

Grand Final fiery fines

The Kingborough Tigers first Tasmanian State League (TSL) Grand Final appearance has resulted in multiple Match Review Officer (MRO) outcomes for both the Tigers and Launceston.

The two teams faced off at UTAS Stadium on Saturday, September 17, which included charges for serious misconduct, striking and an all-in melee at the end of the third quarter.

As reported in an AFL Tasmania media release on Wednesday, September 21, Launceston's Mitch Thorp has been charged for serious misconduct when he initially waited at the gate of the Kingborough team leaving the playing surface and then subsequently approached Tigers player, Tyler Carter, and engaged in a verbal exchange as the players walked off the ground at half time.

The MRO has assessed the details of the incident, including speaking with numerous witnesses and has determined that the incident be graded as a "Direct Tribunal Offence".

The matter will be heard by the Tribunal this week.

Kingborough's Tyler Carter was reported for intentionally striking another person, Launceston player Jacob Boyd, with a punch to the jaw in the second quarter.

The MRO assessed the details of the incident, viewed the video replay, and received witness statements from people, including the referring Umpire, and determined that the incident be graded as a "Classifiable Offence".

As a classifiable offence, the MRO graded it as intentional conduct, with low impact and high contact.

Based on this grading, Carter would normally receive a sanction of a two-match suspension, reduced to one-match suspension with an early guilty plea.

However, as the incident took place in a Grand Final, the MRO determined to apply a loading of 100% to the sanction.

Tyler Carter was offered a base sanction of a four-match suspension, reduced to a two-match suspension with an early guilty plea.

Carter has accepted the early guilty plea.

Launceston's Jamieson House has been charged by the MRO for instigating a melee at the conclusion of the third quarter.

The MRO assessed the details of the incident, viewed the video replay and determined that the incident be graded as a "Low Level Offence".

Jamieson House has been offered a base sanction of a one-match suspension, reduced to reprimand with an early guilty plea (plea not confirmed at the time of print).

The findings on the melee at three quarter time stated, "The melee that occurred at three quarter time negatively impacts the safety, and image of the game and abrogates the responsibility of all clubs and players to promote our game".

"The Match Review Officer assessed the details of this incident, including viewing the video replay, and determined that the incident be graded as a "Low Level Offence".

Minister for the Arts, Elise Archer with Mack Brown of Taroona High School, who won the inaugural Tony Woodward Award, the overall prize for secondary school students for his portrait of 102-year-old Brian Winspear. Mack's submission was inspired by a recent project supported by the Council of the Ageing Tasmania, pairing budding young Tasmanian artists with centenarians, and aimed at connecting younger generations with community elders, while celebrating and promoting the joys of ageing. Elise Archer presented the young artists with their awards, along with the Commissioner for Children and Young People, Leanne McLean and members of the judging panel and education sector. "I would like to congratulate all the winners and participants for the exceptionally high quality of submissions received this year," Ms Archer said. An exceptionally high standard of entries were around this year, especially from Taroona High School, which featured prominently among finalists, including Daisy Bresnehan and Mia Kluss, along with Matthew Capece of Illawarra Primary School. ## Pop-Up Café with guest speakers

Throughout October a new intergenerational Pop-Up Café for our older community members will be held at the Kingborough Community Hub.

Mayor of Kingborough, Cr Paula Wriedt said special café events would be hosted by the young participants from a Council-run, school holiday barista course.

"We hope this pilot is really popular so we can deliver a wonderful experience for our older community members, whilst facilitating some worthwhile training through the school holidays,"

Cr Wriedt said.

"It will be a perfect way to learn and provide an opportunity for intergenerational activities.

"The Pop-Up Cafés will also have guest speakers.

"The first café event on Friday, October 7 will have an expert guest speaker who will show everyone how to propagate indoor plants.

"There will be lots of hands-on demonstrations as well as coffee and slices provided by our young baristas.

