Eat and shop local competition

ISSUE No. 675

Kingborough Council is running a competition to encourage everyone to eat and shop local at the restaurants, takeaways and businesses along the closed section of Channel Highway.

The competition opened last week and runs until 11pm on Sunday, April 30.

Kingborough Acting Mayor Clare Glade-Wright said she hoped the amazing prize incentives will encourage more people to eat and shop locally whilst the road is being upgraded.

"We are halfway through the road closure period, so we see this as a great way to motivate people to continue to shop at their favourite takeaways and restaurants," Cr Glade-Wright said.

"We also hope it will encourage more people to visit these premises with the chance of securing a great prize.

"We are giving away fourawesome prizes at the end of the month.

"Each prize consists of vouchers worth $550 from a range of businesses along the closed section of Channel Highway.

"The businesses involved in the competition rely very heavily on foot traffic in the area, so we have focused on incentivising customers to visit them.

"All you need to do to participate in the competition is shop at one or more of the businesses listed below, put your name and phone number on the back of a receipt and pop it into the specially marked boxes.

"We also encourage you to post a photo of your purchase and tag the business on Facebook with the hashtag #Kingston EatLocalCompetition.

"You can enter as many times as you like. "Four winners will be drawn at the Kingborough Civic Centre on Monday, May 1 at 3pm and announced on Council's social media pages and website within five days of the draw.

- Businesses involved include these below: Unpacked
- Zala Hair
- Banjo's Kingston
- Dave's Noodles Kingston
- LivEat Kingston Young's Table
- Boss Burger
- Tsubame Sushi Train
- Kingston Fish and Chips
- Maxie Coffee
- Chopsticks Restaurant

The Indie School Kingston had its official opening on Thursday, March 30. Board member Chris Todd and Indie School State Principal Nic Page officially opened the school with staff and students from the Indie Schools Glenorchy, Sorell and Kingston in attendance as well as parents, families and community members. The school caters for young adults from 15-19 years of age who have difficulty engaging with mainstream educational contexts. Pictured are teachers Aaron Benham and Tracey Jacobsen, head of school Sandra Paine, welfare office Amber Gills and teacher Matt Woolley. (%)

Easter egg drive for locals in need

Thanks to the generosity of Blackmans Bay Primary School (BBPS) students and families, Easter will be brighter for locals in need.

Over two weeks, the Blackmans Bay Primary School Student Representative Council (SRC) collected Easter eggs to be donated to Jireh House women's Jireh House, 24-hour crisis accommodation, provides support for local women and children made homeless due to domestic violence and other life crises.

Sadly, there will be a number of women and children needing to stay at Jireh House during Easter.

Easter eggs are often a luxury these women and children cannot afford.

The great response from BBPS community means no one missed out on Easter Sunday.

The Easter egg drive continues to be a simple and very tangible way for students to demonstrate kindness and care for our community that has a huge impact on the recipients.

New principal Penny Wilde and her administrative team supported the annual Easter egg drive, now in its eighth year.

The Easter eggs will be distributed among the families staying at Jireh House over Easter.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Avoidable tragedy

Dear Editor,

Minister for Infrastructure and Transport Michael Ferguson said dangerous drivers who break the law, risking their life and others, are on notice.

I think the Over is Over campaign is great.

I agree every death and serious injury is an avoidable tragedy.

Our 26-year-old son Matt was killed by a 61-year-old negligent driver who never should have had a licence (the actions of that person destroyed our lives)

If this campaign saves more families going through what we are going through I will be more than pleased. I would like to talk to Mr Ferguson regarding our

Shame can be fatal

Dear Editor,

How brilliant to see the trans pride flag being flown outside Council.

It's wonderful to see such a symbolic act of commitment to inclusion and diversity, especially at a time when trans identities seem to be up for discussion and attack from

If you're reading this or seeing the flag and wondering why pride is important, consider this; the opposite of pride is shame, and shame can be fatal.

