

When asked what prompted the change, Jodie replied, "Tasmania is obviously a beautiful place to live and the Kingston area is special. There is such a strong sense of community.

"But it was the opportunity to lead Southern Christian College that I couldn't resist.

"The more I learned, the more I felt that this was a school I had to be part of.

"A couple of things struck me. The first was the warmth and care that runs through the school, it is the heart of the place.

"The second was the genuine commitment to nurturing the whole person.

"Careful planning goes into making sure there is a balanced emphasis on the different areas of development; intellectual, social, emotional, physical and spiritual.

"From the early learning program through to Year 12, the teachers work hard to ensure students have the opportunity to grow in all these areas.

"The International Baccalaureate program from Kinder through to Grade 10 also helps prepare students for the future.

"It ensures they are building skills in vital areas such as problem solving, collaboration and creativity.

"With these foundations, our students will be equipped to meet the challenges that may be ahead."

Southern Christian College is holding an Open Week from September 26 to 30.

Activities include tours of the College, a Kinder Discovery play session for three and four-year-olds and an information evening for Grade 6 students and their parents on transitioning to Secondary School. This session is open to both current families, and the wider community.

A Page from the Past - Kingborough News

Fifty five years ago the Huon Newspaper Company published Kingborough News, a weekly newspaper that circulated from 1967. The below page is taken from Kingborough News, September 1, 1967.

CONSTRUCTIVE PLANS IN KINGBOROUGH

EXTENSIVE development works now in progress in the Kingborough Municipality will be continued this year. Further progress in construction and sealing of roads and streets is planned, and water supply and sewerage schemes will highlight the Commission's advancement programme.

These and other matters of vital importance to the municipality are recorded in the Commission's seventh annual statement issued for the information of ratepayers, and revised for accuracy at the Commission's fortnightly meeting on Tuesday.

The loan programme approved amounts to $300,000 made up as follows: Road and street sealing, $15,000; street construction, $30,000; sewerage, $174,000; decimal currency, $5,000; alterations to Council Chambers $40,000; water construction, $36,000.

The report records that Kingborough is the only municipality of any size that has not increased its rates for three consecutive years, the Commission trusts that rate payers will realise this with some degree of appreciation.

It was stated that, on application, rates could be paid in two instalments, the first on September 30 this year, and the second on or before February 1, 1968. In such cases the discount of 2 1/2 per cent would not apply.

Referring to the fires, it was recorded that the magnificent effort by scores of volunteers of both sexes in fighting the fires, and staffing the relief centres round the clock, and in augmenting the overworked Commission staff, thus enabling the fire relief headquarters to function day and night, was beyond all praise.

The invaluable assistance rendered by members of the Armed Forces throughout the emergency with personnel transport, and equipment was gratefully acknowledged.

The report pays tribute to the publicity given to the municipal activities by the "Kingborough News."

A total of 93.67 per cent of current and outstanding rates was collected by June 30. At the same time this left $20,642 still outstanding, and legal action would be continued to recover this.

missions aim to close the Park at the end of December.

This year to date, 24 miles of country roads have been sealed at a cost of $197,308. It is planned to seal half a mile of each of the following roads this year: Leslie Rd., Coningham Rd., and Brightwater Road.

Many other matters of significance to ratepayers are contained in the statement, but because of space considerations will have to form the basis of

MOVEMENT INTO CHANNEL

Building permits for the fortnight ended August 15 show that some people are moving into the Channel area from other districts, and are undeterred by the effects of the fires.

For instance, one of the permits is for a dwelling costing $10,600 at Woodbridge, and the applicant is a Glenorchy man.

The list shows also that rebuilding is taking place at devastated Coningham. A Channel Highway resident is putting up a house at Coningham at a cost of $11,500, and a Lindisfarne man is building a house at Coningham at a cost of $5,000.

Total cost of building permits for the fortnight is $962,136.

HAIR STYLE AWARDS TO KINGSTON GIRL

ROBYN CHALMERS (17), daughter of Mr and Mrs W. J. Chalmers, of Kingston Beach won two major awards in the championships conducted by the Tasmanian Hairdressers' Association in the Hobart City Hall on Saturday. She is a second year apprentice of Shelagh Williamson

Robyn won the perpetual shield for the most outstanding apprentice of the year, and the cup awarded as first prize for second-year apprentice in hair styling. Her model in the championships was Elizabeth Pearsall, daughter of Mr and Mrs T. G. Pearsall.