"The next session on Friday, October 14 will be presented by a health professional from Leap Health, who will discuss the benefits of healthy protein diets with participants.

"Other great opportunities coming up for seniors include Council's spring seasonal walks and Seniors' Week activities.

A hard copy of the program can be collected from Kingborough Council's Customer Service centre or by visiting Cota Tasmania website www.cotatas.org.au/programs/seniorsweek/

Bookings for the Pop-Up Café can be made through Eventbrite or by phoning 6211 8200.

Cassandra Coria, Nicholas Davies and Kirsten Bacon have been named finalists in the 2022 Tasmanian Training Awards. (PS)

Tasmanian Training Award finalists

On Friday, September 16 the Tasmanian Training Awards 2022 were held at the Wrest Point Casino to celebrate excellence in vocational education and training.

Elizabeth College had three finalists including local Kirsten Bacon as Teacher/Trainer of the Year.

This award recognises innovation and excellence, providing internationally recognised training to students.

Kirsten has been in the industry for over 40 years, starting her career as a Tasmanian female pastry chef before travelling, then moving back to Tasmania in 2000 to gain her teaching qualification.

Kirsten brings passion and innovative teaching with gratitude, mindfulness and resilience to her students at Elizabeth College.

Priding herself on being an inspirational and relevant teacher, Kirsten is interested in engaging students who are on the fringe of learning, who have been socially, emotionally or educationally disadvantaged, who deserve a chance to learn.

Kirsten has a deep interest in particularly empowering women into VET.

"An astounding leader in hospitality with deep industry connections, Kirsten is a great leader," said a spokesperson from Elizabeth College.

Equity Vocational Student finalist of the year went to Nicholas Davies.

The equity award is for a student whose pathway into VET is not necessarily an easy, straight path with challenges on the way.

Nicholas has managed to overcome barriers and has proved to accomplish great things.

He prides himself on his mission to assist other students with their struggles and plans to go onto study psychology at some stage in the future.

Nicholas has learned to manage his health and long-distance travel from Oatlands on a daily basis to attend school and successfully complete his studies.

Nicholas has been mentored by Kirsten over the last two years along with other teachers to complete his studies.

VET in School Students of the Year, Cassandra Coria, was named a finalist for the second time, and deservedly so.

Cassandra has proved to be an excellent and quality student within the construction course, gaining her white card, Certificate 2 in Plastering and other aspects of the building trade whilst attending Elizabeth College.

Cassandra's aim is to influence others into the construction course by encouraging students into enrol and would like to come back to Elizabeth College and teach the course.

Cassandra has been mentored by her teacher Jason Clifford and is on the way to securing herself an apprenticeship.

"Elizabeth College staff and students, would like to acknowledge these finalists and wish them well."

Striking, melee and misconduct

From front page

"Due to the duration, time of game, proximity to spectators and number of players involved, present a negative image of the TSL and our game, the MRO determined that both clubs should be penalised financially for the incident.

"The melee was instigated by the Launceston Football Club and was the third melee the club has been involved in across the course of the 2022 season.

"This was the Kingborough Tigers Football Club's first melee incident in 2022," the report said.

TSL Management has fined the Launceston Football Club
$1,000 and the Kingborough Tigers Football Club $500.

The last report from the MRO was a social media breach by the Kingborough Tigers Football Club.

TSL Management determined that the Kingborough
Tigers Football Club was in breach of section 12.5

(Social Media) of the AFL's National Community Football Policy Handbook with the publication of a social media post during Saturday's TSL Grand Final.

TSL Management has issued the Kingborough Tigers Football Club a $300 fine, suspended on the condition of no further breach of section 12 of the AFL's National Community Football Policy Handbook for twelve (12) months.

Reduced speed needs consultation

Dear Editor,

At last the Kingborough Council is contacting the Transport Commission again to ask for the speed limit on a small section of Redwood Road be reduced to 50km, but I ask why haven't residents been asked for their input into this question as I am sure they would have something to say.

