Speed reduction sought on Redwood Road

Kingborough Council shall write to the Transport Commission, seeking a reduction of the speed limit on Redwood Road.

At the Council Meeting of September 6, Councillors voted in favour (7/1) of a motion requesting the Transport Commission reduce the speed limit from 60 to 50 kilometres per hour.

The motion read, "That Council ask the Transport Commission to reduce the speed limit on Redwood Road, between the Channel Highway and the roundabout at the intersection of Village Drive and Maranoa Roads from 60km per hour to 50km per hour."

The motion was introduced by Cr Wriedt and seconded by Cr Flora Fox.

Councillors in favour were Crs Paula Wriedt, Jo Westwood, Gideon Cordover, Flora Fox, Clare Glade-Wright, Amanda Midgley, and Christian Street. Cr Steve Wass voted against the motion.

Mayor of Kingborough, Cr Paula Wriedt said the issue has been raised since 2012.

"Back in 2012 Council asked the Transport Commission to consider lowering the speed limit on this section of road, however it was rejected, causing frustration to Councillors.

"Traffic data shows that this part of Redwood Road has had several incidents on it in recent years and contemporary traffic management suggests a speed limit reduction would alleviate some of these, especially in such a busy area with vulnerable road users," Cr Wriedt said.

Cr Wriedt said concerns about the proximity of Redwood Village as well as both a childcare centre and aged care facility being located on this stretch of road, had been communicated by local residents with herself and with other councillors.

Council now awaits a decision from the Transport Commission.

Conditions unsustainable in outside school hours care

Kingborough Outside School Hours Care (OSHC) workers joined their colleagues in Hobart for strike action on the afternoon of Wednesday, September 7.

The Kingborough Chronicle spoke to the local workers on the circumstance they are facing and their concerns for local children and families.

Eilish Bremner Wojtowicz said she was speaking on behalf of her colleagues, and that the workers feel they can't provide quality care for the children "under the conditions we are working under".

Eilish said Outside School Hours Care was likely to experience more qualified and experienced carers leaving the sector.

Local Alex Buktenica, formerly an OSHC coordinator agreed, and said, "It's been that way for a long time".

"When I was in a management role in the sector, I couldn't provide the care I was wanting to be able to provide because of the conditions," said

Mr Buktenica.

Concerns expressed by the local workers included:

- An inadequate ratio of educators to children. The ratio is 1 educator to 15 children in OSHC.
- Rampant unpaid overtime.

"There's an assumption that we'll be doing unpaid overtime," said Eilish.

"The reality is you can't do the job without unpaid overtime."

"There's a sector-wide expectation that flows from under resourcing.

"It's a pressure being put on staff at all levels."

• Exhaustion, from "vicarious trauma" and lack of support.

The workers said those in the sector see violence frequently and there's no "accessible support" available during the times of these incidents, and further not given time for the "process of reporting" afterwards.

"Every second week" I'd have to spend time "off the floor" to make a report.

- High staff turn-over due to differing award rates in the sector.

The worker's said casual workers are paid around $10 per hour more than a part-time permanent employee, meaning there is continually a "high influx" of casual workers that need training by the existing staff, who are already overstretched.

The worker's said the casual workers typically didn't stay in the sector to become permanent employees "because of the massive pay drop".

"My team changed over every month, and that is the case at other (locations)," reported Mr Buktenica.

"Adults are having to work longer hours or two jobs due to increases in the cost of living, meaning more children are in care and for longer periods of time."

For further information on the strike action taken, see page 3 of last week's Kingborough Chronicle.

Calvin Christian School held its annual Oliebollen Festival on Saturday, September 10. For more photos from this year's event, see next week's Kingborough Chronicle. (PS)

A cheerful reminder to “mind your daisies”

A cheerful chain of woollen spring daisies has been installed at the Kingston Library, in time for Mindfulness Day, September 12.

In a media release on Thursday, September 15, Mayor of Kingborough, Cr Paula Wriedt said the art piece was designed to inspire smiles in the community.

“This giant daisy chain has been put together by some fabulous crocheters and knitters in our community,” Cr Wriedt said.

“Throughout the winter months, participants of all ages came together at the Kingston Library and KIN Creative Space to crochet and knit this amazing artwork.

“I would also like to thank Craftdylic for facilitating the project and bringing the community together.

“The project was designed to beautify the street as well as celebrate this annual day which raises awareness around benefits of being mindful.

“I would like to thank the team at Kingston Library for their wonderful support as well as all the amazing volunteers who helped stitch this daisy sculpture together.