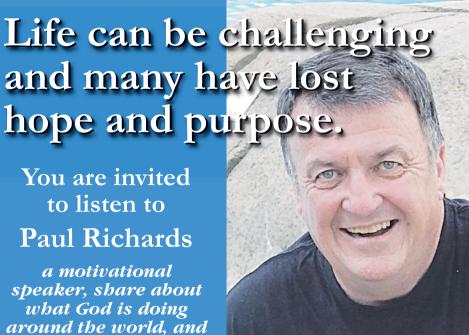

I want all trans people in our community to be safe, loved, and be able to live lives full of joy.

I hope Council's Action Plan is a positive piece of the puzzle to achieve this in Kingborough.

Seasonal walks to stay healthy

Kingborough Mayor Paula Wriedt welcomed the annual calendar of seasonal walks offered as part of Council's positive ageing program.

"Getting out into nature is such a great way to stay healthy and Kingborough has many excellent short and easy walks," Cr Wriedt said.

"The walks are specifically chosen for their easiness as well as what they offer in terms of local flora and uniqueness "The final locations are yet to be set but we have arranged the dates for this year."

The autumn seasonal walk will take place from 10.30am-12.30pm on Wednesday, 26 April.

The winter walk is scheduled for June 14, the spring walk for September 30 and the summer walk for

Improvements made to Tasmanian health system

Latest data indicates an improvement with more Tasmanians receiving the health care they need, and sooner.

The elective surgery wait-list is at its lowest level since 2017.

The outpatient waiting list has also continued to decrease. Latest data also shows improvements in the number of Emergency Department patients seen on time, with the average waiting time also improving.

"These positive results across the health system are not an accident, and my thanks goes to every one of our hardworking clinicians and health care staff who turn up each and every day to care for Tasmanians," said Premier and Minister for Health Jeremy Rockliff.

Support for community gardens

More than $90,000 will be distributed to 21 Neighbourhood Houses around Tasmania to establish or enhance their community gardens.

The Tasmanian Neighbourhood Houses Community Garden Grants Program provides funding to maintain, grow and establish community gardens.

Liberal Member for Franklin Dean Young said these grants will help Neighbourhood Houses purchase equipment so their community gardens can flourish.

"Community gardens, like those at the Neighbourhood Houses in my electorate of Franklin, provide opportunities for people to come together, make connections, access healthy food, connect with the environment, and develop valuable skills,"

"A Tasmanian-first, the grants program addresses the important health and wellbeing benefits associated with community gardens and is a pillar of our approach to supporting food resilience in Tasmania.

"With cost-of-living pressures increasing, community gardens can play an important role in providing fresh, nutritious food to Tasmanians who need help.

"Community gardens also play an important role supporting local communities to build self-sufficiency - a key priority for the Government under Tasmania's first-ever Food Security Strategy, released in 2021."

A full list of the successful applicants will be available.

Starfish Nippers hit the waves

Sunday, March 26 was the final session of the Southern Region Starfish Nippers program which ran across summer at Kingston Beach, Clifton and Carlton Park.

Surf Life Saving Tasmania (SLST) partnered with Variety Tasmania to provide Tasmanian kids living with disability the opportunity to take part in swimming, catching waves, beach runs and exercises just like other surf lifesavers do. Starfish Nippers is a modified Nippers program suitable for children and their siblings (from five years old) who find themselves capable but challenged by the requirements of mainstream junior Surf Life Saving programs. This is the second year this program has been run.

Over 40 volunteers attended the day, with 15 of them being from Kingston Beach Surf Live Saving Club (KBSLSC) All volunteer lifesavers were buddled up with a child living with a disability.

"It is a great demonstration of what could be achieved when likeminded organisations join forces to provide children with all abilities the chance to participate in activities and experiences," said CEO of Variety Tasmania Mohammad Aldergham.

Co-coordinator of the Southern Region Starfish Nippers program Bridget Fasnacht said "Starfish Nippers is all about encouraging children to feel safe in the water in a supported environment".

"The beach is not a scary place, it is there to be enjoyed and we are there to support these children on their jourev." Bridget said.

"I am delighted to see that we have record numbers participating in the program this year and I am looking forward to seeing the program being run at several Surf Life Saving clubs around the state this summer."