I've lived here since 2009 and the road around the roundabout has always been a problem with speeding cars, particularly as they rev up the hill.

Since 2013 I have lived only a few doors up from the roundabout and having to slow or stop to get into the driveway is not far enough past the roundabout to be secure in mind that some speeding idiot won't smash into my car, as has happened a few doors up the road.

It is a rat run for many from Algonia Road and passes not only the places mentioned by the Council on the lower section but, further along, a large school, fire and ambulance station and many elderly people living along it, including another retirement village.

Sometimes for the elderly or mums with children it is difficult trying to cross some side streets and we take our lives in our hands as speedsters race off the main road into these side streets without a second look for anybody on foot.

I ask the Council to do their homework, get the application right and ask for the speed limit to be lowered to 50km from the Channel Highway to the Algonia turnoff, not just to the Redwood Road roundabout, and for warning signs to be painted on the road prior to any side street, but will they listen?

NEW BRIDGEWATER BRIDGE PROJECT

CHANGED TRAFFIC CONDITIONS IN GRANTON AND BRIDGEWATER

Major construction on Tasmania's largest ever transport infrastructure project will start soon.

The existing bridge will stay open, but there will be some traffic changes on either side of the river and in the general area.

To keep the community and our workers safe,
there will be traffic barriers on the Brooker Highway and Main Road, Granton and on the Midland Highway, Bridgewater as well as reduced speed limits.

Please drive to the speed limits, obey traffic controller directions and plan your trip to allow for potential traffic delays.

You can find maps showing the changes and

Community garden continues to grow

Whether it's spuds, carrots, greens, corn or herbs, the gardeners at Kingston Community Garden have a way of beating price rises and are keen to help others do the same.

Spring is the ideal time to get started. Kingston Community Garden president Chris Keen said "We are very lucky to have such a great garden space here in Kingston and we do want to share it with the community as much as possible".

"We have a program of improvements underway and already with the help of a Kingborough Council Grant we have converted an old shed on site to a greenhouse and propagating space, which will also be an ideal space for community workshops."

Chris explains that more garden beds have been added in the past year to keep up with demand.

Membership for the Kingston Community Garden is effectively limited by the number of beds available, there is always some turnover, so it's worth checking availability anytime.

The Community Garden is open to establishing a larger communal ground level bed if there was enough interest from people to share the work and the produce from it.

Garden members would love to meet more people interested in gardening and to hear any ideas about how the Garden could be further developed to benefit the community.

The annual spring seedling sale and open day will be held at the Garden, 12-14 Gormley Drive (near the sportsgrounds), from 10am to 2pm on Sunday, October 16.

The Garden expect to have over 2000 seedlings and over 130 varieties available at the sale.

Peter Brooking from Oyster Cove Social Club presented a $2500 cheque to Edna Pennicott for Loui's Van and Kingborough Helping Hands on Thursday, September 15. The money was raised through raffles held at Oyster Cove Inn every Thursday night and will help those in need in the community. (PS)

Local choirs combine for an afternoon of music

The Cantiamo Ladies Choir presented an afternoon concert on Sunday, September 18.

The Choir has several members from the Kingborough area with special guests The Silvertones; a men's harmony group with members from the local area as well.

Kingston Uniting Church Minister, Reverend Michael Duke was MC and also played violin for several songs. Accompanist on piano was David Carr from Blackmans Bay.

Numbers performed included Elizabethan Serenade as a tribute to the late Queen Elizabeth, I Say a Little Prayer, Tears in Heaven, Dream a Little Dream, You Raise Me Up and more, truly a variety of songs.

The Choir will perform at Carols in the Paddock at Brookfield Shed at Margate on Friday, December, 2 at 4pm.

Idyllic village living with rare ‘village’ zoning

Situated on the picturesque Channel tourist trail, only 45 minutes south of Hobart, this charming original weatherboard property presents rare and valuable potential.