“I have heard that Yarn Bomb Kingston are an expanding group, so I look forward to the work that they will do in the future and congratulate them on the fantastic sculptural piece.”

Small wonders of Woodbridge

The Small Wonders of Woodbridge exhibition was launched by Kelly Eckel from the Woodbridge Life 2022 Committee, at West Winds Community Centre on Friday, September 9.

The latest event on the Woodbridge Life 2022 calendar included a free community barbeque, cooked by the men from the Beer & Bite group of the Community Shed.

We're told, the men cooked up such a storm, they set off the fire alarm and caused an evacuation of the community onto the grass.

"With much fanfare of lights and sirens the volunteers from the Woodbridge Fire Brigade arrived very quickly to much cheering, inspected the building and declared it safe to re-enter and continue with the celebrations," wrote the Woodbridge Life 2022 Committee.

"Local children had great fun searching for hidden treasures in the treasure hunt.

"During the launch community members enjoyed looking at the eclectic collection of items on display which featured everything from beautiful craft, pottery, farm tools, recorded sounds of birdlife to exquisitely detailed silverware, miniature paintings and quirky photos.

"All items are no larger than 30 centimetres and attached to each is a simple statement explaining its connection to life in Woodbridge.

"The free exhibition, open to all, will be held in the Centre's Art Lounge until Friday, September 30."

The Art Lounge is a multi-function room and is not always available for viewing, so please contact West Winds Community Centre on 6267 4713 to check availability.

This unique and exciting exhibition is not-to-be-missed.

Kingston High School

50 Year Anniversary

1972 - 2022

Kingston High alumna, Jan Ochi

Jan Ochi is a staunch advocate for public education.

A Kingston resident, Jan attended Snug Primary School before moving on to Kingston High (1977-80), followed by Hobart Matriculation College.

Jan remains in frequent contact with many of the people she attended school with, they are part of the strong, local community.

Jan considers public education is essential, so young people experience the full variety of citizens in a community.

Jan recalls being happy during her four years at Kingston High.

Involved in numerous end-of-year theatre productions, Jan performed roles in plays written by vice-principal, Denis Meehan.

Jan played Aunt Bertha in Land of Could Be, and the Queen of Hearts in Alice in Wonderland.

As part of the Countdown council in Grade 9, Jan surveyed students about what was best and worst on the Countdown program and reported the results to the ABC.

Jan was often involved in theatrical events during weekly 'activities days', which she remembers as being much enjoyed parts of the school week, reflecting the 1970's approach to learning!

Following her high school and college years, Jan studied at the University of Sydney, then lived in Japan. She did not expect to return to Tasmania, but after ten years she did return and has gladly remained ever since.

Jan's children, Hikaru and Ayame, both attended Kingston High; Hikaru during 2006-2009, and Ayame during 2008-2011.

Jan comments that although Hikaru and Ayame had completely different needs from each other, they were both happy at Kingston High, and were able to thrive.

While Ayame pursued an academic path, Hikaru needed additional support, which he received in abundance.

Jan noted that when a school encourages a sense of belonging for a diverse range of students that ethos can ultimately spread to the broader community.

When Ayame began studying medicine at the University of Tasmania she was approached to be an ambassador for the 150th Anniversary of Public Education in Tasmania.

Ayame spoke about the importance of public education as she experienced it at Kingston High, where she had amazing teachers who supported, pushed and encouraged her to get where she wanted to go.

She commented on being given a lot of independence, ownership and responsibility for her own learning.

Ayame echoes her Mum's thoughts about the necessity to have strong public education, not only to ensure equal opportunity for all, but so young people learn about the diverse range of people from different socio-economic and cultural backgrounds who live in the real world.

Flying high

Kingston resident and former Kingston High student Timothy Lattimore has been offered one of 12 competitive graduate positions with Victoria Legal Aid.

"I am very humbled that I was selected to take up this opportunity," said Mr Lattimore, noting the position is highly sort after and known for its training in advocacy.

"Gaining any graduate lawyer position is a very competitive process, especially in Victoria.

Tim grew up in Kingston, attended Snug Primary, Kingston High and Hobart College.

He graduated with Bachelor of Laws from the University of Tasmania in December 2021, then completed the Tasmania Legal Practice Course in August this year to qualify as a solicitor.

"I certainly come from a background where attending University was not necessarily the norm in my family," noted Mr Lattimore.

"I am particularly looking forward to developing my legal knowledge and advocacy skills, that one day I hope to bring back to Tasmania one day."

A health and wellness day for Kingborough teens

Kingborough Council will host a Health and Wellness Day for teens on Tuesday, October 11 as part of the School Holiday Program.