In the picture, Robyn has as her model, Gaye Barlow, in Shelagh Williamson's Beauty Shoppe. Another Kingston girl, Susan Golding, was third in the second-year day style, and her model was Lynette Lipscombe, also an apprentice in the same Beauty Shoppe.

Registered at the G.P.O. Hobart, for transmission by post as a newspaper.

Taroona Plays For Arts Festival

TWO plays from Taroona High School will take part in a Festival of the Arts, entitled "Youth in Action" to be presented in the Hobart Theatre Royal on Saturday, September 9.

"Youth in action" is being presented by the Tasmanian Youth Theatre in conjunction with the National Theatre and Fine Arts Society.

This time the festival will be of a different kind. It will combine drama, music, dancing, films, verse speaking, and painting.

The Taroona High School pupils are solely responsible for their plays. They have no adult tuition. One play is written by its producer, Lorraine Rabbett who is becoming well known for her efforts. She also takes a part in the play.

The second play is produced by Graeme Hook. Both plays have competed recently in the Channel Junior Drama Festival.

The festival organiser is Miss Silva Harris, Festival Director, who is in charge of the Saturday Club for Tasmanian Youth Theatre.

There will be no prizes, no placegetters. The aim of the Youth Theatre is to encourage and bring together all forms of art in an atmosphere of the theatre. All performers will be there to share their talents and gain experience in their particular field.

The Youth Theatre has invited Mr John Casson (son of Sir Lewis and Dame Sybil Thorndyke) to act as Festival Critic-Advisor. There will be sessions morning, afternoon, and evening on Saturday.

An exhibition of paintings arranged by Mr Ken Thomas will be hung in both foyers of the Theatre Royal.

The audience may purchase a cut lunch nearby, which saves their leaving

This is something quite new to Tasmania, and should prove to be exciting and stimulating both to performers and audience.

WOODBRIDGE LIFE

Back to Woodbridge Weekend

Visitors were warmly welcomed into the town for the Back to Woodbridge Weekend, part of the Woodbridge Life 2022 program of events celebrating life in and around Woodbridge. The journey back in time at Woodbridge began outside the entrance of the Woodbridge Community Hall on Saturday, August 13, with a Welcome to Country, by Woodbridge resident Graeme Seabourne.

A kelp water vessel and traditional woven basket, on display in the Woodbridge Community Hall, as a reminder of the history and culture of the district's traditional owners and original inhabitants, the Palawa people. Various cultural items were provided by the South East Tasmanian Aboriginal Corporation.

The European township of Peppermint Bay (Woodbridge) originated from 1828, when the site was selected as peppermint gum was in high demand for shingle timber for the rooves of buildings in Sullivan's Cove (Hobart). The site was originally a camp for timber cutters, whalers and convicts. After 1845, the Oyster Cove Probation Station was downgraded, and convicts were gradually moved to Port Arthur. Land sales were introduced in 1847, as the land was valued for mixed farming potential.

A large, sesquicentenary quilt was made by West Winds Craft Group to mark the 150th year of the village in 1997. According to a news article at the time, the quilters contributed a total of 700 hours to complete the task.

Chair of the Woodbridge Life 2022 Committee, Graham Rae has gathered a wealth of history knowledge on the area and shared this with the community in this fascinating exhibition. The exhibition will be on display in the Channel Museum during September.

The blinds came up on the store-front windows of the old Channel Emporium in Woodbridge on the weekend of August 13 and 14, drawing the eyes and imaginations into the past. The windows of the old Channel Emporium offer a glimpse into a bygone era, revealed through a fascinating collection of wares. The ground floor of the historic two-story building, dating back to the 1800's was a drapery, ironmongery, grocers, a bakery and butcher's shop.

Martial arts school for girls and boys

UNDEFEATD is a martial arts school, for ages six through to adults.

Classes are now offered for boys only, girls only, as well as girls and boys combined classes.

There are also classes for school groups, birthday parties, women only and private tuition.

UNDEFEATD teach a type of martial arts known as Wing Chun Kung Fu, which does not rely on strength.

Wing Chun uses protective behaviour principles and strategies, such as watching an opponent's elbows and knees, moving to the outside of an opponent, and using two hands at the same time.