With ‘village’ zoning and commanding just under an acre only a few minutes’ walk from the water’s edge, this property in the past operated as the local post office, now offers endless and varied opportunities.

‘Village’ zoning allows both residential and commercial applications along with attractive sub-division potential STCA.

An ideal proposition for bed and breakfast, visitor centre, café, retail, occasional care, further development or excellent family home.

The home itself has three sunny bedrooms, two living areas or possible fourth bedroom, a central bathroom, and internal laundry.

The large open-plan kitchen and dining room steps out to an undercover veranda with beautiful garden and water views.

The garden itself is very well established with native and ornamental trees and shrubs, flowerbeds, and a myriad of productive fruit trees including apples, pears and lemons.

The outbuildings consist of three sheds, a carport, a garage, and an enormous, four bay garage/workshop with power, adjacent to a large level parking area that would accommodate several further vehicles.

A few minutes’ walk will have you at the delightful Middleton foreshore that overlooks the stunning D’Entrecasteaux Channel to Bruny Island, with beach, boat ramp, jetty, BBQ facilities and children’s playground.

The nearby community centre provides a central community hub and community tennis court.

This property in picturesque Middleton village offers a unique and exciting lifestyle opportunity with endless potential.

Calling all ex-Blackmans Bay and Huntingfield Scouts

Blackmans Bay Scouts Group are celebrating 60 years of scouting in Kingborough.

All past scouts, parents and supporters are invited to join the celebrations on Saturday, October 1 from 2pm to 4pm to help commemorate the occasion. Current scouts will be in action as well as static displays of scouting memorabilia over the years.

There will be a sausage sizzle, bush donuts and damper making, as well as tea and coffee provided. Cutting of the birthday cake will take place at 3pm. Tammy Webster from Blackmans Bay Scout Group welcome all ex-scouts and their families. "Please come along to renew acquaintances, share memories and socialise," said Tammy.

Blackmans Bay Scouts Group are celebrating 60 years of scouting in Kingborough Saturday, October 1. (PS)

Democracy well and truly alive in local government

The announcement from the Tasmanian Electoral Commission that more than 500 candidates have nominated for the October council elections shows that democracy is well and truly alive in Tasmania's local government sector.

Kingborough Council has 16 candidates for Councillor with 10 to be elected, six candidates for Deputy Mayor and two candidates for Mayor.

Across Tasmania there are 97 council candidates that are also standing for mayor, with a further 136 council candidates standing for deputy mayor.

Voting in council elections is now compulsory and it is a postal voting system.

This means you will get your voting pack in the mail, carefully follow the instructions on how to vote, fill out your voting paper and send it back in the post as soon as you can.

Tasmanians will receive their postal ballot packs in about a week's time, with deliveries starting in the week of October 3.

The poll closes at 2pm Tuesday, October 25.

A list of all candidates are available online <https://www.tec.tas.gov.au/local-government/elections-2022/pdf/2022-lg-rptMediaReleaseLG.pdf>

Greens officially open for new Season

With the 2022/33 Bowls South Pennant Season starting in less than a month, Sunday, September 18 saw the official opening of the greens take place at the Kingborough Bowls and Community Club at Margate.

Approximately 60 members and guests attended the event which commenced with lunch after the Mayor of Kingborough, Cr Paula Wriedt officially declared the greens open.

In the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre, club patron John Rosevear rolled the first ‘Jack’ of the season and the Mayor rolled the first bowl before other guests then tried their hand at bowling.

Many members and guests then took part in random draw game of bowls.

Other guests attending on the day included Dean Young MP, David O’Byrne MP, Kingborough Councillors Amanda Midgley and Gideon Cordover.

Various community groups including the Kingborough Tennis Club, Pickle Ball Club, Rotary and Stitch and Share were represented by members from those organisations.

