

Tough toddler fighting cancer

Last month Tyler and Alix Richardson suddenly left for Melbourne to take their one-year-old son Harris to a children's hospital for cancer treatment.

Harris has undergone his first round of chemotherapy and is responding well so far.

Family friend Patrick Marshall set up a GoFundMe page for the Richardsons with the aim to raise $60,000 to help cover their mortgage and any other unforeseen costs.

Neither parent can work whilst Harris is being treated.

Tyler is the Head of Metal, Design and Technology at Taroona High School.

The family received such overwhelming support that they have suspended further donations after a staggering $167,670 was raised.

They now ask if you would like to donate to contribute to Red Kite and Challenge as their preferred charities instead.

Patrick Marshall said Harris is "Thriving like the legend he is".

"We've still got a long road ahead, but it's so amazing to see his tumour shrinking already and his pain easing.

"Seeing that bloody smile return to his face is the best thing imaginable.

"Words can't express the thanks we have for you all donating and the words of support; it's incredibly humbling."

Car thief trapped in Kingston garage

Police have charged a 26-year-old man from Geeveston with motor vehicle stealing, attempted carjacking, aggravated burglary and driving offences after he was arrested at a residence in Kingston last week.

Around 8.00pm on Monday, August 28 the man reportedly stole a maroon Subaru Forester from Huonville before driving at speed on the Huon Highway towards Sandfly and Kingston.

He was allegedly involved in several incidents along the highway before being located by police in the garage of a Kingston residence.

The man was reportedly attempting to steal another car from the residence's garage but instead accidentally trapped himself inside.

Thankfully, no one was injured as a result of the incidents.

The man appeared in Hobart Magistrates Court on Tuesday, August 29.

Kingston Police Inspector Colin Riley recommends that anyone with information or relevant dash cam footage should contact Kingston Police on 131 444 or on Crime Stoppers at www.crimestopperstas.com.au

Cancelled bus services

Last week Metro Tasmania cancelled 26 services every day that will affect Kingborough travellers as part of their 'temporary service adjustments'.

The main routes impacted in Kingborough are: X01, X07, X13, 407, 408, 412, 413, 415, 426, 429, 500.

"While I appreciate that there is a shortage of bus drivers, I hope these service changes are only temporary and don't become permanent, as they will impact our residents who live in all areas, but particularly the Channel," Kingborough Mayor Paula Wriedt said.

Voice campaigners in Margate

Yes23, the campaign for an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Voice to Parliament enshrined in the Australian Constitution, hit the streets of Margate for a day of door-to-door conversations.

The team of Yes23 volunteers were joined by Federal Labor Member for Franklin Julie Collins MP and Labor Senator Catryna Bilyk.

On October 14 Australians will have the opportunity to vote on whether Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people should be recognised in the Constitution through a Voice to Parliament.

Senator Bilyk said the doorknocking campaign was about providing a greater understanding of the referendum, what is proposed and why it is being held.

"The team of Yes23 volunteers were able to speak to hundreds of Margate residents and enjoyed getting out and about in the town I was raised in as a child," Senator Bilyk said.

"Through these conversations we found that people still have a lot of questions about the referendum.

Sadly, there is a lot of misinformation around about the referendum proposal, and the benefit of these conversations was to clarify what is actually proposed and answer questions.

"We were able to explain that the idea for the Voice did not come from politicians, but from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander leaders and elders as the result of many years of work and countless conversations throughout their communities.

"We were also able to explain that the Voice was about recognising Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, listening to them and getting better results on closing the gap in disadvantages faced by Indigenous people."

Federal Member for Franklin Julie Collins said the referendum is about recognition, listening and better results for all Australians.

"This is our opportunity to recognise 65,000 years of history, tradition, and culture," said Ms Collins.

"It was a privilege to volunteer alongside a team of Yes23 volunteers in our electorate and help to answer questions on what voting yes is all about.

"The result of this referendum will not affect many of us but for those that it will impact a yes result will improve lives and opportunities."

The team of Yes23 volunteers were joined by Federal Labor Member for Franklin Julie Collins MP and Labor Senator Catryna Bilyk. (PS)

Support for quoll habitat

The Tramway Hill Landcare Group (THLG) recently spent nine hours working on the Tramway Hill Reserve.

One of the issues under discussion included the federally funded Saving Native Species (Priority Species) grant and the possibility of THLG using it to incorporate more quoll habitat on the reserve.