An amazing transformation

Perfectly positioned close to beautiful Kingston, Boronia and Blackmans Bay beaches, this substantial strata-titled home has been stylishly reimagined and refurbished to create modern and enviable living in a spectacular lifestyle location.

A flexible floorplan sees the master bedroom with ensuite privately located at ground level yet still with water views, offering good separation for parents, older children, or ideal guest accommodation.

Upstairs, the very generous, open-plan living with enormous floor to ceiling windows boasts beautiful views to the sandy shores of Kingston Beach and all along the Derwent to South Arm and beyond.

The brand-new kitchen has soft-close draws and cabinetry, attractive subway tiling, a striking, black double sink, induction cooktop, dishwasher and a huge stone-topped island bench featuring a waterfall finish to each end.

The adjacent dining area provides access to the sunny, north-east facing concrete deck.

Two further, good-sized bedrooms are on this level, both have built-in wardrobes, and the stunning central bathroom has a double vanity, floor-to-ceiling tiles and a rainwater shower head for that added touch of luxury.

The laundry offers additional storage and there's convenient external access to the fully fenced, low-maintenance rear garden and new washing line.

There's a garage with under house storage and enough off-street parking for three additional vehicles, surrounded by freshly mulched gardens.

A prime location to enjoy the vibrant Kingston Beach scene, with restaurants, cafés and walking tracks, and only a few minutes' drive to the Kingston shopping precinct, schools and extensive facilities.

A great renovation and a great place to live, call today!

POSITIVE AGEING FOR SENIORS

Enjoy peace of mind

Many Tasmanians are leaving themselves vulnerable to the unexpected.

Did you know that 30 per cent of Tasmanians over the age of 30 and almost 50 per cent of Tasmanian families with children under the age of 18 do not have a will?

Having an up-to-date will that clearly sets out your wishes can make life easier for your family, including children and grandchildren, while you enjoy peace of mind knowing your affairs are secure and your wishes for your family and loved ones are legally protected should the unexpected happen.

Many legal firms like Simmons Wolfhagen Lawyers in Kingston offer affordable will and estate planning packages that can include simple and complex wills, power of attorney and enduring guardianship documentation.

So, no matter what stage of life you're in or if you become incapacitated, you can take comfort knowing you've appointed someone you trust to make decisions about your financial affairs or medical treatment and lifestyle issues with your best interest at heart.

Protect the ones you love.

Make time for a will.

This can result in an increased need for preventive. restorative and periodontal dental care.

Some of these conditions can lead to impaired chewing, inadequate nutrition and deteriorating quality of life. Tooth loss, for example, can alter your choices of food and fresh fruit and vegetables are often avoided.

It can also lead to difficulty speaking and even a lower self-esteem.

There is increasing evidence of the association of periodontal disease with chronic conditions, including diabetes, heart disease and stroke.

TUESDAY, 11 APRIL, 2023 KINGBOROUGH CHRONICLE - 15

As the trusted name in retirement living for more than 15 years, we understand your changing needs and can assure you an easier, more affordable lifestyle so you can focus on the things you love. In fact, we frequently hear the only regret our new residents have is not moving sooner!

At Oak Tree, we don't just build villages, we build communities. Our caring and boutique-sized communities mean you're not a number. People will know your name, including our management team and you'll be surrounded by likeminded neighbours with shared interests at a similar stage of life. Be as social as you like knowing that a helping hand is always close by and that you never have to be alone. We also understand the importance that pets can play in our lives and Oak Tree is one of the few operators who openly welcome furry friends.

From the Community Centre, gardens, lounge and library to the bowling green, you can live life your way within a secure, gated environment. You'll find that regular village and community activities help to meet new people, while your friends and family are also welcome to visit and share in the many benefits of the village.

At Oak Tree we take great pride in providing affordable and thoughtful retirement living solutions. We genuinely care about your future and look forward to helping you live the life you have worked so hard to achieve, we'll be here for you every step of the way.

Talk to Jude our Village Manager today to find out how you can call Oak Tree Kingston home.

Lunch and listen with Windex Ability Hearing and Balance is partnering up with leading Danish manufacturer Widex to demonstrate their latest hearing aid innovation in a realworld café situation.