Teaching practical self-defence skills helps students meet their full potential and guides them in areas such as fitness, motivation, coordination, self-discipline, focus, resilience and respecting one-self and others.

Classes are based on non-competitive activities to promote growth and challenge oneself, rather than competing with others.

UNDEFEATD has recently relocated to the mezzanine level of Channel Court Shopping Centre in Kingston, so it's easy to "get fit, learn self-defence and have fun!"

For further details, call 0411 559 862.

The Club's cricket program offers opportunities for all ages and skill levels, including:

- Woolworths Junior Blast for boys and girls (age 5 to 7),
- Woolworths Master Blast for boys and girls (age 7 to 10),
- Hurricanes Junior League Stage One for boys and now girls (skills-based ages from 9 to 12); and

In the Tasmanian Premier League, Kingborough Knights teams play in the under 15 and under 17s competitions.

Kingborough Knights Cricket Club is excited to promote a new Stage One Girls Competition, for girls heading into to the under 15s competition.

All Knights' pathways lead to the first, second and third grade levels of competition.

The programs offer coaching by qualified coaches, with first and second grade players mentoring the younger age groups.

The facilities at Twin Ovals allow the players to train on one of the best cricket grounds in Tasmania, and also offer access to the indoor cricket facilities, thanks to the support of Mark Divin and the Hub team.

Kingborough Knights are keen to attract more players to the girls program this year, with the new Stage One competition.

A great opportunity for players to learn the basics of the game at a young age.

This program is designed to begin a cricketers' journey with the Knights, with potential to progress all the way to senior level cricket.

Kingborough Knights said the Club "couldn't be happier with the pathways we can provide for junior cricketers to learn and play cricket in a safe, inclusive, and wonderful environment."

The Club has announced the "exciting appointment of Thomas Martyn as the male director of cricket, and Clive Rose the female director of cricket".

"Cricket is a fantastic way to encourage fitness and health in the summer.

With many programs on offer, in different time slots, there is something for everyone to be enjoying this great game", noted the Cricket Club.

"Kingborough Knights Cricket Club encourage people to come along and watch the senior cricket in the coming season from the excellent viewing area at the Twin Ovals, with food and refreshments available.

"This is a great chance for people to watch some high-quality cricket."

Delights from the D'Entrecasteaux Channel

From the pages of The Woodbridge Community Cookbook

Recipe by Jasper Mead Burgoyne

Introduction by McLaren Burgoyne

This is an old fashioned North American 'drop biscuit'.

My father was from Missouri, thus we always called them Missouri 'Cookies', and they were the first thing you learned to cook as a child.

These are Moorish.

I even brought some along to the Woodbridge Life 2022 Committee Meeting and left with a totally empty plate.

Ingredients

- 2 cups sugar
- 3 Tablespoons unsweetened cocoa powder
- ½ cup milk
- 110g butter
- ½ teaspoon vanilla extract
- ½ cup peanut butter
- 3 cups quick cooking oats
- Pinch of salt

Method

Combine sugar, cocoa, milk, and butter in a saucepan. Bring to a full rolling boil and maintain the boil, stirring constantly, for one minute.

Remove from heat, add vanilla, salt, peanut butter and oats.

Mix well, scoop mixture with a teaspoon, drop them onto wax/baking paper and cool until firm.

When we were developing the cookbook 'Missouri Cookies' just didn't resonate with us.

We all agree they were the ugliest biscuits around but tasted so beautiful.

To keep it aligned with the Channel we decided to call them Snug-Uglies.

Ugly as well as delicious, they are my favourites and freeze beautifully.

I hope you enjoy!

Kara Taffs, Mei Yen Chua and McLaren Burgoyne compiled, designed and illustrated the Woodbridge Community Cookbook of delights from the D'Entrecasteaux Channel, to help fund the local events happening as part of the Woodbridge Life 2022 celebrations.

Beneath the Bank Arcade building in Liverpool Street, Hobart, is the first private shop to open in the early European settlement in August 1805. It has been recently discovered as Tasmania's oldest building. This month, Kingston Library is exhibiting historical photos and research on the Bank Arcade. Pictured (above) the Bank Arcade as it stood during the period from 1860 to 1923.

