

An aerial view of the reconstruction to Kingston's CBD shows the proposed bike lanes, wider footpaths and freshly established flora. (PS)

The reconstruction of Kingston's CBD along the Channel Highway from Hutchins Street to Freeman Street will begin on Tuesday 14 February.

Kingborough Mayor, Paula Wriedt said in 2023 our community would see Kingston's CBD transformed into an inviting destination with improved pedestrian access for all.

"The upgrades will provide improved cycling facilities, create new green areas throughout the CBD and create outdoor dining opportunities for cafes and restaurants along the main strip," Cr Wriedt said.

"Improvements to the Channel Highway will include building a new bus interchange at 40 Channel Highway.

"This will involve demolishing the current building on that site.

"The bus interchange will be located on the corner of Goshawk Way and Channel Highway and will take Hobart bound buses off the highway, freeing up more parking and enhancing the commuting experience for travellers.

"Whilst the bus interchange is being built, a few all-day parking spots will be unavailable in the John Street carpark due to the expanded building site.

"The entry and exit points to John Street carpark will also be relocated to Goshawk Way.

"Skipper Lane carpark, located about 4 minutes' walk away, has 152 all day carparking spaces available, which we are confident will be able to absorb any loss in parking from John Street carpark.

"Upgrades to the CBD will also include improving the south bound bus area on Channel Highway.

"A new bus shelter will enhance commuter experiences traveling south.

"To speed up overall construction and save costs on the street upgrade, a small section of the Channel Highway, from John Street to Hutchins Street will be closed to traffic at the end of February, for approximately 10 weeks.

"Although traffic will be restricted, pedestrians will have access to all the businesses and services on the Channel Highway during construction.

"Due to the upgraded road network around central Kingston, Council is confident that traffic disruption will be kept to a minimum.

"Traffic will be able to travel around the CBD via Goshawk Way, John Street and Church Street.

"Whilst the Channel Highway is closed, there will be alternative bus stops opened on Church Street outside and opposite Kingston Primary School, for both inbound and outbound commuters.

"Commuters who want to travel on Metro bus routes 407, 408, 409, 427, 428, 429 and X08 will need to use the inbound and outbound Metro Bus stops on Church Street.

"Anyone wishing to travel on a Tassielink Transit to and from Huon Valley or Hobart that catches the bus from Channel Hwy main bus stop will need to relocate to the Church Street bus stops.

"There will be signage placed at all these bus stops, with prior warning for commuters.

"Our aim is to transform Kingston's CBD from a car-centric main road to an attractive and vibrant centre that will attract further investment and provide an engaging urban environment for our residents and visitors.

"Please continue to support all of the businesses along Channel Highway throughout the construction period and be reassured that access to the restaurants, cafes, health practitioners and businesses in the area will remain for pedestrians," urged Mayor Wriedt.

Parking is available at Channel Court for shopping, John Street Carpark, and the Skipper Lane Carpark for customers in the Kingston area.

The design agreed by Kingborough Council includes the following features:

- More street trees and vegetation
- Bike lane for southern bound cyclists
- 3 metre wide footpaths
- Extra parking spaces on the street
- Relocation of the City bound bus off the main road
- Enhanced seating and shelters for bus commuters

- New zebra crossings for greater pedestrian safety
- Traffic calming measures
- Central median island with streetlights and CCTV
- Street furniture and street art
- Road surface raised at the Hutchins Street intersection to improve accessibility and slow traffic down

Councillors agreed to award the contract for the CBD upgrade to BlackCap Construction at the Council Meeting on the 19 December 2022.

For more detailed plans and design, please visit Council website.

Improving cycling facilities in the heart of Kingston will provide an "engaging urban environment," said Cr Wriedt. (PS)

Snug Village aged care facility in final stages

Christian Homes Tasmania (CHT) are in the final stages of completion of a purpose-built Day Centre and an extension and redevelopment to their Snug Village Residential Aged Care Facility.