Multiple possible sites for the construction of quoll habitats have been identified.

The presence of the weed Kunzea ericoides (burgan) was confirmed.

This plant is easily confused with the native tea-tree.

Cat management, camera monitoring of the reserve and the possible removal of fences that hinder free movement of native animals from adjacent bushland were also discussed.

Rubbish removed from the site included lengths of electric fence tape, torn plastic tree guards, general plastic and a broken folding table and chairs that was left in the shelter.

Susan Quinnell, who will be heading up the quoll habitat project, feels she will be unable to complete a grant application by the due date of September 7.

THLG is looking for any organisation or person who can assist with grant writing.

Should the grant not be submitted, THLG will assess where else assistance can be sought to progress this project.

Acute care conference

The Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation (ANMF) Tasmanian Branch and Health Education and Research Centre (HERC) acute care conference will be held Tuesday, October 17.

The conference is open to the public, those working in the field and aspiring to work in acute care.

It is thoughtfully curated to empower attendees with insights and innovative approaches.

With great networking opportunities attendees are invited to 'join the conversation' as industry leaders share their knowledge and the latest contemporary clinical research about the rapidly expanding field of acute care.

Guest speakers have diverse specialties with a comprehensive exploration of the latest trends, advancements, and challenges in the field.

Some of the topics covered include the impact of COVID, pneumonia and vaping on the respiratory system, caring for bariatric clients and the new pacer unit - transforming mental health care in Tasmania.

The ANMF and HERC are shaping the future of acute care. Have You Planned Your Heart Attack? by Dr Warrick Bishop will be gifted to attendees.

Have You Planned Your Heart Attack? by Dr Warrick Bishop will be gifted to each of our attendees. (PS)

Students represented Kingston Primary School (KPS) in the volleyball championship recently. The volleyball competition happens every year and is organised by the Huon and Channel Sports Association, an organisation run by school PE teachers. (PS)

Volleyball Tas supports the event and provides umpires who can guide the grade 5/6 students on other options in the local area for volleyball. (PS)

The event also included a 'come and try day' where schools could bring groups of students to tryout a range of sports. This year included table tennis, judo, cricket, gymnastics and croquet. This was introduced post-COVID to try and get kids back into sport. (PS)

A follow-up program runs at Elizabeth College for grade 5/6 for any students who wish to continue. Congratulations to KPS Team One for taking out the win. (PS)

Costume library huge success

A new initiative aimed at ensuring no child misses out on Book Week has been a roaring success, helping at least 70 kids at Kingston Primary and Rokeby Primary School to participate in parades and activities.

The Book Week 'costume library' has been brought to life by Franklin Labor MP David O'Byrne and local legend and retired teacher Angela Briant.

"No kid should miss out on Book Week," said Mr O'Byrne.

"But without a book or a costume, it's really hard for kids to be engaged in the activities, which means they miss out on the reading and literacy benefits of Book Week too."

"The huge smiles on the faces of kids who were able to participate in Book Week thanks to the costume library moved Angela and I to tears."

The initiative provides a library of costumes from popular children's books that kids can choose from, plus a book to match.

After Book Week is over, the kids can keep the book.

Many of the costumes have been sourced from generous donations from the community and from op-shops, with Mr O'Byrne confirming next year's costume library will be bigger than ever.

"It's been a great privilege to work with Angela to bring this idea to life and see so many kids get engaged with the power of books and the importance of literacy," he said.

"Kingston Primary School have been fantastic in letting us pilot this idea."

"Next year, we want to expand the program to include more schools throughout Kingborough and beyond."

Anyone with a spare costume suitable to donate to the costume library is encouraged to contact David O'Byrne's electorate office on 6212 2328.

MARGATE

Men's table opening two new locations

There will soon be 19 men's tables in Tasmania with new tables starting in Margate and Ranelagh.

The Men's Table is an organisation dedicated to creating communities for men to share openly about their lives and give them a sense of belonging, community, peer support and friendship.

It is also a great way for men to give back to their local male community.

More and more men are feeling the need to find a group where they can establish trust and friendship.

Men's Table has more than 150 tables nationally, with more than 1500 men taking a seat at a table monthly.

95 per cent of men who are part of current tables said that the Men's Table was a safe space to share.

There is no charge to become a member of the Men's Table.