In a media release on September 15, Mayor of Kingborough, Paula Wriedt, said it was important that Council could facilitate a range of workshops for local young people over the Mental Health Week period.

"There will be a variety of sessions all aimed at supporting a healthy lifestyle," Cr Wriedt said.

"The sessions will particularly focus on reducing anxiety, learning relaxation techniques, as well as improving resilience.

"The program involves vinyasa yoga, mandala drawing, tapping techniques and yin yoga.

"Participants will also get to make their own healthy lunch as part of the day.

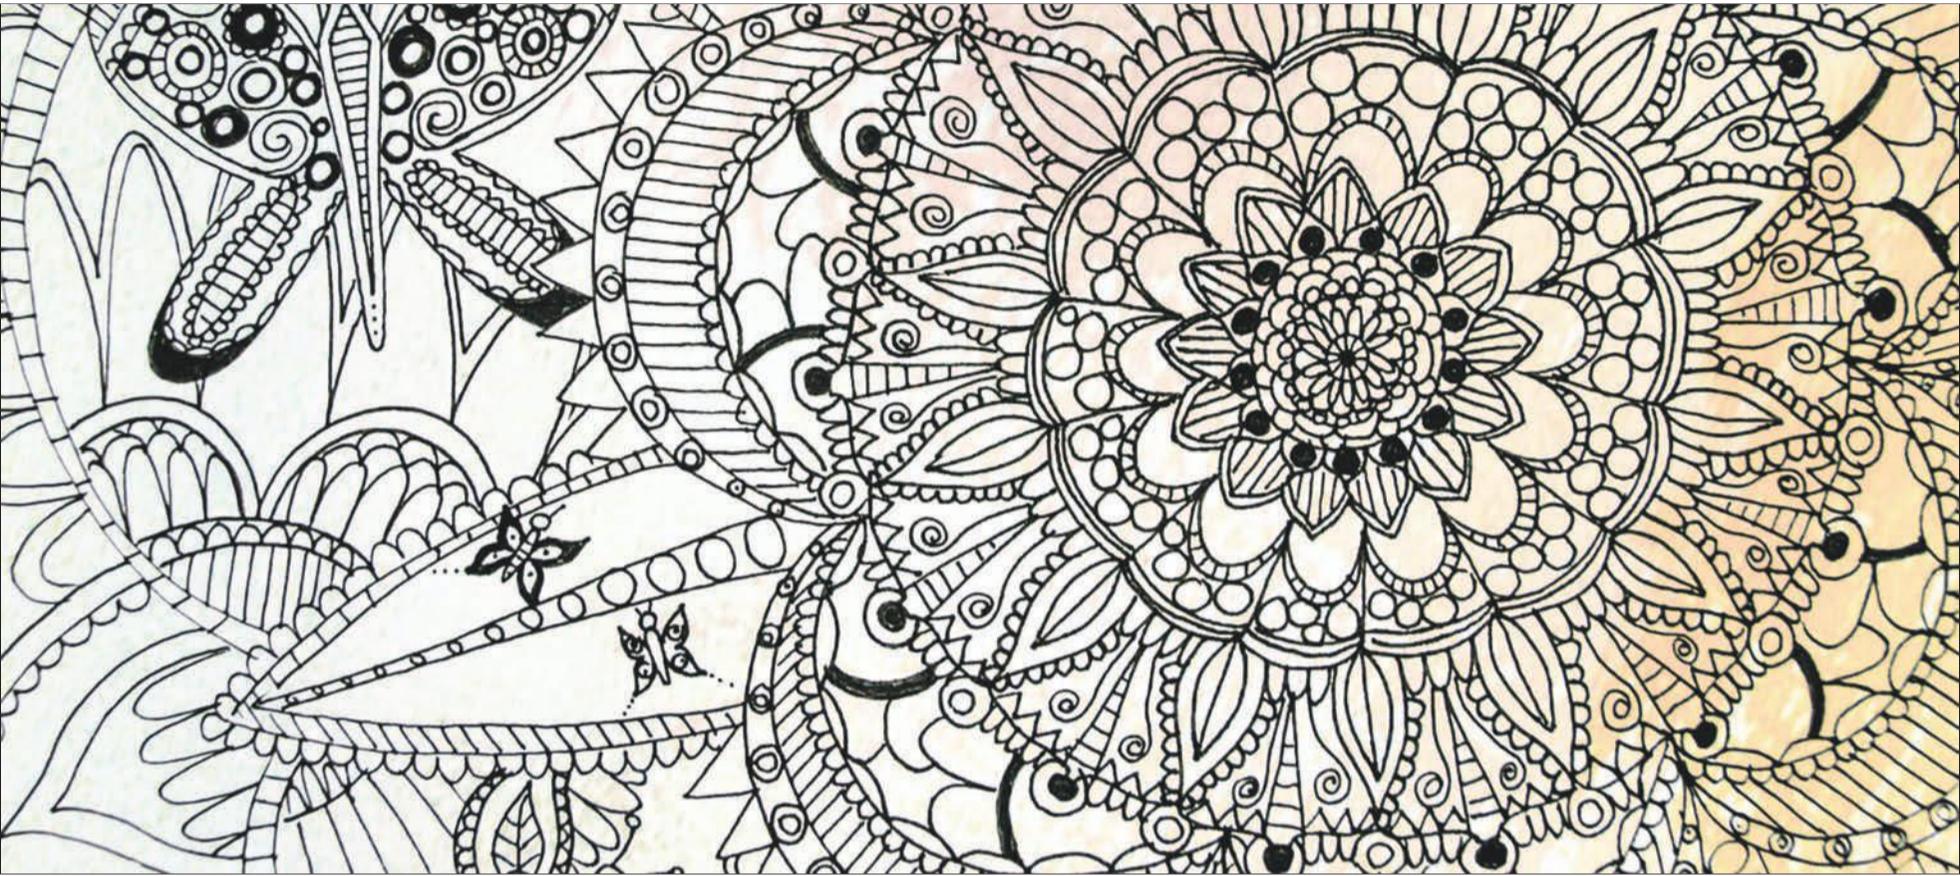

"This will be a fun opportunity to focus on your health and learn some invaluable techniques to take into everyday life.

"The sessions will be held in the Kingborough Community Hub and cater for young people aged 12 to 18 years of age."

The day runs from 10am to 3pm.

For bookings, visit Kingborough Eventbrite.

Mandala drawing, yin yoga and tapping techniques are among the techniques to reduce anxiety and improve relaxation, covered at the Health and Wellness Day for teens on Tuesday, October 11 (PS)

Southern Christian College : Vibrant Learning Community

"Southern Christian College is a great community with friendly students and staff. I love how natural my school feels in terms of the environment in which we study."

~ Aidan Fromholtz

"The Year 11 and 12 classes offer great support, which I love, as it's less stressful and supports tailor-made learning. My time at Southern Christian College has given me the confidence to head to University next year."

~ Marsinah Brandis-Gray

Southern Christian College is committed to fostering a strong, vibrant learning community in which students, staff and parents are encouraged to learn with and from each other. Over the past month, we have enjoyed several special opportunities to celebrate students' learning journey.

As part of the International Baccalaureate program, students in Grade 6 and Grade 10 complete an intensive project, designed to apply the skills they have learned over subsequent years and to prepare them for the transition to the next phase of schooling.