This will be a timely addition to the services CHT offer the community after the recent announcement that Manor Gardens Day Centre at Kingston is to close. Many who currently utilise the services of Manor Gardens will likely welcome this alternative service. Snug Village Day Centre will provide vital opportunities for clients to socialise with new friends, group activities and outings, meals and respite for loved ones. Snug Village is a short, pleasant drive south for clients, transport to and from the Day Centre will also be available through Community Transport Services Tasmania (CTST) and in the future CHT will also be providing transport to the Day Centre.

Christian Homes has been providing Aged Care within this community for 50 years and says they will continue to build and invest for the future of the Kingborough Community. As many would be aware staffing is one of the biggest challenges being faced in the current climate and CHT highlighted that they are working hard to attract and retain staff to ensure the Day Centre is able to open as soon possible. Hawthorn and Snug Villages are very well known and respected locally as quality Residential Aged Care facilities, however CHT also provide Home Care and Independent Living Villages. Adding a Day Centre is a natural progression for CHT in its provision of service to the community. CHT welcomes enquiries for those interested in the services on offer as the Day Centre nears its completion date.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

DA for 4 storey building

Dear Editor,
Most readers of the Chronicle would be aware that Traders in Purple is the private company engaged by Kingborough Council to work with Council on the development of Kingston Park.
One day before Invasion Day, on the 25 January 2023, Traders in Purple lodged a Development Application with Kingborough Council.
DA-2022-480 puts forward a plan to build a four storey commercial office and retail building in the Kingston Park area.
To the best of my knowledge this DA has received little publicity.
The exception is an article in the 'The Classifieds' on 2 February 2023.
If you are reading this letter in the Kingborough Chronicle on Tuesday February 7, the opportunity to lodge a submission on the DA expires at COB Wednesday February 8.
Kingborough residents deserved more time to lodge a submission, but this time is statutory.
It cannot be changed.
If 3 or more submissions opposing the DA are received then the matter must go to Councillors for a decision.

Council acts as a Planning Authority in that case.
If the proposed building is built it will dominate the northern end of Kingston Park and the surrounding area.
It will stick out like a sore thumb.
In my opinion we deserve better.

Jane Wilson

The name defines

Dear Editor,
In response to David Tulip's letter I prefer the retention of the name "Southern Outlet". Reason: the name defines where to find this important thoroughfare.
If a name change were to be considered I would strongly recommend "Settlers Way" honouring the men and women who forged this country with their blood, sweat and tears to provide present generations with a truly great nation.

West Winds wants to know what the community would like to see happening in their local area. Photo of community barbecue 2022. (PS Trina Blazely)

Locals have their say on Kingborough arts

West Winds Community Centre started the year by asking the community what activities and events they'd like to see happening in their local area.

The 2023 community arts and culture program will be shaped by feedback from the 'Creative Channel Connections Community Survey' call out during January and February.

"We're encouraging people to share their views on what activities they think are important to local life," said Stephanie Shoebridge, Community Arts and Culture Project Officer at West Winds.

"It's early days after the launch of the survey and yet we've had enthusiastic responses from parents, students, staff, volunteers and community members participating.

The survey is still open but the feedback coming in has already revealed a strong interest in 'resilience making' creative workshops, 'living mindfully' and exploring 'arts therapy' opportunities.

"It's showing us more clearly than ever what an essential role the arts play in daily life, confirming the significant and increasing personal value Channel residents place on the impact of the arts, and the ways in which they make our communities stronger and more cohesive," said Stephanie.

ive," said Stephanie.

The current feedback has also revealed a desire for beautifying local communal spaces, invigorating a renewed sense of social connection whilst honouring natural heritage, or 'ecoliteracy'.

Ecoliteracy is the understanding of how to create sustainable human communities.

"Sustainable programming has a strong focus to our efforts here at West Winds," said Stephanie.