A table is formed when a group of men come together for a meal each month to talk through their challenges and their highs and lows with a group of peers who they learn to trust and respect.

The Margate Men's Table Launch will be on Tuesday, September 19 from 6pm at the North West Bay Golf Club.

The Ranelagh Men's Table Launch will be on Wednesday, October 11 from 6pm.

More and more men are feeling the need to find a group where they can establish trust and friendship. (PS)

Kingborough Real Estate Guide

Sensational opportunity 15 minutes from Hobart

This property is situated back from the street in a private and secure location where you can take a leisurely stroll to some of the best beaches that Kingborough has to offer.

The solid four-bedroom home offers a comfortable and convenient lifestyle in the idyllic suburb of Blackmans Bay.

With its boutique restaurant strip about 800 meters away, this home is an exciting opportunity to secure a charming abode with everything you could possibly need right at your fingertips.

Ideal for a first home buyer, investor, or a young family wanting access to some of the most popular schools in the zone.

The original 1948 cottage has undergone some renovations and has been extended at various stages with modern design principles combined with the home's period character features to create a fully functional home loaded with charm.

As you enter the property up the internal driveway, you will note water views over the River Derwent and Storm Bay, which adds to that coastal ambience.

An enclosed entry porch draws you into the home and combines with the crisp, white finish and natural light to create an airy and bright home with plenty of modern appeal.

The kitchen has excellent storage options, quality appliances and plenty of bench space.

From there it flows through to the living room that forms the heart of the home and into a sun-soaked dining room.

The dining room provides access to the new hardwood deck overlooking the front yard.

Fully fenced, the front yard and deck make an ideal space for playing with family, entertaining guests, or for quiet relaxation.

The home offers four spacious bedrooms, one of which is accessed externally.

All four bedrooms are serviced by the centrally located bathroom with a second toilet accessed via the laundry.

The yard has been divided into three separate sections.

The northern plot offers various mature fruit trees and six raised organic veggie beds along with a window box on the kitchen window allowing herbs to be picked fresh from the kitchen bench.

Double gates at the side of the home allow access to a detached, lock-up workshop with ample storage and two more garden sheds.

A simply sensational opportunity to take advantage of sought-after surrounds and only 15 minutes away from Hobart CBD.

Blitz the Blues

With mental health issues increasing year on year the Mental Health Council of Tasmania and Beyond Blue have been working to engage people in conversations in order to have these complex issues discussed more openly.

After launching Blitz the Blues in Victoria in 2010, Kingston resident and health educator Sue Carolyn returned to Tasmania in 2013 to help promote a more holistic approach to mental health and wellbeing.

She has since held Blitz the Blues public forums on World Mental Health Day each year in various places throughout Tasmania.

This has included Sorrell, Kempton, Longford, Smithton, Queenstown, and Huonville.

This year, Sue is holding a free public forum for World Mental Health Day on October 10 at the Kingston Hub.

During the forum Sue will discuss the significant threads of life, particularly in respect to relationships, spiritual insight, personal empowerment, and personal wellbeing.

Sue held her first public forum promoting mental health and wellbeing in 2003.

As someone who had been seriously impacted by fear as a young person, Sue credits the unraveling of the underlying causes of the fear within her to an understanding of 2 Timothy 1:7, and participation in the mental health program, GROW, which she attended in Shepparton.

Ruth Parsons, a GROW Program Worker in Tasmania will also be speaking at the Kingston Hub about what GROW has to offer individuals who are on a personal development journey.

Rob Davies, a local entertainer performing as Unreal Billie, will deliver a humorous Billy Connolly impersonation for the occasion.

The program is still being finalised but it is sure to be an informative and entertaining occasion.

It starts with go carts

Levi Bush, 11, a student at Snug Primary School, won the Karting Tasmania state-wide series in his Cadet 12 class recently.

There were four rounds of racing, one at each club in Tasmania, and when the points were tallied, Levi had come out on top.

Levi's brothers Kai and Zac are racers too.

The family regularly travels the state together to support the boys in their passion.

The Bush family discovered the cart club in 2021 and the boys love the speed, the action and the competition. Their mum Selina said that it's the community and friendships that appeal to her.

The boys have friends all over the state and Levi will be able to make even more when he competes in Victoria in October.