The state-of-the-art Sheer Moment hearing has revolutionised the way people with hearing loss can experience

This remarkable hearing aid boasts a host of features that make it stand out from other hearing aids.

One of the most notable features of the Widex Sheer Moment hearing aid is its advanced signal-processing technology.

The hearing aid uses artificial intelligence to analyse and classify sounds in real-time, allowing for a more personalised and natural listening experience.

Another standout feature of the Sheer Moment Hearing aid is its ergonomic design.

The hearing aid is sleek and discreet, making it comfortable and unobtrusive to wear so no-one has to know you are wearing hearing aids.

Ability Hearing and Balance is hosting a lunch and listen event where you can try out the Sheer Moment Hearing aid for yourself.

A specialist audiologist from Widex will be on hand to answer any questions you have about the product.

Spaces are strictly limited. See our ad for how to reserve your spot.

Local audiologists Nick and Heidi Modrovich are the owners of Ability Hearing and Balance in Channel Court, Kingston. (PS)

Dementia friendly café open to all

Dementia Friendly Tasmania's events are open to everyone and provide an opportunity to develop an awareness and understanding of those living with dementia and foster the development of dementia-friendly communities.

The monthly Dementia Café, and Activities and Craft Afternoon is assisting families and carers in Kingborough and beyond by providing options for getting together over morning or afternoon tea in a safe, supportive atmosphere.

These activities and our twice-yearly Singalong at Timeless Wav enable carers and their family member or client to make friends with others and enjoy different activities.

The Dementia Café, supported by Kingborough Council,

Kingston RSL and the Kingston Library is open the second Friday of each month from 9.30 am until 12noon at the Kingston RSL on Beach Road in Kingston Beach. Volunteers and committee members are there to assist, and often there is a guest speaker or a musician to provide entertainment. The Activities, Craft and Art Afternoon is held at the Community Hall in Redwood Road Kingston from 1pm until 3.30pm on the third Wednesday of each month. Those attending enjoy chatting or trying some different crafts or activities or they bring a craft they are already working on.

See our ad for registration details.

Christian Homes Tasmania establishes foundation committee

After 50 years of service to the aged residents of Kingborough, Christian Homes Tasmania (CHT) has established a foundation to underpin its future growth needs in southern Tasmania.

In announcing the establishment of the foundation, CHT President Mark Hochman said he was particularly pleased CHT had secured former government Senate Leader Hon Eric Abetz as Chair along with real estate doyen

"Both Eric and Hank are highly regarded and bring a wealth of experience and expertise and together with their fellow committee members, Klaas Laning, Henk van Beelen, Natalie Verdouw, Ashley Dales and Skye Drake will help CHT deliver the facilities needed to enable CHT to build for the future," Mr Hochman said.

CHT operates two residential facilities in Blackmans Bay (Hawthorn Village) and Snug (Snug Village) and 170 independent living units over six complexes throughout Kingborough and one at Roches Beach.

In serving its residents CHT employs over 200 people with a financial turn-over just under $20M per year.

community fabric in providing care for our aged on Christian principles," said Mr Hochman.

"The mammoth volunteer effort underpinning CHT's delivery of service to the community was highlighted by CHT volunteer Christine Sward being acknowledged as the National Aged Care Volunteer of the Year in 2022 by the peak aged care body Aged & Community Care Providers Association.

"CHT's vision is to continue to grow its facilities to meet the demand for the provision of Christian-based care for the aged in our community which is why the foundation's establishment will be an important adjunct in fulfilling this vision." Mr Abetz said he was pleased to be able to serve the local community in this role.

"Aged care is capital intensive with the provision of facilities vital to ensuring the quality of care delivered to our residents." Mr Abetz said.

"I look forward to working with the community in raising the much-needed funds to continue the growth of CHT's vision." CHT has deductible gift recipient (DGR) status from the Australian Taxation Office meaning donations of $2 or more are tax-deductible

Christian Homes Tasmania Home Care offers its clients a range of excursions. (PS)

Clients enjoy outings to such locations as the Salmon Ponds, Seawall Café at Kettering, Risdon Brook Dam and the ever-popular Willies Smiths Apple Shed. (PS)