"We aim to harness the wealth of talented local creatives, provide support and development to facilitators and inspire the community to work together on events and projects."

Musical pursuits have also ranked highly in the survey results so far, with expressive voice, building a shared community culture of singing and playing together, supporting bands and recordings being suggested.

Michael Yates, Manager at West Winds Community Centre said, "West Winds is actively fostering new support networks as we look ahead to the creative challenges of recovering and rebuilding after lockdowns."

If you want to get involved, have input or share your experiences and ideas, take the survey at www.surveymonkey.com/r/West-Winds-Community-Survey

Consultations over Landscape Conservation Zone

Kingborough Council will host two information sessions for community members about the proposed Landscape Conservation Zone (LCZ).

The LCZ is a planning scheme for the protection, conservation and management of landscape values.

This can be applied to land such as bushland areas, large areas of native vegetation, or areas of important scenic values.

Kingborough Mayor Paula Wriedt said the Tasmanian Government is moving all councils to a single Planning Scheme, known as the Tasmanian Planning Scheme.

"In Kingborough, we are moving from 33 existing zones to 30 new zones, and implementing a suite of new codes," Cr Wriedt said.

"One of the new zones which has not existed before is the Landscape Conservation Zone.

"Some Councils have already converted to new Tasmanian Planning Scheme, some are in the process of engaging communities about it and some, like Kingborough, are still busy finalising the zoning and are yet to be given approval by the State Government to start a formal consultation with the community about the proposed changes.

"Although Kingborough has not been given the go ahead to start formal consultation by the State Government, some community members have expressed a need to receive more information about the Landscape Conservation Zone.

"Due to the heightened interest in this zone change, Council wants to provide an opportunity for community members to come and talk to Council's Planners about the new zone and the process going forward.

"Two public information sessions have been organised to discuss the Landscape Conservation Zone.

"The first will be at Margate Hall, on Tuesday 21 February from 5.30 to 7.30pm, and the second on Friday 24 February from 12pm to 2pm at the Kingborough Community Hub, Middleton room.

"Individual 15-minute appointments with a Council Planning Officer can be booked by property owners who think they may be affected by the LCZ.

"If anyone is unable to attend these public sessions, they can contact Council's Customer Service team to make an appointment outside of these dates.

"There will be further consultation at a later date, but these two sessions are being offered now to provide the community with an additional opportunity to talk to our Planning staff.

To book please visit Council's website and follow the prompts.

Australia Day at Adventure Bay 2023

The Bruny Island Bowls and Community Club again hosted 'Australia Day at Adventure Bay' celebrations on Thursday, 26 January 2023. The event, in its second year, has undoubtedly brought a tangibly positive vibe and enthusiasm into the Bruny Community and greatly assisted in the revitalisation of the businesses and economy of the Island. An exciting and varied line up of bands, singers and children's entertainment ensured that there were fun and interactive activities for the whole family. The Blues Brothers Revival Band head lined the live music acts, which also included Australian Made, Mezzanine, The Great Anticipaters and The Firmm. Families with children were well catered for with entertainment which included a magic show, puppets, arts and crafts, face painting, tattooist, games and Rookie Rollers. A fabulous ice-cream and donut van also proved to be extremely popular. A multitude of food and refreshments which catered for all tastes was available and proved hugely popular with all those in attendance. Rob Pennicott, of Pennicott Wilderness Journeys, once again brought patrons from Hobart to Bruny on a tour which incorporated viewing first-hand the wonderful natural features of Bruny Island. Many enthusiastic volunteers from far and wide fully embraced this event and were instrumental in its outstanding success. Bruny bowls and Community Club were sure that for many of the visitors to the island the 'Australia Day at Adventure Bay' experience was the pinnacle of their holiday itinerary.

Ready for work

This summer, Kingborough Council hosted a training course to better prepare young residents for work.

Mayor Paula Wriedt said the course was included in the School Holiday Program and provided training in first aid, barista, Responsible Serving of Alcohol, CV writing and interview techniques.