The current custodian of the Bank Arcade building, John Short, gave a presentation at Kingston Library on August 15, about the building, and the people who once lived and worked in it. The presentation and library display coincides with the publication of John Short's book A Different View of Hobart. Pictured (right) the façade of the Bank Arcade collapsed in 1923.

In soccer, the Kingborough Lions played South Hobart for the NPL and WSL at Clennett's Lightwood Park. In the women's, the Lions lost 2-5. Although the women lost their Keeper, Olivia Gardner worked hard to save many opposition scoring chances! Pictured Kingborough Lions' Women's Super League player Bronte Gadon in action. The holy grail of bowls

And now, we turn our attention to the news we've all been waiting for, this week's bowls report on all the playful action and entertainment at Kingborough Bowls and Community Club. It's over to Pat Lee, who never disappoints.

Tuesday Fours

Four teams secured two games each in Series Two of the afternoon Fours competition on Tuesday, August 16 in the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre, with the new format of eight ends plus power play, continuing to stir the pot. Teams Duggan, Murray, Hinkley and Palmer were all double victors, with Hinkley with standout in the first game, accounting for newcomers Neske by 26-shots. Hinkley's awesome foursome, Ann Hinkley, Jeff Parsons, Keith Hinkley and skip Paul McCann, went on to win their second game by nine, ending with a total winning margin of 35. Highlights of the day included an "eight", the Holy Grail of bowls. Eight is the maximum score that can be scored in a game of fours in one non-power-play end by a team, and was achieved by Team Duggan and also Harra's Harem. Another highlight was the win by "newbies" Team Ashlin. Two game losses by two teams from the previous week's top six, Baker and Schooling, resulted in falls this week. Meanwhile, Harra's Harem had a draw in their first game, and as a result dropped from first on the competition ladder to third. The top six on the ladder at the end of the round are Hinkley, Duggan, Harra's Harem, Murray, Hickey and Lee. In results for Game 1: Harra's Harem drew with Rosevear 7-7; Duggan defeated Schooling 13-3; Murray defeated Hickey 12-2; Lee defeated Pearce 11-10; Chaffey defeated Cawthorn 9-7; Hinkley defeated Neske 26-0; Ashlin defeated Hemmings 9-7; and Palmer defeated Baker 13-11. While in Game 2: Cawthorn defeated Lee 11-10; Murray defeated Ashlin 10-1; Harra's Harem defeated Neske 15-3; Duggan defeated Baker 16-9; Pearce defeated Chaffey 10-6; Palmer defeated Schooling 16-5; Hinkley defeated Rosevear 12-3; and Hickey defeated Hemmings 8-3.

Wednesday Fours

Round 4 of the Wednesday Evening Fours Competition on August 17 generated interesting and unexpected results. Only three teams out of the 10 teams in the competition won both their games on the night. The three teams were The Leftovers, who have not lost a game over the four nights of play so far, His and Hers and Better Performance. In the first game of the night, The Left Overs over ran the South Africans 13-6. His and Hers took the Pee Bees out 16-8. Better Performance had a battle against Second Shot to win by one shot, 6-5 in a very close game. The Dynamics hung on to defeat The Soggy Biscuits 11-9, while Team Pearce who have showed big improvement over the past weeks packed away the Cherry Pickers 10-5. In the second game, The Left Overs defeated Team Pearce 9-5. His and Hers was able to out bowl The Dynamics, downing them 11-6. Better Performance well and truly pipped the Cherry Pickers, defeating them 15-6. In the second very close game of the night, The Soggy Biscuits had a one-shot, 12-11, win over The Second Shot. Meanwhile, The South Africans returned to the winning circle in their second game, disposing of the Pee Bees 11-5. The South African brothers Nathan and Callum Dinning were proud and pleased to have their grandfather Clive Hall, who is visiting from South Africa, playing in the team on the night. Clive's son-in-law Iain Dinning stood down from the team to allow Clive to enjoy the games. After Round 4, The Left Overs are in first place, sitting on 24-points, and have accrued a massive plus 61-shots up. Better Performance are now in second place, on 16 points, with plus 20-shots up, while The South Africans sit in third place, on 14-points, with plus 12-shots up.

In the NPL, Kingborough lost 2-3 to South Hobart. Pictured Keenan Douce. (PS Carolyn Whitehouse)