Ultimately Levi wants to be a Formula One race car driver and Selina says a lot of professional motorsport drivers got their start in go carts as kids.

Margate Primary School celebrates Book Week

Margate Primary School (MPS) got behind Book Week with three days of literature-themed activities with something for all ages.

On day one, some of the Year Six students, supported by Mrs Harrland, joined thousands of writers around Australia in an intense writing challenge to write and illustrate a book in just one day.

This challenge aims not only to help develop collaboration, creativity and time management skills, but also provides the opportunity to make a difference to the lives of kids with cancer.

MPS' Year Six team have raised over $300.

On day two the school held the Kinder Bilbies' Book Week parade and book club.

On the last day MPS held the community walk and parade.

MPS students were cheered on by spectators on the streets along with families who came to the gym to watch the parade.

MPS extended thanks to Louise from Elder's Real Estate for generously purchasing and donating Book Week prizes and Richard Jupe for his photography.

As a fitting end to the week MPS were lucky to have Mrs Jarvis and Rosie as a part of the Story Dogs program (improving literacy by getting children to read to dogs).

Staff and students wore orange and donated a gold coin to the WOOF for Story Dogs program fundraiser to help support the amazing Story Dogs program across Australia.

This year, some wonderful Year Six students who were supported by Mrs Harrland joined thousands of writers around Australia taking on the challenge to write and illustrate a book in just one day. (PS)

Leah Sheldon and Janine Sigley first trialled the Story Dogs program in 2009 in their own children's school. To the principal's surprise, Story Dogs was very successful, with great improvements noticed in the participating students. From there, Story Dogs expanded and has continued to grow and help all of Australia. (PS)

The natural choice in flooring

The natural choices range of wool carpets and timber flooring at Choices Kingston boast the best in durability, efficiency and warmth.

Renowned for their exquisite quality and indulgent softness, Windsor Wool and Temuka carpets are crafted with 100 per cent New Zealand wool.

Natural wool carpets provide warmth and comfort underfoot, along with excellent insulation and hypoallergenic properties.

The Plantino timber flooring range is ideal for high-traffic areas, as they are durable, scratch-resistant and easy to clean.

The variety of natural timber colours can be selected to suit any style or decor.

Your local, award-winning Choices Flooring team in Mertonvale Circuit, Kingston is happy to run you through the benefits of wool or timber flooring and help you find the perfect floor for your home.

Wide board timber flooring has become increasingly popular. Wider planks not only create an open and spacious feeling but also showcase the natural beauty of the timber. During winter months when natural light is scarce, Plantino Native Memento can make a room appear brighter and more welcoming. Visit Choices Flooring Kingston for more flooring ideas for your home. (PS)

Just as it protects sheep from the elements in the colder months, wool carpet has wonderful insulating properties which help keeps your floors toasty warm in winter and cooler in summer. Incredibly durable, it also naturally repels and resists stains, disguises dirt, is flame retardant and easy to maintain. (PS)

The night was made even more special with Jim Kean receiving a Life Membership for his hard work and dedication to the club, from playing as a junior, to coaching and being on the committee. The Kingborough Lions faced the Devonport Strikers on Saturday, September 2. The game wasn't looking promising for the Lions at half time with a score of 1-3. Marcus Gardner played his 150th game for the Tigers in the match on Saturday, September 2. Despite the loss to Clarence, the Tigers claimed the 2023 minor premiership by finishing the home-and-away season on top of the TSL ladder, before heading into finals this weekend. (PS Carolyn Whitehouse)

Tough finals for the Tigers

On Saturday, September 2 the Tigers had a show-down against the Clarence Roos in the final roster game of the 2023 season.

None of these Tigers were able to match the Roos' performance with all three teams losing.

The U18s lost 2.5.17 to 12.13.85, Development League lost 6.8.44 to 8.9.57 and Seniors lost 7.4.46 to 9.13.67.

Despite these challenging defeats, both the Tigers U18s and Seniors will be playing in the qualifying finals next Saturday, September 9.

The Seniors played for the Gadomski-Riewoldt Trophy in a bone marrow failure awareness match in memory of Alex Gadomski and Maddie Riewoldt.

It was Marcus Gardner's 150th game for the Tigers.

The SFLW Division 1 Tigers had more luck on Sunday, defeating Clarence 5.1.31 to 3.2.20.

The women will be playing the grand final next Sunday, September 10 against North Hobart.