The Grade 6 Exhibition this year focused on the theme of Natural Disasters. In teams, students created amazing displays to share their research. They enthusiastically shared their findings with members of the College community.

Grade 10 students have spent the year working on their personal projects. Their Exhibition allowed them to share the final product with the College community and to talk about the process of moving from their initial ideas, through the different challenges to a design of which they could feel proud. The projects represented the diversity of student passions, including renovating a family caravan, recording, producing and releasing personal compositions, making baby clothes from recycled materials and designing and constructing a utility storage system.

As part of our Humanities week, students from Grade 7 shared their investigation into inventions developed in Ancient China and Grade 8 students dressed as notable historical figures and explained how their chosen figure had made a significant difference. Friendly rivalry was evident in the staff versus student lunchtime word challenges.

At a recent community night, primary classes coded online games for others to play and members of our student worship band entertained visitors throughout the night.

We welcome you to come to the College Open Day to learn more about how we inspire inquisitive minds. Visit our website for more information: <https://www.scc.tas.edu.au/>

Despite the efforts of the Save Lake Pedder committee, the simple fact remains that work on the Gordon Road has now reached the point where it is commencing its descent from the approximate level of Lake Pedder to the bottom of the gorge. ### Bowl Triples Competition

A weekend of action-packed bowls played out the Donald Hazell indoor Centre, at the Kingborough Bowls and Community Club, when 48 bowlers competed in the TPR Property, Group 2, Bowl Triples Competition on September 10 and 11.

At stake was $1200 in first place prize money, and the 16 teams battled it out.

Each team played five 15-end games (three on Saturday and two on Sunday) to qualify for the finals held on Sunday afternoon.

All four teams in the finals came away with substantial prize money.