Tuesday Afternoon Fours Competition

In the Tuesday Afternoon Fours Competition in the Donald Hazell Indoor Centre, with one round to go to complete Series Two and with it, the Winter Series, the two top teams are locked together on equal points.

Team Hinkley has a healthy shots up advantage over Harra’s Harem, and are therefore on top of the ladder. Team Hinkley had a draw in Game 1 and Harra’s Harem a loss and that evened their overall points in this penultimate round.

Whilst there were a couple of big wins including Game 1 Team Ashlin by 21 shots and in game 2 Team Duggan by 20, there were only two, two game winning sides including Team Cawthorn (+10) and, with a 12 shot combined winning score (thus achieving “Team of the Week” status) and Team Hickey, comprising lead Allan Sculthorpe, Peter Oates, Maureen Sculthorpe and Fiona Hickey.

The top six places on the competition ladder are occupied in order by Hinkley, Harra’s Harem, Duggan, Cawthorn, Hemmings and Hickey.

Next week’s big encounters are the games of Harra’s Harem vs Ashlin, Hinkley vs Hickey and Cawthorn vs Duggan.

There is only one eighteen ends game to finish the roster to be played, and results of the Hinkley and Harra’s Harem games on the day will determine the overall Series Two winner.

Results of Round 7, Game 1 were: Ashlin defeated Neske 21-0, Duggan and Hinkley drew, Hemmings defeated Lee 12-9, Palmer defeated Harra’s Harem 11-8, Cawthorn defeated Baker 10-5, Chaffey defeated Murray 10-5, Hickey defeated Rosevear 10-6, Pearce defeated Schooling 8-6.

In Game 2, Duggan defeated Chaffey 24-4, Baker defeated Pearce 11-2, Cawthorn defeated Palmer 13-8, Rosevear defeated Murray 11-2, Schooling defeated Lee 9-7, Hickey defeated Neske 16-8, Harra’s Harem defeated Hemmings 10-8 and Hinkley defeated Ashlin 16-6.

Wednesday Evening Fours Competition

In the final night of competition in the Wednesday Evening Fours Competition, the top of the ladder Left Overs played in the final against second placed Better Performance only to have the tables turned on them when Better Performance over ran them in the final to win on the night 16 shots to 8 shots.

Better Performance on the night consisted of Daniel Holland, Jason Ayres, Robbie Wallace and Tony Rowe.

In the Leftovers was Heath Seabourne, Anthony Sculthorpe, Vicki Bannister and Mike Westlake.

Playing off for third and fourth place in the competition saw the South Africans topple Second Shot in their final, 16 shots to 11.

In other games played on the night saw a close game between the Pee Bees and the Cherry Pickers with the Pee Bees winning 14-13.

Team Pearce again played well defeating His and Hers 19-8 and the Soggy Biscuits dominated the game against the Dynamics defeating them 18-10.

Team Better Performance, winners of the Second Round Wednesday Night Fours Competition. Daniel Holland, Jason Ayres, Robbie Wallace and Tony Rowe. (PS)

Spring Fun Day

Around 80 horses and riders turned out for the Huntingfield Pony and Riding Club Spring Show and Show Jumping Fun Day on Sunday, September 11.

The show is normally an annual event but hasn't been held for a couple of years due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Riders and their equine friends competed in show riding and show jumping classes, many for the first time.

The show was held at the Huntingfield Pony and Riding Club grounds at 152 Howden Road, Howden, which is part of the Peter Murrell Conservation area, and coincided with the death of Queen Elizabeth who was an avid horsewoman herself, something not lost on the Show's organisers.

Club District Commissioner, Nicole Wells, said "It was obvious how much the Queen loved her horses.

"Having a relationship with a horse is a very special opportunity and that's something we like our riders to recognise."

Ms Wells thanked the show organisers, Miriam Vandenberg, Ulli Porter and Jo Green, for the work they undertook to put on a fabulous spring horse show for children and adults alike.