“Our Getting Ready for Work courses are always hugely successful and well attended,” Cr Wriedt said.

“This summer’s participants gained skills in coffee making and, very importantly, learnt skills to help them secure a job - how to answer interview questions and prepare their CVs.

“The students are very fortunate to have the experience and direction of VET teacher and trainer of the year finalist, Roy Classey.

“Roy has been leading these courses for a few years now and passes on a wealth of knowledge and experience to the students.”

Cr Wriedt said it was a good way for young community members to learn valuable skills that will enable ‘real-world’ outcomes for a positive future in the workforce.

Dementia Friendly open to all

Dementia Friendly Tasmania are holding monthly dementia cafés and also art and craft afternoons again this year, beginning in February.

All people are welcome and encouraged to attend these events which provide an opportunity to chat and make new friends over a cuppa in a friendly supportive atmosphere.

People living with dementia and their families and carers are invited to attend and mix with the knowledge that they will be accepted and supported.

Dementia Friendly Tasmania is supported by Kingston RSL and Kingborough Council to provide the dementia cafés at Kingston RSL.

Anne Jones, vice president of DFT said "In 2022 the café, was enjoyed by a varied group of people, with families bringing children during school holidays, and people travelling from out of area to enjoy the café."

Dementia cafés provide an opportunity to learn about support services and local activities, with volunteers available to assist and support everyone to enjoy morning tea and friendly conversations.

Previously the art and craft afternoons were held quarterly, with attendees asking for them more regularly as they provide another opportunity for time to mix and chat in a friendly, supportive atmosphere over afternoon tea and art or craft if inspired to do so.

Playing sport is an integral component of building healthy physical and mental wellbeing in our kids, not to mention all the fun to be had learning new skills, being part of a team and making lifelong friends. Come and play AFL with the Kingborough Tigers Junior and Youth Football Club. They offer Auskick as well as teams for boys and girls from U8 - U16. Follow them on Facebook 'Kingborough Tigers Juniors' or visit their website kingboroughtigersjfc.org.au for more details. Registrations for Season 2023 are now open. (PS)

Kingborough Real Estate Guide

Immaculate, modern Blackmans Bay home

Look no further than this beauty, seven years young and nothing for you to do.
This beautifully maintained four-bedroom Blackmans Bay home has much to offer.
The spacious living/dining area is light and airy, with a heat pump for winter comfort, and flows through sliding glass doors to the large covered entertaining and outdoor courtyard area.
Striking and spacious, the kitchen has a gas cooktop, glass splashback window, plenty of cupboards and a handy breakfast bar.
There is also a roomy walk-in pantry.
In the pantry there is also a bench and power point for the everyday appliances like your toaster and kettle, leaving the kitchen benches clear and uncluttered.
The laundry is accessed from the kitchen and has bench space for sorting and folding washing.
There are also overhead cupboards and a large linen cupboard for extra storage.
Four generous sized bedrooms, all with built-in wardrobes, are serviced by the family bathroom, and powder room.

The spacious bathroom has a large shower, and freestanding bath, and there's a handy linen cupboard in the hallway nearby.
The backyard is fully fenced with child-safe locks, and there are double gates for vehicle access from the side street.
With plenty of room for a sandpit, trampoline and even a veggie garden, this backyard is perfect for families.
This home is located just a few doors from toddler friendly Burwood Reserve, a short walk to public transport, and the huge Peter Murrell Reserve, for families to enjoy walking and mountain biking.
And of course beautiful Blackmans Bay Beach, and headland walking tracks are close by.
Just a few minutes' drive to Hill Street Grocer and Banjo's at the local Blackmans Bay shops, and a little further you'll find local state and private schools.
Doctors, supermarkets and all the amenities at Kingston are just 10 mins away.
Extremely well maintained and very low maintenance, this property represents great value in the current market.