After the completion of the five games, the team of John McKibben (Rosny Bowls Club), Peter Clark, (Franklin Bowls Club) and Jeff Parsons, (Kingborough Bowls Club), and the team of Callum Dinning, Mark Burgess and Iain Dinning (all from Kingborough Bowls Club) both finished on 61 points overall.

The two teams then played off for the first and second place prize money.

The final came down to the wire, with both teams sitting on 9-shots with one end to play.

Team McKibben picked up 2-shots on the last end to take out first place.

Kingborough team Andersch (consisting of Michael Andersch, with Lee Shead and Fred Shead) played off against a fellow Kingborough team consisting of bowlers Anthony Sculthorpe, Mark Drake and Allan Sculthorpe for third and fourth place, with Team Andersch the victors.

Maree Griggs and Renee Vanson from the TPR Property Group presented the winning teams with their prize money.

Tuesday Afternoon Fours

Round six of the Tuesday afternoon Fours Competition was played on September 13, leaving only two rounds left to play in the series.

The competition, in the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre at the Kingborough Bowls and Community Club, had four two game winners.

In almost a rewrite of last week's honours list, Team Hemmings topped proceedings with two wins and a combined 24-shots up.

The team consisted this week of Ida Jones, Sylvia Monash, Jerry Duke and Sue Clark.

Other two game winners were Harra's Harem (plus 13), Cawthorn (plus 11), Chaffey and Duggan (both plus 10).

The Competition ladder leaders Hinkley suffered a loss to Hemmings, and as a result slipped to second place, one point behind Harra's Harem.

The Cygnet based Team Schooling lost both games and slipped from fourth to sixth.

Duggan remains in third, followed by Cawthorn in fourth, and Hemmings in fifth.

Other highlights included a draw by Ashlin and Pearce in the second game, and a 6-shot win for bottom-placed Team Neske.

In results of the first game, Rosevear defeated Palmer (12-3), Hemmings defeated Pearce (16-3), Chaffey defeated Hickey (13-8), Hinkley defeated Schooling (14-4), Lee defeated Ashlin (15-5), Harra's Harem defeated Baker (13-4), Cawthorn defeated Murray (11-5), and Duggan defeated Neske (12-5).

In the second game, Harra's Harem defeated Murray (9-5), Chaffey defeated Palmer (10-6), Baker defeated Rosevear (13-8), Cawthorn defeated Hickey (9-4), Neske defeated Schooling (13-7), Pearce and Ashlin (7-all), Duggan defeated Lee (11-8), and Hemmings defeated Hinkley (16-5).

Wednesday Evening Fours

Round 8 of the Wednesday Evening Fours Competition in the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre has been completed, with the top three placings on the competition remaining unchanged.

The Left Overs are in first place, on 36-points, with plus 61-shots up after winning only one of the two games played on the night.

Better Performance, won both games and remains in second place on 31-points, with plus 61-shots up.

Second Shot also won both games, and are in third place on 30-points, with plus 58-shots up.

There is only one round of the competition left to be played in the competition.

At this point, in order to be toppled from first place, the Left Overs would need to lose both games in the last round and either Better Performance or Second Shot would need to win both their games.

Results of the first game of the night saw The South Africans demolish His and Hers (17-3), while Second Shot finished off the Left Overs (11-9).

The Peebees, picked up a six on the last end to defeat the Cherry Pickers (11-6).

Better Performance out classed The Dynamics (15-4), while Team Pearce, in another solid game, disposed of the Soggy Biscuits (11-6).

In the second game of the night, The South Africans, won their second game when they dominated Team Pearce (15-10).

The Soggy Biscuits pushed the Cherry Pickers to the bottom of the competition ladder when they beat them (7-5).

The Left Overs gave the Dynamics their second loss of the night, downing them (19-4).

Better Performance managed to hold onto second place on the ladder, defeating His and Hers (12-9), and Second Shot got their second win of the night, beating the Peebees (10-3).

Barefoot Bowls

Bare Foot Bowls is up and running again at the Kingborough Bowls and Community club on Thursdays, commencing on October 6.

Sessions run each Thursday, from 6pm to 8.30pm, in the comfort of the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre.

The cost of the sessions is $15 per person, which includes game fees, equipment hire and a barbecue. Participants can wear flat soled shoes, or bowl in bare feet.

The game offers physical and therapeutic benefits. Barefoot lawn bowls can be played by male and females of any age, and no expertise is required.

The game dispels any misconception that lawn bowling is boring.

Many players from last season have progressed to the summer pennant competition, which commences in October.

For further details, contact the club on 6258 3756.
